

MARCH 4, 2018 | THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

Jesus found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip of cords and drove them all out.

FAZtor's Notes

By Fr. Arnold Zamora

It's our annual St. Patrick's Dinner this weekend. This is the dinner we always look forward to, where we mingle with parishioners, alumni, school families, reconnect with old acquaintances and met new faces. Our evening begins with the SF Irish Pipers Band and Irish step dancing from the Brosnan School of Irish Dance. St. Patrick was not just a gift to Ireland or Scotland, but to the whole world. His Christ-centered prayer, "Christ be with me, Christ within me, Christ behind me, Christ before me..." is a soothing reminder as we journey with Christ this Lent. St. Patrick is well associated with the Irish Blessing: "May the road rise to meet you, May the wind be always at your back, May the Sunshine warm upon your face, And rains fall soft upon your fields, And until we meet again, May God hold you in the hollow of His hand."

This is the prayer we wish for everybody who will be joining us for our St. Patrick's Dinner. This is a prayer we wish for everyone on any occasion. This is also a prayer we wish for our dearly departed, like our parishioner Dorothy Briones, whose life we celebrated and honored last Thursday with a funeral mass at the church. Dorothy is one of the quiet saints in our church doing ordinary things with extraordinary love. We also had a funeral mass for Luisa "Lising" Lacayanga, the sister of Domingo Palarca, one of our ushers. Our condolences to Domingo and his family, including his wife, Carmen, who is our choir member, collection counter and Eucharistic minister. Likewise, we send our condolences and prayers to the family of Jocelyn Octaviano, who lost her brother-in-law, Antonio Octaviano, due to car accident.

"Fly Like A Bird" is a church song that is now sung at funerals. Maybe because of the idea of soaring on high (to heaven), on the journey from home to our real home and that we are not alone in that journey.

Our thanks to Mike Gallagher and his assistant, Mike Carr, for their hard work in helping to pigeon proof the church exterior. The pigeons had been roosting in the alcoves outside the doors, and now they cannot land, thanks to the netting and spikes installed. This took quite an effort, including setting up temporary scaffolding. They were also able to provide the same barriers for other areas of the Pastoral Center, including the Pre School Doorway and a couple of window sills.

Did you hear about the man who became a millionaire with one homing pigeon?

He sold it for a dollar and it kept coming home a million times.

Little Tim was outside in the back yard digging a big hole in the corner of the yard. He had been out there for a while really making this hole very large and deep.

The neighbor had been watching him for some time through her kitchen window and decided to go out and find out what was going on.

"Tim, why are you digging such a big hole in the yard?" she asked.

Tim did not even look up but spoke in anger, "Because my pigeon died"

"I am so sorry to hear that Tim" she said. "But why are you digging such a big hole?"

Tim replied, "Because your dam cat is goin' in there too."

"Worries and tensions are like the birds... You cannot stop them from flying near but you can certainly prevent them from making a nest in your mind!"

Lenten Reflection

"ALMSGIVING sets us free from greed and helps us to regard our neighbor as a brother or sister. What I possess is never mine alone. How I would like almsgiving to become a genuine style of life for each of us! How I would like us, as Christians, to follow the example of the Apostles and see in the sharing of our possessions a tangible witness of the communion that is ours in the Church! For this reason, I echo St. Paul's exhortation to the Corinthians to take up a collection for the community of Jerusalem as something from which they themselves would benefit (cf. 2 Corinthians 8:10). This is all the more fitting during the Lenten season, when many groups take up all collections to assist Churches and people in need. Yet I would also hope that, even in our daily encounters with those who beg for our assistance, we would see requests as coming from God Himself. When we give alms, we share in God's providential care for each of His children. If through me God helps someone today, will He not tomorrow provide for my own needs? For no one is more generous than God."

-Pope Francis, in his Message for Lent 2018

Lenten Recollection Day for the Lay Canossians and Parishioners

The theme of this short retreat is "Lent – A New Beginning", it will be facilitated by Sr. Cristina. It will be on Saturday before Palm Sunday, March 24, at 9:30AM-12:00Noon in the Pastoral Center. This will be a good way to begin Holy Week.

KEEP HOLY THE SABBATH

There's no better way to deepen our Lenten practice than to review the Ten Commandments. The first three, having to do with our right relationship to God, get the most ink. The one we busy people probably have the most problem with is keeping holy the Sabbath.

We need to depend on God to discern how to observe real Sabbath time in our lives. The point of this commandment is that God has given us a great gift: one whole day per week when we are free to rest, worship God, sing, feast, love, and rejoice. As Psalm 19 proclaims: "The law of the LORD is perfect, / refreshing the soul" (19:8). Our Sabbath rest is a great gift, to be received from God with joy, not with nitpicking. Copyright © J. S. Third Sunday of Lent March 4, 2018

In recent years the Ten Commandments have become an unusual staging ground for various groups within the Church. Some people complain that young Catholics don't know them off by heart. This position is countered by those who say that rather than being able to recite them we should live them, though it's hard to see how we can do one without the other. Still, others rightly claim that Jesus summarized them in his new commandments, "To love God with all our heart, mind, and soul and to love our neighbor as we love ourselves."

The problem with teaching the Ten Commandments is not what they say, but how they say it. The idea of "coveting" anything, but especially "wives, slaves, ox, and ass" are all a bit dated these days.

In an article entitled "Preaching to the Modern Pagans" journalist Bryan Appleyard tells how he interviewed a person who kept quoting them at length. Later he decided to read them for the first time since childhood and he was struck by their insightfulness into the human character. Appleyard thought all the Ten Commandments needed was a makeover so that we can reclaim the power of them.

"You shall have no other gods beside me."

Be serious!

"You shall not carve idols for yourselves ... nor bow down before them."

Get real!

"You shall not take the name of the LORD, your God, in vain."

Be humble!

"Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day ..."

Be quiet!

"Honor your father and your mother ..."

Respect age!

"You shall not kill."

Do not kill, for all murder is suicide!

"You shall not commit adultery."

Mean what you say!

"You shall not steal."

Do not steal, or all the world will die!

"You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor."

Honor others, their frailties are usually your own!

"You shall not covet your neighbor's house or wife ..."

Be kind, be generous and don't play around!

So by putting some ancient words into the modern vernacular we are exhorted this Sunday to seriousness, facing reality, humility, creating space, respecting age, honesty and fidelity, and we are bluntly told to stop killing and stealing. There is nothing old fashioned about these challenges. As in other instances, we can see that it's not what our tradition has to say but the way we say it that can be the problem.

And today's Gospel tells us of the consequences of moving away from these guiding principles. I think we need to take Jesus' anger very seriously. Rightly we have emphasized the love and compassion of Jesus over recent decades because for far too long the steadfast love of Christ was under-emphasized. We should never think, however, that it cancels out the anger God feels when he sees an unjust world filled with people who know better and do nothing. God has given us the Ten Commandments, the Law, the Prophets and Jesus his Son, so that we might know the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

HOLY NAME TREE OF LIFE

The Holy Name Tree of Life is a bronze tree trunk with approximately 400 leaves. It is located at the back of the church. Donations to the Tree of Life go towards a much needed Capital Improvement Fund. Each leaf costs $500 with a $25 engraving charge. We suggest a maximum number of characters to 5 lines, up to 25 characters per line including spaces. Leaf color choices are gold, silver or bronze.

Please call (415) 664-8590 or drop by the Parish office (1555 39th Ave.) during business hours and the Staff can give you more information or help you make your selection, or help you with wording and processing your leaf donation. Honor your loved ones whether living or deceased with a gift of a leaf on our Tree of Life.

When we are called to account for how we spent our lives, whom we loved and how we made the world a better place for all, most of us will not be able to plead ignorance. May our Eucharist this Sunday enable us to be mindful of what the Ten Commandments say, but even more may it give us the courage and strength to live them out in a world that needs witnesses to them more than ever.
