FAZtor's Notes

By Fr. Arnold Zamora

It's "Finals" time! Yes, indeed, the Golden State Warriors are back in the NBA Finals for the fourth straight year and we congratulate them. And we continue to cheer and pray for them. For most students, they are also taking their Finals this week. This Sunday is also the final Sunday of the many Solemnities and Feasts of the Church with the Feast of Corpus Christi or the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. We will be back to the Ordinary Time of the Church Calendar next Sunday, that will last till the last Sunday of November with the Feast of Christ the King. And lastly, we are now also in the final month of the first half of the year. Welcome to the month of June! Time flies!

It's going to be a busy Saturday morning this weekend. Mercy High School will occupy our church for their Graduation mass and ceremonies. Almost simultaneously, some pilgrims will participate at the 9:00 am mass in our Pastoral Center Chapel for the First Saturday Devotion and novena to Our Lady of Peace. The devotions will be hosted by the Archdiocesan Pilgrimage Statue of Our Lady of Fatima.

Our School seismic retrofit has just commenced. Our school principal, Natalie Cirigliano, is going to speak to us at every mass this weekend about the project. We welcome her and most especially let us give our all-out support to her.

Looking ahead this week, this Tuesday, June 5th is the ordination of our new auxiliary bishop, Bishop Robert Christian, OP, at St. Mary's Cathedral. But prior to that special day, Monday, June 4th is the anniversary of his priestly ordination and he will celebrate 42 years as a priest. He is 10 years ahead of me, as I also celebrate my 32nd priestly anniversary this Thursday, June 7th. Pray for Bishop Christian and for me too!

As we pray and welcome a new leader in our church this Tuesday, we also pray and welcome a new leader in our city. It's election day! I will cast my vote before going to the cathedral and I can easily do that, since my garage is used as a voting place. Let us pray to the Holy Spirit to help us choose the right leaders for our city.

Two politicians on the campaign trail encounter each other near a roadside diner, and decide to have a cup of coffee. They shoot the breeze for a while, and then get up to leave. "You know why I'm going to be elected?" guy asks, pulling a wad of bills out of his pocket. "It's because of my generous personality. I always give the waitresses a big tip and ask them for their vote."

"That a fact," says the other, "I always ask them to vote for you too . . . but then I tip them a nickel."

It is really my hope and my prayer that those who are called to be leaders, in the church or government, in companies and institutions, in the community or parish ministry, everywhere, will always do the will of God. It is only when we share our life with others by doing the will of God that life begins to have meaning and purpose. The time we touch others by doing the will of the Father, is the time we really live. Because not all priests and lay Christian leaders "who say to me Lord, Lord, shall enter heaven but only those who do the will of the Father."

REFLECTION:

"Each new day, Lord – let me hold your promise of new life; let your grace gives me a fresh start to walk in your light again; support us all day long, 'til the shades lengthen, and evening comes, and the busy world is hushed. Then in your mercy, Lord, may you give us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at last."

Religious Education Classes for 2018-2019 You or someone you know may be considering to become Catholic or interested in completing the sacrament of Christian Initiation by being confirmed as an adult. Children and youth who need to prepare for first Holy Communion and/or Confirmation, please contact Sr. Cristina in the parish office. Programs will begin on Sunday September 9, 2018 in the Pastoral Center. Sr. Cristina and Catechists will be at the entrance of the church after every weekend Masses in August 2018, to register new and returning students. We will also display classroom materials that we will use for every grade level.

Adult Faith Formation Spring Session will be on Thursdays, June 7 and 14, 2018. The classes will be on the History of the Catholic Church: "This is Our Story, This is Our Family". Our identity as Catholics means that we inherit the deeds of holy men and women who for 2,000+ years have built a great civilization and spread the Gospel throughout the world. Classes are at 7:00-8:30PM in the meeting room of the Pastoral Center. Parishioners who participate find the program very impressive. It is a vivid, thorough, and engaging program. Steve Weidenkopf is an excellent teacher for adults. The last two sessions will be about Vatican II Ecumenical Council; Pope John Paul II and Pope Benedict VI. To know the Church is to love the Church even more!

Senior Club will go on every Thursday at 12:00N-3:00PM, until the last Thursday June 28, 2018. We will mark this end of our weekly gathering with potluck lunch, raffle draws, BINGO. Thank to Pat Relampagos, Cecilia Bermudez, Lina Hidalgo, Marge Finney, for their leadership of the Club, and all who help in so many ways: Joyce, Ding, Mike, Lito, Norma, Cres, Maria. God loves a cheerful giver!

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) in the new Pastoral Year 2018-2019 will begin on Wednesday, September 5, 2018, at 7:00-8:30PM in the Pastoral Center. The RCIA "Inquiry Stage" is an informal gathering, where participants can ask any question about the Catholic Church and its practices. For some who have engaged in their own study or attended Mass attentively and regularly, this period might last months. For others who have little background in Catholicism or Christianity in general, more time might be needed.

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

June 3, 2018

In years gone by the major focus of this feast of Corpus Christi was a procession that usually concluded with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Many of us have fond memories of Benediction: a bejewelled cope and monstrance, the flickering candles, the Divine Praises and Latin hymns. It all worked to create a magical atmosphere. As richly theatrical as it was, the magical side of it was part of the problem.

In medieval times Catholics rarely received Holy Communion. So much so it was in this context that the Church ruled that we have to communicate at least once a year. In the absence of communion, veneration of the Blessed Sacrament took on a great significance. Seeing the host was thought to impart an intense power.

Although in the last 100 years we have been encouraged to receive communion more frequently, the magical properties ascribed to the host persist in some people's devotional thinking.

As Catholics we believe that Jesus is really and personally present to us in the broken bread and shared cup of the Eucharist. And although we believe that Christ is present in the Scriptures, the assembly and the ministers of the Church, we hold that Christ's presence under the form of bread and wine is one filled with the greatest intimacy and uniqueness.

The Eucharist is not intimate and unique because it is magic. It's not intimate and unique because we gaze upon the elements. The Eucharist is intimate and unique because earthly signs are transformed by God's love, and are consumed in faith. As we eat and drink these elements Christ becomes part of us, and we come alive in Christ.

In the fifth century Saint Augustine taught his people that if they truly loved the Eucharist they would become what they eat. The same is true for us today. By receiving into our hands the bread—blessed and broken, the cup—poured and shared, we say "Amen" to becoming the same in Christ: blessed, broken, poured out, and shared in love. We commune with God and God with us in the Eucharist so that just as earthly gifts are transformed into Christ so through us will be the entire world, and all things in it.

There is a huge and important difference between grace and magic. One is a trick for show. The other is the power of love, which expresses itself in faith, hope, and service.

In a profound poem French Jesuit Didier Rimaud challenges those of us who love the Eucharist to see it linked to the liberation begun in the Exodus, consummated in the Resurrection and working in our world today.

*In remembrance of you,
We take the bread of Easter in our hands,
This Bread do we consume:
It does no longer taste of bitter herbs,
It is the bread of a land promised us
where we shall be set free.
In remembrance of you,
We take the wine of Easter at our feast,
This wine do we hold dear.
It does no longer taste of bitter springs,
nor of dark salty pools.
It is the wine of land promised us where we shall be made whole.
In remembrance of you,
From exile we return.
In remembrance of you,
We walk across the sea!*

THE FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI

The feast of Corpus Christi is one time when our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament is exposed not just to faithful Catholics but to all the world. This is a time when Catholics can show their love for Christ in the Real Presence by honoring Him in a very public way. It is also a wonderful way in which we can show our love for our neighbors by bringing Our Lord and Savior closer to them. For the Feast of Corpus Christi, we will have a procession around the Church after the 9:30 AM Mass and a procession around the block after the 11:30 AM Mass.

Starting this weekend until the middle of August, our school yard will NOT be available for parking due to our school Seismic retrofit. We are looking forward to its completion by the end of August. We apologize for this inconvenience and we thank you for your understanding.

Lectio Divina

Read: Moses sprinkles the blood of the Covenant on the people who declare obedience to God. Christ as the mediator of the new covenant, offers his own blood for the cleansing of the people. At the Last Supper, Jesus institutes the Eucharist offering his own body and blood as the spiritual food for his people.

Reflect: Hunger is the greatest drive of human beings, and eating-drinking is the primordial and primal act. Without food, we die. Hence, food is the least common denominator of human edifice. The same dynamics works in the spiritual realm as well: just as our body needs bodily food, our soul needs spiritual food. In his visions on the evolution of soul, German mystic Jakob Böhme saw soul eating of God and becoming God. Indeed, the food our souls need is the very essence of God—his own body and blood so that we consume them and become like God. This is what Jesus offers us—his own life so that we grow into him. It is our Christian calling, too—to be the food for the world.

Pray: Lord, give me the generosity to become eucharistic for the good of the world.

Act: Feed a hungry person today

No wonder the early Christians called the Body and Blood of Christ, 'food for the journey'. May this Eucharist strengthen and embolden us to help God liberate and transform the world through how we spend our lives.

PRECIOUS BLOOD

On this solemnity we focus our attention on the Body and Blood of Christ. We listen to the story of the renewal of the old covenant, which Moses sealed by splashing the blood of animals on the altar of sacrifice, as well as on the people. Jesus, whose blood is the blood of the new covenant, shed that precious blood on the cross, saving us from sin and promising us everlasting life. Blood is the life source that courses through our bodies. The precious blood of Christ is the life source for our spirits. Today may we, like the psalmist, offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the Lord, whose Body and Blood strengthen us to bring the Good News to everyone we meet.
