Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

JANUARY 27, 2019

Go, eat rich foods
and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who have nothing prepared;
for today is holy to our Lord.

Nehemiah 8:10

Ezra's instructions to the people show us that God does not forbid us from enjoying the good things in life. He wants us to be happy! However, God expects us to be grateful for all that He has given us and to generously share our blessings with those who are in need without expecting anything in return.

Welcome to Holy Name!

We are a Stewardship Parish! If you worship with us each week or are new to our neighborhood, please register online at: <http://holynamesf.org/parishregistration>. You will be on our mailing list and let us know you are willing to support your parish through your time, talent and treasure – the privilege of every Catholic.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

HOLY NAME OF JESUS PARISH SAN FRANCISCO

is a welcoming multicultural and liturgical community that celebrates our Christian Faith. In the spirit of the "Joy of the Gospel" we work together promoting Catholic values and teachings. Our parish encourages a strong devotion to our Blessed Mother Mary, who gives us an example of faithful discipleship and a generous stewardship way of life.

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 27, 2019

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor.
-- Luke 4:18a

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Rejoicing in the LORD must be your strength (Nehemiah 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10).

Psalms — Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life (Psalm 19).

Second Reading — In one Spirit we were all baptized into one body (1 Corinthians 12:12-30 [12-14, 27]).

Gospel — The Spirit of the Lord has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives (Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21).

SAINTS AND SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

Sunday: Third Sunday in Ordinary Time; Catholic Schools Week

Monday: St. Thomas Aquinas

Thursday: St. John Bosco

Friday: First Friday

Saturday: The Presentation of the Lord; Blessing of Candles; First Saturday; World Day for Consecrated Life; Groundhog Day

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Saturday's feast of the Presentation is a day for the blessing of candles. Why does liturgy require candles? In the first years of the church, worship was often at night, and candles and torches were carried from place to place within the worship space as needed. Candles were also a mark of festivity and hospitality when people gathered for prayer in homes, and later on in large buildings with thick walls and dark corners. But even after gaslight and electricity, candles were kept.

Part of the reason has to do with the warm, clean light of a candle's flame. Candles are a good sign of the partnership of God and creation: wax made by bees, gathered and fashioned by human hands into something beautiful and useful. In order for the light to shine, the candle surrenders itself, almost as if it is pouring itself out so that the light can flood into the world. The candle of baptism, placed into our hands, and carried again and again, speaks silently of that same wisdom. If you would save your life, you must lose it. You must pour your life out like Christ so that you may be filled with the light of his love.

BROKEN BRIDGES

When we cannot forgive, we break the bridge over which we must pass if we would ever reach heaven; for everyone has need to be forgiven.

FAZtor's Notes

by Fr. Arnold Zamora

Saturday, January 19th: Pacquiao vs Broner. You know who won the fight.

Saturday, January 26th. Roe vs Wade. The fight goes on! But not in a boxing ring, as it has never been a boxing match. This Saturday people will walk the streets to fight for the right to life. We are having the annual Walk for Life-West Coast, usually celebrated on a Saturday closes to January 22, which is the anniversary of Roe vs. Wade, the U.S. Supreme Court decision legalizing abortion.

Who is Roe and who is Wade? Jane Roe is a pseudonym for Linda McCorvey who in June 1969 discovered that she was pregnant. She was 21 yrs. old at the time when she attempted to obtain an illegal abortion, since abortion was not legalized at that time. She was represented by attorneys Linda Coffee and Sarah Weddington, who filed suit in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas. The defendant in the case was Dallas County District Attorney Henry Wade, who represented the State of Texas. The Catholic Church has condemned and maintained that direct abortion, that is, abortion willed as an end or as a means, always constitutes a grave moral disorder, since it is the deliberate killing of an innocent human being.

We continue to bring our catholic identity as we commence our Catholic School Week this Sunday at the 9:30AM Mass, celebrated from January 27-February 2, with the theme "Learn, Lead, Serve, Succeed." We welcome our school family to this mass and we thank our parents for rearing their children with a Catholic Christian formation.

Such formation is not only for children or for students. Catholic formation, in fact, is a never-ending process as we also take into consideration the signs of the times. To help us in our Christian formation and evangelization is FORMED.ORG. Some call it the Catholic Netflix; but it offers so much more than movies. The Archdiocese of San Francisco, is offering it FREE for one year to the first 40 parishes that sign up; then at discounted rates the next two years. Our parish was one of the first to sign up. So, check it out and register at: holynam-esf.formed.org.

A 5-year-old boy went to visit his grandmother one day. Playing with his toys in her bedroom while grandma was dusting, he looked up and said,

'Grandma, how come you don't have a boyfriend now that Grandpa went to heaven?'

Grandma replied, 'Honey, my TV is my boyfriend. I can sit in my bedroom and watch it all day long. The religious programs make me feel good and the comedies make me laugh... I'm happy with my TV as my boyfriend.'

Grandma turned on the TV, and the reception was terrible. She started adjusting the knobs, trying to get the picture in focus. Frustrated, she started hitting the backside of the TV hoping to fix the problem. The little boy heard the doorbell ring, so he hurried to open the door and there stood Grandma's pastor from the local church.

The minister said, 'Hello son, is your Grandma home?'

The little boy replied, 'Yeah, she's in the bedroom hittin' her boyfriend.'

As you touch the TV's remote or your computer's keyboard, watching your movies or favorite show, don't forget to look in 5 different directions:

REFLECTION

The missionary Power of Intercessory Prayer
"One form of prayer moves us particularly to take up the task of evangelization and to seek the good of others, it is the prayer of intercession. Let us peer for a moment into the heart of St. Paul, "I constantly pray with you in every one of my prayers for all of you...because I hold you in my heart." (Philippians 1:4,7).

Pope Francis, "The Joy of the Gospel", p. 136

Youth Ministry gatherings in our parish happen on designated Saturdays of the month, as planned and organized by the YM Team. A planning meeting will be held in the Pastoral Center this coming Saturday, January 26, after the 5:00 PM Mass. The Team will schedule monthly YM activities for February to June 2019. We encourage parents to send their teen-aged children to our parish's Youth Ministry monthly gatherings.

"The Mass" by Bishop Robert Barron Be transformed on insights on this most privileged and intimate encounter with our Lord Jesus Christ. See how the Mass brings us out of the fallen world and into the heavenly realm, how it resonates with the call from God and a response from His people, the Church, and most importantly, how we are intimately joined with the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus through the Holy Eucharist. "The Mass" will help you understand how to fully, consciously, and actively participate in the source and summit of the Christian life. (Bishop Barron). This new DVD presentation and discussion will be held on two Thursdays, February 21 and 28, at 7:00-8:30 PM in the Pastoral Center meeting room. Sr. Cristina will facilitate. Take this sacred opportunity to prepare for Lent.

Volunteers Needed If you have time and able to wash by hand, we request your help to wash altar linens (purificators and corporals) used at Mass. Please contact Sr. Cristina for more information. You will be part of a small group of volunteers who take turns in a monthly basis. Thank you in advance!

What does it mean to be a Sponsor for RCIA and Youth Confirmation A catechumen or a candidate's response to God's call to the sacraments of Christian Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist), also involves the entire faith community to engage an individual in a personal relationship that can effectively support, guide, and challenge. That's why the role of sponsor is so important. The sponsor is the link to the community; a companion along the way; a mentor but not catechist; a person of prayer. Please pray for all catechumens and candidates and their respective sponsors, who are journeying in Faith towards the Easter Vigil.

Change of Schedule for Quarterly Mass for Sick and Homebound Parishioners Beginning March 2019, the Mass for the Sick and Homebound will be held on Sunday afternoons instead of the usual Saturdays as we have done in the past. The change to Sunday is also more liturgically acceptable. Please take note. Our first Sick and Homebound Mass for 2019 will be on Sunday, March 10, 2019 (First Sunday of Lent and Daylight Savings Time begins!). It will be at 1:30 PM in the Flanagan Center. A simple reception will follow, hosted by the Lay Canossians. Please mark your calendars. Thank you. Please contact Sr. Cristina or Susan Logan for more information.

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: January 27, 2019

Nine-year-old Joey was asked by his mother what he had learned in his religion class at school. "Well, Mom, our teacher told us how God sent Moses behind enemy lines on a rescue mission to lead the Israelites out of Egypt. When he got to the Red Sea, he had his engineers build a pontoon bridge and all the people walked across safely. Then he used his walkie-talkie to radio headquarters for reinforcements. They sent bombers to blow up the bridge and all the Israelites were saved." "Now, Joey, is that really what your teacher taught you?" his mother asked. "Well, no, Mom. But if I told it the way the teacher did, you'd never believe it!"

Given the ways the Scriptures have divided Christians over the centuries and because previous generations wanted to protect the truth of the Bible, we were often taught that the Holy Spirit dictated the text. In this schema, the real skill of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John seems to have been their shorthand!

Today we begin reading through Luke's Gospel. And in the opening verses of this extraordinary document, Luke puts paid to the idea that he is simply listening to the whisperings of the Holy Spirit in his ear. What we now call the Gospel of Luke was the first installment of a two-part letter written to his friend and disciple, Theophilus. Epic letters like this one and the Acts of the Apostles, which is its sequel, where the writer praises the deeds of a great man and lists his achievements, were very common in the Hellenised world of Ancient Rome. Luke knew how to write it and, more importantly, Theophilus knew how to read it.

It is not a documentary on the life of Jesus, recording a series of facts. If it were, then it cannot be reconciled with the other Gospels for they disagree with each other about many important details. As Catholics we believe the Holy Spirit guided the writing and selection of the scriptural record so that it contains no errors regarding our salvation. Our life lived in harmony with the scriptures is its own testament to our belief that the Bible is not a book of facts: it is a book of truth.

Luke knows that Theophilus has already been instructed in the way of salvation in Christ, and he makes it clear that the truth of this way is what he is attending to. In this Gospel he paints a vivid and intimate portrait of who Jesus is and why he has the message of salvation for all people everywhere.

These days we often hear people asking others to be "up front" and to "lay your cards on the table." Long before it was trendy, Luke does precisely this in the second part of today's Gospel. At the very beginning of Jesus' public ministry, Luke summarizes the story he is about to tell Theophilus and his community in what is called "the program."

In the tradition of the greatest of the prophets, we are told Jesus has come for those of us who are poor, captive, blind and oppressed. But, unlike the former prophets, Jesus is not only a companion in our distress or an advocate on our behalf, he has also come to turn the world upside down and establish the definitive reign of God in our lives. In Jesus, all that Israel longed to see is fulfilled.

And so to us. As the spiritual children of Jesus, Luke, Theophilus and his community, we are inheritors of a tradition that is up-front in what we are called to do. Our program is explicit. We are called to be companions to the poor, to set prisoners free, to fight oppression, to enable others to confront what they would prefer to ignore and to boldly proclaim that there is no one beyond God's favor.

As tough as these demands are, they are not optional extras. They define who we are as Christians and how we are sent to change the world.

May this Eucharist give us courage for the task at hand.
