Lectio Divina

Read: Yahweh declares a new Covenant whereby he would forgive and forget people's wrongdoings and inscribe His Law of Love in their hearts. Jesus preaches the Grain Theory: how death leads to abundance of life. The letter to the Hebrews speaks about how Jesus practiced this theory.

Reflect: Pope Francis, in his Jubilee Retreat to priests in June 2016, remarked: "True Grace is to forget." Not anamnesis, but amnesia. The scriptural readings of the day confirm it. God promises to forget our sins, forever. Can there be a greater grace? Jesus invites us to forget ourselves— can there be a greater grace either? Jesus is not preaching about doing violence to ourselves (he didn't say, "kill yourself"); rather, he gives us a "Grain Theory," talking about a certain spiritual forgetfulness by which we let our lives fall so that we are free to become life for the world. The inability to forget is a sign of sickness and ill health—like our constant obsession with our teeth when we have a toothache. When our teeth are healthy, we forget we have teeth, but use them well. Or, when we have a headache, we obsess about our

FAZtor's Notes

By Fr. Arnold Zamora

March is Women's History Month. It is an annual declared month that highlights the contributions of women to events in history and contemporary society. We recognize the contributions of the many women working in our parish serving on different committees and in many ministries. Season after season our church looks beautiful because of our Church Environment Committee, that is made up of all women. Every Monday, our all counting ladies faithfully and diligently fulfill their task. We also have a Holy Name Ladies Aide Society that supports the poor in our parish.

Parishioner and Saint Vincent de Paul Society member Janet Potts assisted Will Casey to re-sod our Pastoral Center front yard. The greens are back, just in time for the rain.

So dear men, appreciate the women in your lives always, because it is not easy to be a woman.

Here what she does for you:

- changes her name.
- changes her home.
- leaves her family.
- moves in with you.
- builds a home with you.
- gets pregnant for you.
- pregnancy changes her body.
- she gets fat.
- almost gives up in the labor room due to the unbearable pain of child birth.
- even the kids she delivers bear your name.

Till the day she dies, everything she does... cooking, cleaning your house, taking care of your parents, bringing up your children, earning a salary, advising you, ensuring you can be relaxed, maintaining all family relations, everything that benefits you... sometimes at the cost of her own health, hobbies and beauty.

Being a woman is priceless.

The man approached the very beautiful woman in the large supermarket and asked, "You know, I've lost my wife here in the supermarket. Can you talk to me for a couple of minutes?"

"Why?"

"Because every time I talk to a beautiful woman my wife appears out of nowhere."

WOMAN MEANS:-

W - WONDERFUL MOTHER.

O - OUTSTANDING FRIEND.

M - MARVELOUS DAUGHTER.

A - ADORABLE SISTER.

N - NICEST GIFT TO MEN FROM GOD.

Rock the world ladies!

A salute to women!

Lenten Reflection

An excerpt from Pope Francis' 2018 Lenten Message

"In his description of hell, Dante Alighieri pictures the devil seated on a throne of ice. In frozen and loveless isolation. We might well ask ourselves how it happens that charity can turn cold within us. What are the signs that indicate that our love is beginning to cool? More than anything else, what destroys charity is greed for money, "the root of all evil" (1 Timothy 6:10). The rejection of God and his peace soon follows; we prefer our own desolation rather than the comfort found in his word and the sacraments. All this leads to violence against anyone we think is a threat to our own certainties: the unborn child, the elderly and infirm, the migrant, the alien among us, or our neighbor who does not live up to our expectations."

CRS Rice Bowl Lenten Faith-in-Action Program 2018 Please bring back your donations on Palm Sunday. There will be baskets at the entrance of the church for the Rice Bowl boxes, or you may drop your donation check in the collection baskets at Mass. Thank you very much for devoting your Lenten prayers, fasting and gifts to transform our relationship with God and neighbor.

Easter Sacraments Schedule of Preparation for RCIC and Adult Confirmation Candidates Retreat on Holy Saturday, March 31, 9:30 – 11:30 AM in the Pastoral Center. Participants are candidates, Godparents, sponsors, parents or guardians. Please bring snacks to share. Sr. Cristina will guide the prayer and reflection. (Adult Confirmation candidates, and those who wish may go to Confession).

Lenten Recollection Day for the Lay Canossians and Parishioners

The theme of this short retreat is "Lent – A New Beginning", will be facilitated by Sr. Cristina. It will be on the Saturday before Palm Sunday, March 24, at 9:30AM-12:00Noon in the Flanagan Center. This will be a good time to begin Holy Week. We will spend this day of prayer, reflection and silence, deepening Pope Francis' meditation on the "Parable of the Merciful Father. Please bring your Bible. Refreshments will be served.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults We have been receiving inquiries about this process for the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist for adults. It begins mid-August 2018. You may register now. An interview with Sr. Cristina will be scheduled at a later date. Thank you.

If ever you get the chance to travel to Turkey make sure you go to the Roman ruins at Ephesus. The trip is instructive for all sorts of reasons, not least because two thousand years ago Ephesus was a seaport and now you have to drive inland for over an hour to get there. I wonder what our cities will look like in another two thousand years? But Ephesus is worth the trip. The Roman ruins there, especially the library, are extraordinary. For Christians, however, three other places there capture the imagination. It's the place to which the great letter in the New Testament was addressed. There are the ruins of the hall in which the important Council of Ephesus met, and there are ruins of a monastery built over what is claimed to be the final home of St John, the Beloved Disciple. There is also the much more dubious claim that Mary's final house, and the site of her Assumption, is on top of the mountain overlooking the ancient city.

There are good reasons to believe that the Gospel of John, from which we have just read, was written in Ephesus, 70 years after Jesus' death. I like to think about the context in which the Scriptures were written, not just because it helps me understand some things in the text, but also to appreciate that our Scriptures were inspired by the experience of a flesh and blood community.

Ephesus was a center of learning, trade, government, and religion in the ancient world. We also know that the early Christians were greatly persecuted and martyred there. The early church was filled with stories of betrayal, torture, death, and heroic witness to the faith. The stakes for believing in Jesus were very high. And it was the heroic witness of these martyrs that eventually led to the conversion of the Roman Empire to Christianity. It should come as no surprise to us then that John's Gospel should have a special focus on sharing in the sufferings of Jesus and the glory to come.

The words of Jesus in today's Gospel must have been very important to a community that was awash with the blood of their fellow believers. Our foremothers and forefathers in the faith counted themselves blessed to die as Jesus died, alive in the faith of God's love for the world. Just imagine how that community of martyrs first heard these words, "Unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit."

By comparison we have it easy today, but martyrdom comes to all believers in different ways. In the broadest sense a martyr is one who is prepared to pay the price for holding true to Christ. For us now this might mean making serious choices about the company we keep, the business ventures we enter into, the non-violent protests we mount, foregoing luxuries so that others in our world might have necessities, and even remaining faithful to the vows and promises we have made. Christian faith sometimes bites hard, and when it does we know we are sharing in the martyr's lot.

And what should be our response when our faith in Christ costs us something big? Jesus models it for us in today's Gospel, "... what should I say? 'Father, save me from this hour.' No, it was for this purpose that I came to this hour. Father, glorify your name."

May this final week of Lent, then, see this flesh and blood community be like our forebears in Ephesus and actively seek out ways of sharing in the martyr's lot by letting go of what is not essential and focusing on the One who loved us to the end.

TODAY'S SECOND COLLECTION THE CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES COLLECTION

Christ is standing at the door of our hearts, knocking, seeking relief from the pain and suffering found around world. He comes to us bearing the disguise of the vulnerable refugee, the immigrant family, and the poor and marginalized, and our faith calls us to respond. Your generosity to The Catholic Relief Services Collection (CRSC) helps six Catholic organizations comfort Christ, whom we find in the suffering brothers and sisters in our midst.

With your help, the Parishes Organized to Welcome Refugees (POWR) program has organized thousands of volunteers to help refugees with legal work, medical services, and language skills. The volunteers have offered friendship, warm meals, and jobs and have welcomed the newcomers into local parishes, providing a smooth transition to their new home.

When refugees come to the United States, housing must be secured within a short time frame. In Portland, Oregon, this is a significant challenge, because the city has one of the highest rental occupancy rates in the country. But with your support of the CRSC, Holy Trinity Parish has been able to offer a nine-bedroom home and send volunteers to welcome refugee newcomers, giving space and support during their initial adjustment, while permanent housing is secured and set up. Refugees typically stay in the house no more than three weeks before they move into permanent housing. Now, Holy Trinity Parish is working with other faith-based organizations to replicate this program in other Portland neighborhoods. Support The Catholic Relief Services Collection today, and help Jesus in disguise.

HOLY NAME LADIES AID COLLECTION

Next Sunday, members of the Catholic Ladies Aid will be collecting for the needy in the Parish. Boxes will be by the exits.
