SAINTS AND SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

Sunday: Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
Friday: World Day of Prayer; First Friday
Saturday: Blessed Virgin Mary; First Saturday
FAZtor’s Notes
by Fr. Arnold Zamora

Good and wonderful things are happening at our School right now. First and foremost, we have found the person to replace our current principal, Natalie Cirigliano, who is leaving us to be the Head of School at Mercy High School, Burlingame next school year. For the first time in our school history, we will have a male principal. It is with great joy that I present to you Michael Miller, who is currently the Eighth Grade Homeroom teacher at St. Catherine’s, Burlingame and also teaches Math, Religion and Drama. Mr. Miller used to be Natalie’s “mentor” when she started her career as a teacher at St. Catherine’s. We can be assured he will continue the many good and wonderful things Natalie has done for our school over the past four years. We will get to know more about Mr. Miller as he transitions into our community. Meanwhile, let’s give him a warm welcome.

Another kind of welcome will be given to the newest members of our Christian community as we receive them this Sunday at the 9:30AM school mass though the Sacrament of Baptism. Four students from our school and one from a nearby Elementary school will be baptized into our Catholic faith: Isabella Chinn (2nd Grade), Joshua Chinn (Kindergarten), Katherine Chinn (3 yrs. old), Samantha Leung (6th grade) and Kelsey Leung (3rd Grade at Sunset Elementary). Evangelization has found its way at the school. This is indeed a day of rejoicing and it is with great joy that we welcome them to our fold.

Our school has been a planting bed for vocations and evangelization. When I speak of vocations, I am not only referring to the vocation to the priestly or religious life. Teaching at a Catholic School is not just a job but a vocation. Students find a vocation as Altar Servers, so serving mass is a vocation too. By being close to the altar of God, an altar server may even find a higher calling, that of becoming a priest or entering the religious life. Last week, we had about 38 students from our school who went through training and refresher instructions as Altar Servers. We thank our Religion teacher, Mr. Mark Ryan, for encouraging and guiding these students to find their vocation as Altar Servers (for now). We also thank their parents for making it possible for them to be able to respond to and perform their sacred duty.

I always find reasons to be thankful. Celebrating another year in life this month is one, but even more for the people who have been with you along life’s journey and have supported you in your ministry. This Saturday evening is one of Thanksgiving as well as we host an Appreciation Dinner for the One Percent Club for our Archdiocesan Annual Appeal, which is also about to commence. Thank you again for all your support.

Speaking of dinner, there was a priest who was about to eat in their kitchen and he asked their cook: “What’s on TV?”

The cook replies: “Dust father!”

Thanks to Wai Ha, our rectory is free from dust. No dust at school either, only good and wonderful things. And remember, you are wonderful according to what you are, not according to what you have. It’s your heart that makes you the best. Keep your heart shining!

REFLECTION
Praying to Understand God’s Love

“God loves each of us as if there were only one of us, said St. Augustine. This is asking to what a loving parent or grandparent might say to children or grandchildren. I love each of you the same. But it goes further. God’s love is greater than we can imagine – surpassing all understanding, as St. Paul wrote. St. Ignatius of Loyola’s CONTEMPLATIO is just one way to begin to understand God’s love for you. In whatever way you ask to know God’s love more deeply. It will lead to the best of prayers: ‘THANK YOU, GOD.’”

Fr. James Martin, SJ – is a Jesuit priest living in New York, he is author of many best selling books.

“The Mass” by Bishop Robert Barron This transformative study video by a world famous pastor and theologian is a most privileged and intimate encounter with our Lord Jesus Christ. The last session is on Thursday, February 28, at 7:00-8:30PM in the Pastoral Center. Sr. Cristina will facilitate the discussion.

Dear Holy Name Parishioners,

I hope you are all doing well. It is hard to believe that February is almost over! This coming Thursday, February 28th, is our Grandparents Day at our 9AM Mass. We hope that you will bring any grand-children/ grandparent in your lives to the mass if you are able to.

Last week we announced next year's school principal, Mr. Michael Miller. I had the honor of working with Mr. Miller as a first year teacher at St. Catherine of Siena. I know Mr. Miller will be very successful, and he will be a wonderful asset to our Holy Name community. I have no doubt that you all will give him the same warm welcome that you gave me. For this I would like to sincerely thank you. Thank you for making me feel immediately that Holy Name is a family that I will always belong to, and thank you for bestowing this same kindness to someone who I respect deeply. I look forward to introducing Mr. Miller to the parish community later this year. I know under his leadership Holy Name will continue to thrive!

Thanks,
Natalie Cirigliano, Principal

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 24, 2019

Some years ago I was at an annual parents' dinner for a Catholic school for profoundly disabled children. A well-known local politician, whose child was in the school, was asked to speak. This is what he said:

"I would like to pay tribute to the staff at this school. Only parents and teachers know what a joy and a heartbreak it is to have a profoundly disabled child. I always wanted the perfect child, but where is the perfection in my son David? We are told that God looked at the world and it was perfect, but my son cannot understand things as other children do. David cannot remember facts and figures as other children do. David walks with difficulty and cannot speak. How can God be filled with joy at David?"

The audience was shocked by this pained question from an anguished father.

"I believe," the father continued, "that when God allows a world in which David can now live for 50 years, perfection is found in the way people react to children like him."

"Just recently David and I were walking in our local park. Some boys had been there most of the day playing ball. They were serious about this competition. David was very excited and I knew he wanted to join in. David has terrible physical co-ordination, but I approached one of the boys on the field and asked if David could play. The boy looked around for guidance from his team mates. Getting none, he took matters into his own hands and said 'Things are tight, we have to get six runs to win but we'll try and give him a bat.' David smiled broadly. After scoring three more runs the next young guy got out. David was put up the batting order and called up. I helped him get out there."

"Everyone knew that it was all but impossible for my son to help them win the game. He didn't even know how to hold the bat properly, let alone hit it. The pitcher, however, sent down a soft ball so David could at least make contact. The second similar ball came and David swung clumsily and missed it. One of David's team mates came up to him and together they held the bat and faced the pitcher waiting for the next ball."

"As the ball came down, David and his teammate swung at the ball and together they hit a strong ground shot to the midfield. At his captain's urging David stumbled around the bases as quickly as he could. Never in his life has David run so fast. The outfielder could have thrown the ball to third base and got him out but he deliberately fumbled and threw the ball to second base instead. Davids made it home completing the third, winning run."

"That day," said the father softly with tears now rolling down his face, "those boys showed me why God always looks at creation and knows it is very good."

Jesus said, "If you love those who love you, what credit is that? Be kind, be merciful, forgive and do not condemn, for the measure you give out is the measure you will receive." © Richard Leonard SJ.
