FAZtor's Notes

By Fr. Arnold Zamora

The Jedi is back! No, not the Jedi, but the burglar is back in our Church. Last Sunday, shortly after the 7:30AM mass had started, I passed by the Blessed Virgin Mary Shrine only to see a familiar face fishing money out from the candle box in front of the Marian Shrine. This same guy has been in and out of prison for the same crime. He has an obsession of going to churches and targeting donation boxes. I even went to court to testify against him. I did not call the police, unlike the last time I caught him on our surveillance camera and he was arrested and handcuffed. This time, I just calmly asked him to leave. The funny thing is that before leaving the shrine with his "fishing rod" (a 3-foot metal wire), he made the Sign of the Cross.

For a while, I compared this burglar to the mice that keep coming back to our house and facilities. He is not scared of prison anymore. The mice are not scared of the traps anymore and they know how to evade them. Well, as to the bigger picture, this burglar was also like those of us who have sinned, went to confession and then commit a sin again and again, sometimes if not oftentimes, committing the same sins. Like the burglar, we express our faith by making the Sign of the Cross, but have we been invoking the Holy Trinity, the feast we celebrate this weekend? Maybe this weekend's Feast of the Blessed Trinity can remind us that it is not simply making the sign of the cross, it is more of invoking the three persons of the Blessed Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

A thief is a biblical symbol of death. The thief of the night came to our parishioner, Thomas Miller, the father of Brendan who helps us around the church with slides projections, microphone set-up and setting up for baptisms. Tom was a great father who was always grateful for the gift of a son and a great husband who was faithfully joined in marriage with Theresa for 45 years.

The same thief came to our long time parishioner and Alumni parent Kathleen Woods. She was a retired Army Nurse, a devoted attendee at the 7:30 am Sunday Mass and the loving mother of Kevin and Daniel. Our deepest condolences to the bereaved families and our sincere prayers for the eternal repose of Tom and Kathy.

A few days ago, we also received a communication from the Chancery office of our Archdiocese warning us of a scam alert. A certain Fr. Luis Alberto was calling few churches telling them that their pastor had a car accident and is in need of money. This another form of stealing, another type of burglar. Not too long ago, Pope Francis warned against "fake news" and likened it to the 'crafty serpent' in the Garden of Eden.

So, a warning to gossipers who create fake news!

Mildred, the church gossip and self-appointed arbiter of the church's morals, kept sticking her nose in the other members' private lives. Church members were unappreciative of her activities, but feared her enough to maintain their silence.

She made a mistake, however, when she accused George, a new member, of being an alcoholic after she saw his pickup truck parked in front of the town's only bar one afternoon.

She commented to George and others that everyone seeing it there would know what he was doing.

George, a man of few words, stared at her for a moment and just walked away. He didn't explain, defend, or deny; he said nothing.

Later that evening, George quietly parked his pickup in front of Mildred's house... and left it there all night!

REFLECTION:

All powerful God, who created the world for peace, remember those who died defending peace and justice. All you give us to enjoy, freedom, prosperity, safety, come to us through their sacrifice.

Today, we remember and celebrate their devotion to the future. Their vision of a day when peace would dawn with every rising sun. Let us never forget or take for granted what these men and women died for. Bless them with eternal peace. Amen.

RCIA and Religious Education Classes for 2018-2019. You or someone you know may consider becoming Catholic or interested in completing the Sacrament of Christian Initiation by being confirmed as an Adult. Children or youth who need to prepare for First Holy Communion and/or Confirmation, please contact Sr. Cristina in the parish office. Programs will begin on Sunday, September 9, 2018 in the Pastoral Center. Sr. Cristina and Catechists will be at the entrance of the church every weekend Masses in August 2018, to register new and returning students. We will also display classroom materials that we will use for every grade level.

Adult Faith Formation Spring Session will be on Thursdays, May 31 and June 7 & 14, 2018. The classes will be on the History of the Catholic Church: "This is Our Story, This is Our Family". Our identity as Catholics means that we inherit the deeds of holy men and women who, for 2000+ years have built a great civilization and spread the Gospel throughout the world. Classes are at 7:00-8:30 PM in the meeting room of the Pastoral Center. Parishioners who participate find the program very impressive. It is a vivid, thorough, and engaging program. Steve Weidenkopf is an excellent teacher for adults.

HAPPY BLESSED TRINITY SUNDAY!

Let us share the good news of the Lord, not gossip or "fake news." ----- Be blessed by the Father, Son and Holy Spirit – the Most Holy Trinity!

Trinity Sunday

May 27, 2018

One of the things we often hear in times of domestic, local or international crisis is that “everyone pulled together.” We are rightly proud, and a few times amazed, at how people can set aside their differences and strive for the common good. Sometimes this experience of working together has the long-lasting benefit of breaking down boundaries. Other times, sadly, old enmities, prejudices, and suspicions return when the crisis is over.

Trinity Sunday celebrates that whether we are in crisis or not, in season and out of season, the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit do nothing but “pull together” to love and save us. What we glimpse as the best attribute of our family, town, or nation defines who our Christian God is, and what they see, how they judge, and the way they act toward the world.

A famous icon of the Trinity depicts the three persons at a table where there are four place settings. The final place, in the lower half of the painting, invites the viewer to take the seat and join them. It’s profound theology and masterful art, but we can quickly misunderstand it.

We are not just personally invited to join in the very life of God, and pull together with them in their loving and saving of the world. The seat at the table is reserved for all of humanity.

In practical terms it is impossible to profess belief in the Trinity, on the one hand, and then work at things which pull the human family apart, on the other. It is scandalous to hold to the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit and be known as racist, bigoted, and sexist, to not care about refugees or those who die each day of starvation. We cannot keep signing ourselves in the name of a Triune God and then work hard at getting richer and more secure while the rest of humanity grow poorer and lack the necessities for human dignity. Ghandi once said, “I love the New Testament and the Christian ideas about God and I would take the waters of Christian baptism tomorrow if I saw Christians practice what they preach.”

Trinity Sunday is not about theological mathematics, working out how three goes into one. It’s about gaining the strength at this Eucharist to pull together to see that all of God’s children have the opportunity to hear the good news of how much God loves us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and so can take their privileged place at God’s table. Most people will learn about the saving love of God primarily through the way they observe us seeing, judging, and acting.

It’s not by accident that in our Catholic tradition the usual moment we invoke the Trinity is when we make the sign of the cross. It reminds us that “we cannot have our cake and eat it too.” Every time we profess the Trinity we recommit ourselves to die to self so that God’s saving love may be realized for everyone, everywhere.

So let’s not only profess our belief in the three persons that make up our one God, but live the life that goes with it, “In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.”

Lectio Divina

Read: The book of Deuteronomy assures us that there has never been a God like Yahweh who cares for the people; and indeed, there is only one God. Paul assures us that all those who walk in the Spirit of God are the children of God, and thereby heirs for the inheritance of God. Jesus reveals the Trinitarian nature of God and assures his eternal presence with us.

Reflect: Christianity is not monotheistic; it is Trinitarian, in fact. Our God is one, but within this oneness is the mystery of the Trinity, a community of three persons who share in the one nature. This mystery cannot be comprehended by our minds; but it can be experienced through our living Trinitarian communities of loving and sharing with our brothers and sisters on earth. No Christian can walk alone the path of his faith; he can only walk together in a community reaching out to others holding them and being held by them.

Pray: Pray for a Trinitarian heart that longs to connect with people around.

Act: Choose two other people, and together with them, spend some 30 minutes in Adoration before the Blessed Sacrament.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

One of the great treasures of the Eastern tradition is the icon of the Holy Trinity created by the Russian iconographer Andrei Rublev in the 1400s. The Trinity is symbolized by the three travelers to the tent of Abraham and Sarah. They are seated at a table blessing a cup of wine, under the oak of Mamre. If you look closely, you will see a sacrificed calf in the chalice, reminding the viewer of the cross. The table, prepared for eating and tilted toward the viewer, is an invitation to the Eucharist. From left to right, each figure is keyed to a person of the Trinity. Like all icons, this image is theology in art. The persons are equal in proportion and dignity, they all carry staffs to symbolize their power, and are shown with golden wings and halos. Today, the best place to see Rublev's work is the Holy Trinity Cathedral, at the heart of the vast Holy Trinity monastery about an hour from Moscow. After decades of persecution, it is now once again a living monastery, a world heritage site, and the spiritual home of Russian Orthodoxy. A Google visit is highly recommended today!
