FAZtor's Notes:

By: Fr. Arnold Zamora

First of all, I would like to thank all of you who have prayed for, greeted and gifted me on my birthday.

Your warm thoughts, kindness and generosity are always appreciated. Honestly, I am always embarrassed when I am given an honor, especially on my birthday. But I always think that it is not about me. Yes, it is my birthday but it is not really for me. It is for everybody to celebrate life and be reminded of the gift of life they received from God. Celebrating it with a reception is also an opportunity for community building, for our parishioners to gather in fellowship with each other. But still I would like to thank especially those who have prepared the many receptions after each mass last Sunday.

Our Holy Name School community gave me an early birthday offering with each student making a personalized card for me. They handed those lovely and beautiful cards to me at their morning assembly. I wish I could thank each one of them. It was a cute gesture, as cute as all of them.

I know few of our students and parishioners who have been sick lately. But don't be alarmed! This has nothing to do with the novel Corona Virus. It is just that the annual winter cold and flu season is here. Please be aware that the obligation to attend Sunday Mass does not apply to those who are ill, especially those who suffer from a contagious disease. It is a sign of consideration for others that those with flu-like symptoms remain at home. For the convenience of those who are homebound, or unable to attend Mass because of illness or infirmity, Mass is broadcasted each Sunday morning at 6:00AM on Channels 8 (Comcast), KTSF 26.

In addition, all parishioners are reminded to use common good sense. If you attend mass and you are feeling ill, please refrain from partaking of the Blood of Christ from the communal chalice. We also ask that those who are not well refrain from offering your hand to others at the sign of peace. No one who fears infection should feel obligated to share the sign of peace or receive Holy Communion from the communal chalice. Please don't be offended if people refuse to shake your hand at this time. Let's pray for good health for everybody. Stay healthy!

Days prior to Valentine's Day, I read a post with the abbreviation of the novel Corona Virus: nCoV. Below the letters was its meaning: "No Cash On Valentines."

Let us continue to pray for those places that have been affected by the novel Corona virus. I hope this virus will be contained soon.

Health is defined as "soundness of physical, mental or moral condition especially freedom from bodily pain or disease." But true health is more than that. It includes the fun of living, the power and ability to lead a satisfying, purposeful life, and inner peace with God and our fellow-men.

May we have a truly healthy life - today and always!!

REFLECTION

"Called to remember . Remember that you are dust...Call me a crepehanger, but of the two formulas that the priest can use when imposing ashes, I always choose this one. First, because I have a bad memory. And then because I know from experience how easy it is to forget even the important things that get lost amidst the clutter of too-busy days. We do well to take time to remember all that God has done and continues to do for us. That kind of faith helps us appreciate even the dust and all the other realities of our human existence as gifts from a loving Father who wants to show us the way back to God. What are you called to remember during the forty days of Lent?"

-Fr. Richard Lamoureux, AA, "Living with Christ", February 2020

Grateful blessings from St. Josephine Bakhita, our Universal Sister

We celebrated the feast day of this great saint last weekend. St. Bakhita died on February 8, 1947 and was canonized by St. John Paul II on October 1, 2000 in Rome, and given the title "Universal Sister". Pope Francis recently named her Patron Saint for victims and survivors of human trafficking, a new form of slavery. I would like to thank our partners in Charism, the Lay Canossians, for hosting this annual event, Fr. Arnold for the solemn "Misa Cantada" on top of his busy schedule, our friend Griselda Macdonald and her choir, for a lively Liturgy, the LCs and parishioners for the sumptuous brunch, Bishop Wang whose presence honored our Canossian celebration. Rest assured of our prayers and may St. Josephine Bakhita intercede for all our needs.

Youth Ministry Spring 2020 Schedule March 1st – Praise and Worship – Lenten Practices of Prayer and Sacrifice. April 5th – Palm Sunday. The importance of Holy Week and Easter. May 3rd - Living Rosary at the Grotto. Crowning of Mary. Activities for Mothers' Day. June 7th – hosting the Archdiocesan Youth Ministry at the 9:30 AM Mass. Socialization activities. Lunch in the Flanagan Center. Thanks very much, Alejandra Brito, for preparing this YM program. We ask parents to encourage your teen agers to participate in our parish's activities for the youth. We provide these wholesome activities for our young people to enjoy. Parents and guardians, we need your collaboration to make our Youth Ministry at Holy Name a success. Thanks to the YM Team who persevere: Bro. Gerry, Alejandra, Julie, Justina, Natalie Quock, Erin & Luke Grogan.
