It's Graduation time! Last Thursday, Saint Ignatius College Prep (SI, for short) had their Transition Mass at our church. This Saturday morning, Mercy High School is also having their Graduation Eucharistic Liturgy. This coming Friday, June 2nd, we will have graduation ceremonies for our Kindergarten (10:00AM) and our 8th Graders (5:00PM). Our Preschool graduation is scheduled for June 9th. So, congratulations to all the graduates.

I used to teach in the seminary and it is always a joy to see your students graduating. There is even a greater joy and fulfillment if they become like you, ordained as priests. A lot of my former students are now priests. In fact, one was just made a bishop, serving for the diocese of my origin in the Philippines. I think that is one of my greatest fulfillments in life, to see someone become an “alter Christus”—another Christ, “in persona Christi”—acting in the person of Christ.

As a musician, I used to teach choral groups also. I have formed and organized several choirs, but the one that I am always most proud of is the “CHORUS PAULINUS.” The choir got the name from the church I was serving at some 25 years ago, St. Paul the Apostle. The members were composed of students and young professionals from different ages and walks of life. Under my music direction, this choir won several choral competitions, represented the Cultural Center of the Philippines in its outreach tour around the country, participated in international choral festivals and for three years in a row, did a concert tour in the US (Check Wikipedia).

In teaching seminarians, you are preparing them to become priests someday. That’s the way it goes, that’s expected! In teaching a choir, you are training the members to become good singers and training them for excellence in choral singing. That’s the way it goes, that’s expected! But when a choir member is ordained priest, that’s something else, that is not expected! But many times God works in unexpected ways. God always has a lot of surprises for us. This Saturday, May 26th, I will be in Newark, NY, to attend the ordination of a former member of my Chorus Paulinus. It was God who called and chose him, not me; I was just teaching him how to sing. I am still happy and proud that my teaching a choir has produced a priest, Rev. JESUS CARLO MERINO, a priest for the Archdiocese of Newark.

A new priest went to the bishop asking for advice on how to give an emphatic homily to capture the attention of his congregation. The bishop said: You should start with a striking statement like, “I am in Love! I am in love with a woman and this woman is married. Her name is Mary.” Of course, the bishop was referring to the Blessed Virgin Mary. The next Sunday, the new priest started his homily by saying: “My dear brothers and sisters, you have to pray for our bishop because our bishop is in love. He is in love with a woman and this woman is a married woman.” Somehow the priest got so nervous as he looked at the faces of the congregation. He continued by saying: “I am sorry, I forgot her name.”

Don’t forget, it is still the month of May, the month to honor Mary. You can still join our Rosary Group praying the Rosary in our Chapel every evening at 6:30PM. May 31st may the last day, but you can continue praying the Rosary privately or publicly just before our daily 9AM mass.

MEMORIAL DAY

Memorial Day, originally called Decoration Day, is a day of remembrance for those who have died in service of the United States of America. Over two dozen cities and towns claim to be the birthplace of Memorial Day. While Waterloo N.Y. was officially declared the birthplace of Memorial Day by President Lyndon Johnson in May 1966, it’s difficult to prove conclusively the origins of the day.

Regardless of the exact date or location of its origins, one thing is clear – Memorial Day was born out of the Civil War and a desire to honor our dead. It was officially proclaimed on 5 May 1868 by General John Logan, national commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, in his General Order No. 11. “The 30th of May, 1868, is designated for the purpose of strewing with flowers, or otherwise decorating the graves of comrades who died in defense of their country during the late rebellion, and whose bodies now lie in almost every city, village and hamlet churchyard in the land,” he proclaimed. The date of Decoration Day, as he called it, was chosen because it wasn’t the anniversary of any particular battle.

On the first Decoration Day, General James Garfield made a speech at Arlington National Cemetery, and 5,000 participants decorated the graves of the 20,000 Union and Confederate soldiers buried there.

The first state to officially recognize the holiday was New York in 1873. By 1890 it was recognized by all of the northern states. The South refused to acknowledge the day, honoring their dead on separate days until after World War I (when the holiday changed from honoring just those who died fighting in the Civil War to honoring Americans who died fighting in any war).
