We say thank you and goodbye to Sr. Necy Guan this Sunday at the 11:30AM mass, followed by a reception in the Flanagan Center.

Sister leaves for New Mexico the following day to serve as the Director of Parish Life at Our Lady of the Annunciation Parish in Albuquerque.

I had worked with Sr. Necy at St. Brendan’s before I came to Holy Name and over all these years, she hasn’t shown any sign of slowing down, she has always been working tirelessly and with dedication for the good of the community, being a mover and a doer and a “getter” too.

We will surely miss Sr. Necy as we thank her for her three years of ministry here at Holy Name. We send also our fervent prayers and best wishes to her as she takes on a new ministry closer to the Canossian Mother House.

I know for sure that she will be singing “I Left My Heart in San Francisco” while in Albuquerque. The Archbishop of New Mexico, John Wester, who is a full-blooded San Franciscan and was the beloved auxiliary bishop of San Francisco, will always remind her of the City. Maybe the two can sing the song together. Well, New Mexico doesn’t have a professional sports team, so maybe the two can still cheer together for the Warriors, Giants and the 49ers.

After Sr. Necy leaves, we will be “sister-less” for a month awaiting the arrival of Sr. Cristina Ovejera, another Canossian sister who has served our parish during the time of Fr. D’Ange-lo. Thank again Sr. Necy!

“Every new beginning comes from some other beginning’s end.” (Semisonic) Goodbye doesn’t really mean it’s the end but that one is moving on.

Three friends die in a car crash, and they find themselves at the Gates of Heaven. Before entering, St. Peter asks each of them a question.

“When you are in your casket and friends and family are standing there mourning for you, what would you like to hear them say about you?” asks St. Peter.

The first guy says, “I would like to hear them say that I was a great doctor and a great family man.”

The second guy says, “I would like to hear that I was a wonderful husband and a teacher who made a huge difference in our children.”

The last guy replies, “I would like to hear them say: ‘LOOK! HE’S STILL MOVING!”

Even death is not an end as our Christian faith teaches us. We are just moving to a new location. Life continues with goodbyes and even in death.

Treasures from Our Tradition
The first “presbyters” were advisers to the bishops rather than what we would call “priests,” yet by the year 1000 our present-day understanding of the ordained priesthood is clearly in place. The Germanic influence was strong in those days, reflected in a series of questions posed to the candidate about his intentions.

The priest’s role in the celebration of Mass had by then come to the fore, as the ritual notes that Mass vestments must be worn, the hands of the priest must be anointed with chrism, and a chalice with wine and water and a paten with a host must be given. Up to then, the ordination rite had stressed the presbyter as a collaborator with the bishop and a member of the order of presbyters. Then, in a not-so-subtle shift, the presbyter came to be seen as a “priest” designated to celebrate the Mass and, as the prayer suggests, to touch the chalice. By these days, remember, the cup had long vanished from Communion for the laity. A thousand years ago, today’s patterns were already in place.

The priest no longer saw himself as a member of a council of elders, a presbytery, and in some dioceses he had little influence over the bishop. Instead, he was either a pastor, with relationship to the eucharistic community in the parish, or he was a priest monk, offering Mass for the salvation of the departed or the intentions of the living. —Rev.
