

Registration commitment and refund policy

By submitting the 2013-14 Registration Form you are indicating a commitment to lessons for the full 2013-2014 school year. Should a student decide before August 30, 2013 not to take lessons, the entire Fall Lesson Fee is refundable before the first lesson.

For returning Conservatory students, the remainder of the Fall Lesson Fee is refundable with notification before October 4, 2013. The remainder of the Spring Lesson Fee is refundable with notification before January 31, 2014. Refunds will not be given if the teacher is notified after October 4 in the fall semester and after January 31 in the spring semester. Please note: If a student decides to terminate lessons, two weeks notice must be given to the teacher and the parent must complete a Lesson Termination Form available in the Conservatory Office. In order to qualify for a refund after lessons have begun, the parent must notify the teacher and complete a Lesson Termination Form before October 4 in the fall and before January 31 in the spring. A refund will be given for the remainder of the payment, less two lessons. Once the parent notifies the teacher that the student will be dropping lessons, the parent will be accountable for two more lessons, regardless of whether the student attends those lessons.
