Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

You shall love

your neighbor as yourself.

Mark 12:31

Reflections:

Jesus does not command us to love "God" in the abstract. Teaching Jew to Jew he says: "You shall love the Lord your God"—the Lord who had rescued the Jewish people from slavery. So, commanding a love which responds to an initiative of Divine Love.

Why wouldn't one respond "heart, mind, strength, soul" in gratitude for the gift of life itself, for some particular person or incident, for the beauty and grandeur of nature, for rescue from some situation which seemed to engulf us? And if the Lord God loved you in such a way, why wouldn't you love yourself?

Then you can properly "Love your neighbor as yourself." There is nothing sentimental in his teaching from Leviticus 19:18 and the preceding verses. Jesus was pointing to the system of social justice which looked after the poor and which did not exploit workers. It is up to us as global citizens of the 21st century to recognize as "neighbors" those beyond our borders and to love them in the practical "Levitical" way.

Fulfilling the Dual Command, we guard against the extremes of religious piety or social activism and become Christian humanists loving God and neighbor.

We might pause a moment to pray in responsive gratitude to the Lord God, and to commit ourselves to loving our neighbor, hoping to hear the words of Jesus Christ: "You are not far from the Kingdom of God."

Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

You shall love the LORD, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength.

— Deuteronomy 6:5

November 4, 2018

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The LORD, the God of your fathers, will give you a land flowing with milk and honey (Deuteronomy 6:2-6).

Psalms — I love you, Lord, my strength (Psalm 18).

Second Reading — Jesus is always able to save those who approach God through him (Hebrews 7:23-28).

Gospel — To love God with all your heart and to love your neighbor as yourself is worth more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices (Mark 12:28b-34).

LECTIO DIVINA

Read: Keep the commandments of the Lord and the commandments will keep you. Jesus declares the equivalency of loving God and loving neighbor. Jesus, the unblemished sacrificial lamb, is the priestly meeting ground of the love-triad: God, neighbor, and I.

Reflect: "You are not far from the Kingdom of God," said Jesus to the lawyer who upheld the equivalency of love of God and neighbor. But there is a catch in the sentence: being not far only implies being close enough; it is no guarantee that one is definitively within the Kingdom. What would move the lawyer—and us—from within the proximity to within the boundaries of the Kingdom? If knowing the greatest commandment with its equivalent love of God and neighbor takes us close to the Kingdom, it is doing the commandment that will move us in.

Pray: Ask God for the wisdom to know the commandments and the courage to do the same.

GOD'S LAWS

God's laws are not intended to burden or torment us. Instead they are guideposts that point us in the direction of good living. Accordingly, good living requires loving God and loving one another. We should not follow God's laws out of fear of what might happen if we don't, but rather view them as a foundation for building relationships and trust with one another and with God.

Reflection: Let's pray in this Eucharist, that we will develop our mind, heart, soul and strength to love the One who has created us in love and love those given into our care with the same love we lavish on ourselves. The Gospel of Jesus Christ demands nothing less!

FAZtor's Notes

by Fr. Arnold Zamora

The month of November always gives me a mixed feeling of nostalgia and joy. With this month we are nearing the end of the year, but it also signals the joy of Christmas. This month is about remembering our loved ones who have gone ahead of us, but is also the month of "Thanksgiving Day", a happy day for family reunions and thanksgiving for all the blessings in life.

So, this weekend we are celebrating our annual "Mass for our Deceased Parishioners" which has now become a tradition in our parish and is sponsored by our Grief Ministry, led by Valerie Toy. Our deceased parishioners who have died from November of last year to October of this year are remembered in this mass at 11:00 AM this Saturday.

In this month of Thanksgiving, I want to express my gratitude to all of you for your support for our parish especially our dear volunteers and ministers of the Church. We are grateful for the gift of people who offer their services to the church, including our children from the Religious Ed and HN School.

This Thursday, November 1st, on the Feast of All Saints, six of our 8th graders will be commissioned as Eucharistic Ministers to help distribute communion during our Thursday school masses. Congratulations and thank you to these students who will now be serving in God's altar as ministers: Ann Anish, Isabelle Morren, Natalie Quock, Evelyn Koriganawitz, Gabriel Borromeo and Glenn Munar.

Our school had started taking up a collection during the Thursday school masses. Our school wants to instill in these young minds the value of giving. As St. Francis says in his prayer "for it is in giving that we receive." With their giving, young students are practicing the Stewardship Way of Life, sharing their time, talent and treasure every Thursday.

A few of our parishioners will be doing a Lay Witnessing of the Stewardship Life at the mass this weekend. We thank them for sharing how they practice the Stewardship life and being a mission-partner of Christ in their life. This Lay Witnessing is in preparation for next Sunday's Stewardship Renewal or Commitment Sunday.

The Religion School Teacher asked her eight eager 10 year-olds if they would give a $1,000,000 to the missionaries.

"Yes!" they all screamed!

"Would you give $1,000?" Again, they shouted "YES!"

How about $100?" "Oh, yes we would!" they all agreed!

"Would you just give a dollar to the missionaries?" she asked.

The boys exclaimed, "Yes!" just as before, except for Johnny.

"Johnnie," the teacher said as she noticed the boy clutching his pocket, "Why didn't you say 'yes' this time?"

"Well," the boy stammered, "I have a dollar!"

Everything we have belongs to God and is a gift from God. This is the principle of Stewardship. If you want to multiply your blessings, give them away cheerfully and with an attitude of gratitude.

HOLY NAME PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

Hello Holy Name of Jesus parishioners.

Earlier this year some parishioners approached Father Arnold about having Holy Name of Jesus Parish host a series of training sessions for earthquake preparedness. Many of us on the Parish Council were here back in 1989 and remember all too vividly the October 17th Loma Prieta earthquake and the destruction it wreaked. And while the Sunset neighborhood fared better than other parts of our city, the lesson we all learned (again) was it's better to be prepared than unprepared for this sort of event. With this in mind, the Parish Council met in late summer and endorsed Father Arnold's request to use our Parish as a place to host an earthquake-training event. We considered it a blessing that our parish could host a potentially life saving event.

Luckily for all of us at Holy Name of Jesus Parish, we have several parishioners who are veterans of such training efforts. Our Parish is blessed to have as parishioners Ramsey Ramos, Dick Morten, Manzel de la Cruz, all of whom are active with San Francisco Fire Department Neighborhood Emergency Response Team (NERT). It didn't take long for them to organize a NERT neighborhood training, held at our Parish over a six week period starting October 2nd and ending November 5th.

For those of you unfamiliar with NERT, it is community based training program dedicated to a neighbor-helping-neighbor approach. NERT training is free for individuals, neighborhood groups and community-based organizations in San Francisco. The training includes hands-on disaster skills that will help individuals respond to a personal emergency as well as act as members of a neighborhood response team. <https://sf-fire.org/neighborhood-emergency-response-team-nert>

I am happy to report that the event quickly was sold out! Over eighty people, comprised of parishioners and neighbors, attended this 20-hour comprehensive program consisting of six (6) class sessions. Every attendee who attended and completed all six classes obtained a certification. During Mass I heard from a few parishioners the following question, "Who is a NERT volunteer?" The answer is: A typical NERT volunteer is not one type. The NERT volunteer is anyone who is active and involved in the community-- or wants to be. In short a NERT volunteer is YOU! Please keep this in mind for the next time our Parish hosts a NERT training.

Blessings,

Paul Roscelli Chair of the Parish Council of Holy Name of Jesus Parish.

REFLECTION:

Rooted and Grounded in Love

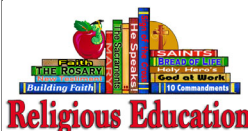

"If we know how great is the love of Jesus for us we will never be afraid to go to Him in all our poverty, all our weakness, all our spiritual wretchedness and infirmity. We must love our own poverty as Jesus loves it. We really do not know how to forgive until we knew what it is to be forgiven. It is our forgiveness of one another that makes the love of Jesus for us manifest in our lives, for in forgiving one another we act towards one another as Jesus has acted towards us."
Thomas Merton, "Thoughts in Solitude".

National Vocation Awareness Week will be observed on November 4-10, 2018. It is an annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States dedicated to promote vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these particular vocations. Please ask our Lord for more dedicated and holy priests and deacons, and consecrated women and men. May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community. May many young adult men and women respond generously to God's gift of vocation.

Building Bridges of Hope is the main theme of this year's Santa Clara Faith Formation Conference. It will be held on Friday, November 29 and Saturday, December 1, 2018, at the Santa Clara Convention Center. For more information, visit www.scffc.org.

New Beginnings: A Catholic Divorce Ministry The Archdiocese of San Francisco strives to make known Christ's healing love, so that all who suffer from separation or divorce might experience new life, reconciliation, and restoration, and by meeting people in similar position may find help to rebuild their own lives. We also recognize that separated and divorced people are not mere recipients of the Church's compassion; they are also ministers of that compassion. Through their vulnerability, suffering, courage, faithfulness, and patient endurance they bear witness to Christ and his redeeming grace in the world. If you are interested you are invited to this support group: First and Third Wednesdays, 7:00PM at St. Brendan Parish Center, 29 Rockway Avenue. For more information, contact dianam-wild@gmail.com or Martin at 650-739-6446. The archdiocesan coordinator is Ed Hopfner at hopfner@sfarch.org/newbeginningssf.info.

Canossian Lay Associates are women and men, single, married or widowed, who want to live their baptismal commitment with the spirit of dedication inspired by the charism of St. Magdalene of Canossa, united with the Canossian Sisters, Fathers and Brothers. Their spirituality is the Greatest Love of Christ Crucified and Mary, Mother of Charity at the foot of the cross. Their mission is to make Jesus Christ known that He may be loved. If you or someone you know is interested to know more about the Lay Canossians, you are invited to their meeting every first Sunday of the month, at 2:00-4:00PM in the Flanagan Center. You may also ask Jim Regan, Susan Logan, Angela Testani of Sr. Cristina for more information.

Religious Education Program

We still have time for parents to register their children for catechism classes. These are held every Sunday, 10:45 AM-12:00 Noon in the Pastoral Center. We encourage children and youth who need to be baptized, receive first Holy Communion and/or Confirmation. We have very few children in our Religious Education classes, to date. We understand that your children can not come to register themselves or come to the Pastoral Center by themselves. We enjoin parents or guardians to give this matter serious thought. Thanks for your kind attention and response.

Confirmation Class for Adults If you or someone you know need to prepare to receive the sacrament of Confirmation, please call Sr. Cristina in the parish office. You may schedule an individual session with Sister, or join the ongoing class on Wednesday at 6:15-7:30PM in the Pastoral Center.

Youth Ministry Forthcoming Activities:

Saturday, November 17, 2018

- 5:00 PM Mass
- Decorating the Pastoral Center areas for Thanksgiving
- Small faith sharing groups.

Saturday, December 15, 2018

- Mass at 5:00 PM
- Prepare care packages for the poor
- Faith sharing groups on Advent.

For further information about Holy Name Youth Ministry, please ask any of the following: Julie Quock, Erin Grogan, Justina Quock, Alejandra Brito and Sr. Cristina.

ACE COLLECTION

Today's Second Collection is the ACE COLLECTION for the benefit our Parish School. Your generous donation is very much appreciated by our school children.

ST. PATRICK'S SEMINARY COLLECTION

Next Sunday's Second Collection is for St. Patrick's Seminary. For more than a century, St. Patrick's Seminary & University in Menlo Park has been dedicated to the ministry of priestly formation, preparing seminarians for ordination and supporting the continued growth of priests already ordained. Well prepared priests are needed more than ever this time. To sustain their vitally important work, they rely on the generosity of our benefactors and of the parishioners whom our seminarians will one day serve as priests.

Catholics care. Catholics vote.

"We need to participate for the common good. Sometimes we hear: a good Catholic is not interested in politics. This is not true: good Catholics immerse themselves in politics by offering the best of themselves so that the leader can govern."

- Pope Francis, 9/16/13

HOLY NAME TREE OF LIFE

The Holy Name Tree of Life is a bronze tree trunk with approximately 400 leaves. It is located at the back of the church. Donations to the Tree of Life go towards a much needed Capital Improvement Fund.
