NEXT SUNDAY'S SECOND COLLECTION IS THE CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development is the national anti-poverty program of the U.S. Catholic Bishops, working to carry out the mission of Jesus Christ "... to bring good news to the poor ... release to captives ... sight to the blind, and let the oppressed go free." (Luke 4:18)

The belief that those who are directly affected by unjust systems and structures have the best insight into knowing how to change them is central to CCHD. CCHD works to break the cycle of poverty by helping low-income people participate in decisions that affect their lives, families and communities. CCHD offers a hand up, not a hand out.

CCHD is an essential part of the Church in the United States' social mission, and a unique part of the Catholic community's broad commitment to assist low-income people, families and communities.

Preparing for Advent

Setting the Stage For Our Advent Journey, Even Before It Begins.

Getting in Touch with Myself One of the best ways to prepare for the very special season of Advent is to "get in touch with ourselves." It may sound odd, but one symptom of our contemporary lives is that we can often be quite "out of touch" with what is going on in our very own hearts. We are about to begin our Advent, right at the time our Western culture begins Christmas preparations. It is a busy time, and our heads are filled with details to remember. And, it is a time of emotional complexity that is part of this holiday season - with all of the expectations and challenges of family and relationships: who we want to be with and who we struggle to be with. So, our hearts are a bit tender, if not completely defended from experiencing anything deeply.

We are about to hear some very powerful and stirring readings from Isaiah, the Prophet. We will re-enter the ancient tradition of a people longing for the coming of a Savior. We may remember the days of our childhood when we longed for Christmas to come, because it was a magical time of receiving gifts. As adults, we have to ask ourselves: "What is it I long for now?" The answer won't come easily. The more we walk around with that question, and let it penetrate through the layers of distraction and self-protection, the more powerfully we will experience Advent.

Salvation From We are about to read and pray about the expectant hope of Israel, as expressed through Isaiah. The images we will be using are about darkness and gloom - about thick clouds covering the people - and about hunger and thirst. They are images that attempt to capture a sense of what we feel when we are distant from our God. There are many images about war and conflict. They express the powerlessness and anxiety we experience when we feel vulnerable and defense-less. Most of all, there are images of a future day - a day that can only be called the Lord's - when all the tears will be wiped away, when there will be plenty to eat and drink, and when there will be no more conflict and no more war. God's salvation will be made known. God's victory will be complete.

These are very precious days for us to come into intimate contact with our own need for salvation. It is a time to make friends with our tears, our darkness, our hunger and thirst. What is missing? What eludes my grasp? What name can I give to the "restlessness" in my heart? What is the emptiness I keep trying to "feed" with food, with fantasy, with excitement, with busyness? What is the conflict that is "eating at me"? What is the sinful, unloving, self-centered pattern for which I haven't asked for forgiveness and healing? Where do I need a peace that the world cannot give?

Coming to know where I need a Savior is how I can prepare for Advent I am preparing to listen to the promises, listen to these rich texts announcing the liberation I can truly long for. When my heart is open, when my hands are open, when my mouth is open and ready to ask for freedom, healing and peace, then I am ready to begin Advent.

Come, Lord, Jesus. Come and Visit Your People.
We Await Your Coming; Come, O, Lord. Isaiah 35

Stewardship Way of Life Lives On! You may still send the Commitment Cards you received in the mail or taken from the parish Sunday bulletin. We will not stop saying that we need more new volunteers in all our parish ministries. The Conference of Catholic Bishops in the United States exhort us: "Since stewardship is a way of life, and not simply a program of church support...the most important ingredient in any effort is the personal witness of individuals (clergy, religious, and lay) who have experienced a change of heart as a result of their commitment to stewardship. For this reason, we want to thank in special way our parishioners who engaged how they were inspired and transformed in living their Christian Faith. Thank you Bruce McKie, Mary Ann White, Paul Roscelli, Julie Lozano, for your sincere sharing during Mass, to prepare our parish for Commitment Sunday, and how to be faithful stewards of God's gifts.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) RCIA Catechumenate traditionally begins with a rite within the Mass on the First Sunday of Advent. The period of the Catechumenate lasts until the catechumens will receive the sacraments of Christian Initiation on Easter Sunday vigil. Catechumens are brought to maturity in the faith, with the formal study of Church teachings, by a deeper commitment to living the Christian life, prayer, and by witness of their faith. Catechumens are being formed to be members of the Body of Christ, and it is the responsibility of the entire parish, not just a few people, to participate in this formation through witness, support, and prayer. This year we have two adults, three teen-agers, and two children preparing for baptism, confirmation and Holy Communion. Please pray for them and their sponsors/godparents.

Spiritual Reading Books We are upgrading the libraries in the Pastoral Center, located in both the meeting room and the Mercy Room. If you want to give away your spiritual reading books, copyright year 2000 to the present, please give them to Sr. Cristina. Dated materials such as missals and magazines not included. Thank you for your generous sharing.

Canossian Religious Family and the Lay Canossians For more information regarding the process of discernment of a Canossian vocation, as Sister, priest, Brother, or lay, please ask Sr. Cristina. We are guided by Charity and Humility, the virtues of Jesus Crucified, given to us by St. Magdalene of Canossa as our Great Model. Mary, Mother of Charity at the foot of the cross as we share life and prayer with one another, and as we serve our less fortunate brothers and sisters, living the Canossian charism.

Reflection: "Drawing extensively from the teaching of his predecessors, Pope Francis teaches that care for the things of the earth is necessarily bound together with our care for one another, especially the poor. This interdependency extend from the deep respect due every human person to all living beings and to the earth where we make our home." -Archbishop Joseph E. Kurtz, President - USCCB
