We have in you the same attitude that is also in Christ Jesus. — Philippians 2:5
It's a goodbye and hello weekend, as this Saturday is the last day of September and Sunday is the first day of October. For every ending, there is a beginning. For every sunset, there is sunrise. Even in death there is life. As I mentioned in the School Weekly Newsletter, "sunrise is a beautiful sign of hope created by God to let us know that life doesn't end after the sunset."

As "life goes on," we continue hosting the second Saturday Archdiocesan training for Eucharistic Ministers and Lectors. On the parish level, we also have Altar Server training, facilitated by our coordinator Tri Nguyen. We thank him for his dedication to this ministry and especially for bringing these young boys and girls closer to the altar of God.

This Saturday is our San Francisco Friends of the Poor Walk at Lake Merced organized by the Saint Vincent de Paul Society and the beneficiary is our Holy Name of Jesus Conference. Remember, we have a Saint Vincent de Paul Society in our parish that meets every Monday evening. If you have a love for the poor and less fortunate members of society and want to follow in the tradition of St. Vincent de Paul spirituality, please consider joining the group. Pick up the Bulletin and contact Carol Maloof.

Now here's to October, the month of our Rosary devotion. Join the Rosary group every evening at 6:30PM in the chapel. Next Saturday, October 7, is the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary, when our Archdiocese of San Francisco will be consecrated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

October 4th is the feast of St. Francis, the patron of our City and our Archdiocese. Our Animal Blessing though, which is associated with this saint, will be this Thursday, October 5th, at 1:45PM at the school yard. October is a month of many great saints including St. Luke, the Evangelist (18th), Apostles Simon and Jude (Oct 28) and many more including the two recently canonized popes: John XXIII (11th) and John Paul II (22nd) who were great leaders of our Church. Their dedication and commitment to serve the church should be an inspiration to our parish leaders and ministers who will be having a Leadership Gathering this Thursday, October 5th facilitated by Joe McBride from the Catholic Stewardship Consultancy. Let us pray for these leaders as they lead us in our Renewal/Commitment Sunday: 10/29, 10:29.

Speaking of Commitment: A young man was very excited because he just won a ticket to the Super Bowl. His excitement lessened as he realized his seat was in the back of the stadium. As he searched the rows ahead of him for a better seat, he found an empty one right next to the field. He approached the man sitting next to the empty seat and asked if it was taken. The man replied, "No." Amazed the young man asked, "How could someone pass up a seat like this?" "The older gentleman responded, "That's my wife's seat. We've been to every Super Bowl together since the day we were married but she has passed away." "Oh, how sad," the man said. "I'm sorry to hear that, but couldn't you find a friend or relative to come with you?"

"No," the man said, "They're all at the funeral."

Prioritize your commitments! Make God your priority! "Seek Ye first and all things will be given unto you." Renew your commitment to the Lord.

NEW ADULT FAITH FORMATION PROGRAM

Also starting in October is our Fall study on Bishop Robert Barron’s Catholicism. New series “The Pivotal Players”. We will begin with St. Francis of Assisi – The Reformer. Rebuild my Church! Christ’s mission to St. Francis is the perennial task of the Church in every age of its life. But how is that reform and renewal accomplished? The radical simplicity of St. Francis’ life demonstrates how the foundations of true love and lasting reform are to be built on the solid rock that is the witness of the saints. The Church celebrates the feast of St. Francis on Oct. 4th. We are blessed to have him as patron saint of our Archdiocese of San Francisco, and have our city named for this great saint.

This six-week series will begin on Thursday, October 5, at 7:00-8:30 PM in the meeting room of the Pastoral Center. The whole study will be held from Oct. 5 to Nov. 9th. Sr. Cristina will facilitate.

The topics are as follows:

- St. Francis of Assisi  Oct. 12
- Bl. John Henry Newman  Nov. 2
- St. Thomas Aquinas  Oct. 19
- G.K. Chesterton  Nov. 9

- Michelangelo  Nov. 16

will meet next Monday, Oct. 9 at 2:00-3:00PM in the meeting room of the Pastoral Center. Please bring your own materials. Thank you!

‘No, no, no, no … Y-yes!’

At the end of World War II in France, many prostitutes had their heads shaved. Their beautiful hair was hacked off to the last millimetre. Why? Because they were prostitutes? No. The reason was that they were collaborators. They had sold their services to the German occupiers and therefore were regarded as traitors. They had betrayed their people.

It was the same in Christ’s time. The two most despised groups in Israel and Galilee were tax collectors who gathered the revenue for the Roman authorities and the prostitutes who serviced the Roman occupying army.

So, when Jesus says to the religious elite of his time: “Amen I say to you that the tax collectors and the prostitutes will enter the Kingdom of God ahead of you”, this was truly shocking.

Why did Jesus believe this?

Because he had observed tax collectors and prostitutes switching allegiance from the Empire of Caesar to the Kingdom of God under the influence of John the Baptist. This signaled a profound change of heart. And this profound change of heart would express itself in real commitment to the values and lifestyle of God’s Kingdom, unlike the superficial pledges of loyalty from the religious leadership of the day.

Hence, Jesus’ little story about the two brothers. One said “Yes”, but never did anything. The other said “No”, but then had a change of heart and did what was required.

Jesus loved the brother who came around, perhaps after saying “No” many times. He was very hard on those who said “Yes” but did not “walk the talk.”

We know from other stories in the Scriptures what it meant for a tax collector to change. Saint Matthew himself was a tax collector who abandoned his post at the Customs House to follow Jesus.

In another passage, we read of Zaccheus, a tax collector who climbed a tree to get a glimpse of Jesus. He was drawn into conversation with Jesus and shared a meal with him. The Gospel then reads:

Zaccheus’ heart was changed by Jesus’ kind words. He told Jesus “Behold Lord, I will give half my goods to the poor. And if I have taken more from any man than I should, I will give back four times as much as I took.”

You and I are perhaps not at the extreme of the tax collectors and prostitutes of Our Lord’s time. But we have all made compromises with the ruling ethos of our time.

I have been haunted by the story of Cardinal Wolsey, one time Lord Chancellor to Henry VIII. He was demoted when he failed to secure the divorce from Catherine of Aragon, and was exiled to York. Summoned to London, he had a premonition of his fate and spoke the following words: “Well, well, Master Kingston, I see the matter against me how it is framed. But if I had served God as diligently as I have done the King, he would not have given me over in my grey hairs.”

We may have said “No” to God at various times with various intensity in our lives.

But God is wonderfully patient and prepared to hear “No” many times in the hope of hearing “Yes”. God’s patience never runs out. But our time to say “Yes” does run out. We only have a relatively short life span!

But, until then, Our Lord will try to engage us in conversation, as he did with Zaccheus.

Like Zaccheus, here today we are drawn into conversation with Jesus. We hear him in the Gospel and respond. That is “conversation”. Note how close that word is to “conversion”. Our conversation with Jesus of the Gospels should lead to conversion of heart.

At the end of Mass, I will say “Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord.” As St Francis of Assisi put it, entirely in harmony with this Gospel, “Preach the Gospel, and occasionally use words.”

“Walk the talk.”
