TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The cathedral is a treasure in a diocese and in our tradition. It is not simply a "big church," as some say; some parish churches are larger. What makes a cathedral is the presence of the chair, called a cathedra (Latin for seat) reserved for the bishop.

There are many instances in our country of a local church (diocese) outgrowing a cathedral. In Baltimore and St. Louis, the former cathedrals are historic treasures in the heart of the old city, but new and larger structures now function as the seat of the bishop. When a bishop dies or retires, it is said that "the seat is vacant," and when the new bishop is installed, the central ritual is the moment when the decree of the Holy Father is read and the new bishop is escorted to the cathedra. No one but the bishop sits in the cathedra during a ritual, but in Los Angeles the cathedra in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels is accessible, and no one seems to mind when a visitor tries the cathedra out for the bishop's point of view.

A Prayer for the Mentally Ill

LOVING GOD, YOU ARE ALWAYS NEAR TO US,
ESPECIALLY WHEN WE ARE WEAK, SUFFERING AND VULNERABLE.

Reach out to those who experience mental illness. Lift their burdens, calm their anxiety, and quiet their fears. Surround them with your healing presence that they may know that they are not alone. We ask this through the intercession of Our Lady of Lourdes and in the name of your Son, Jesus and the Holy Spirit, now and forever. AMEN.

FAZtor's Notes

By Fr. Arnold Zamora

This Saturday is our Homebound Mass sponsored by our Lay Canossians, with the assistance of parishioners Roonie and Terry Flaherty. Our parish is blessed to have wonderful volunteers who are working for the pastoral care of our sick and homebound. We have this Homebound Mass with Anointing of the Sick four times a year. If you know parishioners who are physically challenged and are unable to go to church, please let us know.

Another group who is doing a great service to the sick both in the homes and in the parish, though quite unnoticed, is the Legion of Mary. They meet every Tuesday evening for prayer, spiritual nourishment and discussions on their apostolic work. One of their apostolic works, aside from visiting the sick, is to go to every home to tell people about our church thereby seeking out the lost and the weary. In some parishes the Legion of Mary comes in different units or groups called praesidium. At Holy Name we only have one praesidium with dedicated members: Ray Frost, Dave Martin, Angelita Rodelas, Rose Symkowick, Jim Mendoso, Agnes Lau and Fr. William Young. They will be at the masses this weekend to talk about their praesidium and what they do and hopefully get more members to join them. We appreciate and commend them for their great work in our parish.

Two of our parishioners recently passed away due to sickness. Some who are ill are restored to full health, some illnesses end in death. We honored and celebrated the life of Richard Hidalgo and Danny McEllistrim with a Funeral Mass last Wednesday and Thursday, respectively. May God's angels lead them into paradise, as they begin their new life, in which health replaces illness, youth replaces age, and certainty replace doubt, as they enter the company of those loved ones who preceded them and as they wait for those who are to follow.

Do you know about a woman who telephoned the Mount Sinai Hospital?

"Hello, I'd like to talk to someone who can give me some up-to-date information about one of your patients."

The operator said, "Please hold while I find someone who can help." Soon, an authoritative voice said, "I'm the hospital manager. Are you the lady who is asking about one of our patients?"

"Yes," she replied, "I'd like to know exactly how Rifka Levy in Room 23 is doing." He replied, "Levy, now let me see...Lewis, Levine, Levy... yes, I have Mrs. Levy's details here. It says she is doing very well. She's eaten two full meals and her doctor says if she continues improving, he is going to release her on Tuesday. Is that the information you need?"

The woman said, "Yes, it's wonderful news that she's going home on Tuesday. I'm so happy."

The manager then asked, "From your excitement, you must be one of Mrs. Levy's close family."

She says, "What close family? I am Rifka Levy. My doctor won't tell me anything."

In good spirit, sickness will cure;
In a happy spirit, sickness will cure faster;
In high and happy spirits, sickness will never come.

REFLECTION: TRUTH

"Truth does not change, but truth does develop. Two and two do not make four in the thirteenth century, and sixteen in the twentieth, but arithmetic does develop into geometry, and geometry into calculus. Nor is truth easy to discover, particularly when it affects our lives. There are two kinds of truth: speculative and practical. Speculative truth is the truth of knowing, such as it comes to us from philosophy, mechanics, physics and chemistry. Practical truth, however, is concerned with doing and living, such as ethics and morals."

- Archbishop Fulton Sheen

Avoiding the real Jesus

June 10, 2018

This Gospel passage portrays two ways in which we can reject the real Jesus Christ. One way is quite common and we all engage in it to one degree or another. Thank goodness it is forgivable. The other is rare but has very dire consequences.

The first way is to domesticate Jesus, and that is what members of his blood family were trying to do. They thought he was "out of his mind", already provoking a severe reaction from the religious and political authorities. He was madly putting himself in harm's way and he had to be restrained.

But Jesus would not give up his mission to establish the reign of God on earth, the signs of which were the curing of bodies and minds, and the forgiving of sins, embodying the merciful healing presence of God, come what may (and he did know what was coming!).

His Nazareth family were trying to reduce him to manageable size so that he did not imperil himself, and them. So, he dramatically creates a new family constituted by those who, like him, are dedicated to doing the will of God.

You and I have to ask: "Have I tried to domesticate Jesus Christ, to reduce him to a non-threatening Jesus-meek-and-mild?" If so, we are closer to the family of Nazareth standing just outside his circle, ready to run for cover, than to the family of Jesus Christ seated around him really listening to him and therefore vulnerable.

The second way to reject the real Jesus Christ is to completely, and with malice aforethought, misconstrue all the evidence of Jesus' mission on earth and claim that it must be Satanic, that he must be in league with the devil.

Jesus quickly retorts that, if that were the case there must be a civil war going on in Satania, because he is constantly undoing the devil's work by merciful healing. The charge is non-sense.

Worse than that, if you grievously mislead others by saying publicly, as did these religious leaders, that Jesus is diabolically acting because "He has an unclean spirit", then it is this malicious misleading of others that is unforgiveable. You have deliberately put the salvation of others at risk.

This is real blasphemy, not some outburst of language disrespecting God, but a deliberate turning against God's plan to send the Holy Spirit of Jesus Christ amongst us for our salvation.

You have also made yourself the sort of person who, at death, will not recognize the saving presence of the Risen Lord for who he is—the source of forgiveness necessary to be swept up into the loving eternal life of God.

The fact that you are here listening to this homily leads me, with pastoral confidence not presumption, to say that you need not be worried that you have committed this blasphemy.

You and I may be more justly worried about the first mode of rejection of the real Jesus.

Fortunately, we can with the grace of God recognize this and determine to read and hear the Gospels, discern the will of God for our lives and come back within the ultimate family allegiance of those who dare to call God "our Father."

Lectio Divina

Read: Following their sinful act, Adam & Eve discover the dynamics of shame: the sense of being less than . Paul reminds us of our heavenly dwelling prefect in every sense and lasting forever. Jesus declares kinship with all who do the Will of God.

Reflect: At the depth of our being, human beings generally feel a sense of lack, inferiority, and shame. Everyone else seems more than us and disorders of desire drive us to violently appropriate others or expel them. The sin of Adam and Eve was a desperate attempt to become like God. A pity, because that was exactly what God wanted to offer humanity—help us discover His own image and likeness within us and grow into such image and likeness within us and grow into such image by doing God's will and becoming brothers and sisters of Christ. It is a gift waiting to be received freely and gratefully; not to be grabbed in violent envy. We are neither less than or more than: we are simply the children of God.

Pray: Pray for the grace to discern and do God's Will in your everyday context.

Act: Meditate on how it feels to be members of Christ's family.

Living the Gospel—

Who is my mother or brother?

At the end of today's gospel passage, Jesus states, "Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother." Family bonds were critically important in 1st Century Palestine. Jesus does not deny his family kinship, but expands it to include anyone who does the will of God. All those who work to bring about the Kingdom or Reign of God share a bond with Jesus, they share a familial link with him. Whenever we act to bring about God's dream for this world, we join our efforts with those of our brother, Jesus.
