

We are Essential: Free the MASS!

In his September 13 homily on the Cathedral Plaza, Archbishop Cordileone invited the faithful to participate in a public call for reopening churches for worship at a level consistent with other activities in San Francisco and with stringent health and safety protocols in place: "I invite you all to participate in this public witness of our faith, and to invite your friends and fellow Catholics to join as well."

Schedule of Procession/Demonstrations and Outdoor Masses Planned for Sunday, September 20, 2020 at St. Mary's Cathedral

8:30 AM: St. Anthony of Padua Church, 3215 Cesar Chavez, near Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco.

9 AM: St. Dominic Church, 2390 Bush St., near Pierce Street, San Francisco.

9:15 AM: St. Patrick Church, 756 Mission St. near 4th Street, San Francisco

10:00 AM.: All processions Join Archbishop at United Nations Plaza

Archbishop Salvatore J. Cordileone will greet the people coming in the three processions as well as those who arrive independently at UN Plaza. Archbishop Cordileone will then carry the monstrance in procession to the Cathedral. The entire group leaves UN Plaza at 10:15 a.m. and walks along McAllister, west to Franklin and then right on Franklin to the Cathedral.

10:45 AM: Arrival of procession at the Cathedral of St. Mary of the Assumption

11:00 AM: outdoor Masses at Cathedral of St. Mary of the Assumption multiple outdoor Masses of 50 people at each wear masks

homily by Archbishop Cordileone contact tracing forms collected

Masses will be in Spanish, Chinese and English.

If you are interested to participate or have questions, please contact any of the following priests:

Fr. John Piderit, S.J. - 347-843-2842;

Fr. Moises Agudo - 415-290-2939 (organizing the walk beginning from St. Anthony Church);

Fr. Eugene Tungol - 415-690-3114 (organizing the walk beginning from St. Patrick's Church).