FAZtor's Notes

By Fr. Arnold Zamora

The Second Sunday of Easter has always been known as Doubting Thomas Sunday because the Gospel for this particular Sunday talks about Thomas doubting the apostle's testimony about Jesus rising from the dead. In 2000, however, upon the canonization of Sr. Faustina Kowalska, Saint Pope John Paul II officially designated the first Sunday after Easter as the Divine Mercy Sunday.

Sr. Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun, reported visions and visitations from Jesus and conversations with Him. She asked him to paint the vision of His Merciful Divinity being poured from His sacred heart and specifically asked for a feast of Divine Mercy to be established on the first Sunday after Easter so mankind would take refuge in Him.

Calling this Sunday a Doubting Thomas Sunday has faded as this Sunday has become known and widely celebrated now as the Divine Mercy Sunday. It's quite symbolic of Thomas's doubt that faded as he made an assent of faith through his declaration: "My Lord and My God!" Now we bring ourselves unto the Divine Mercy of God as we make our own profession: "Jesus, I trust in You!"

As I trust in the mercy of God's goodness and kindness, I also trust the goodness and kindness of our parishioners who have supported our church all these years. There were projects in past that seemed impossible to accomplish, like the Church bathroom and the repair of the church organ that entailed a huge sum for its completion. Now people are enjoying the convenient use of the bathroom and the sound of the Church organ once again, considered by organists as one of the best sounding instruments in the Bay Area. On April 30th at 2:00 PM, we will have our first Organ Concert featuring Mario Ballestrieri. Mr. Ballestrieri is currently the Music Director at St. Brendan Church, but has played music in different churches and is a well sought after organist at St. Mary's Cathedral. Hear the works of Johann Sebastian Bach played on the organ; it will be fun afternoon listening to the magnificent sound. Please come and enjoy, it's a FREE Concert!

I also trust that someday we will be successful with our Youth Ministry. So, I won't give up hope and will trust in the Lord's work and the goodness and kindness of our parishioners who have supported our church all these years. There were projects in past that seemed impossible to accomplish, like the Church bathroom and the repair of the church organ that entailed a huge sum for its completion. Now people are enjoying the convenient use of the bathroom and the sound of the Church organ once again, considered by organists as one of the best sounding instruments in the Bay Area. On April 30th at 2:00 PM, we will have our first Organ Concert featuring Mario Ballestrieri. Mr. Ballestrieri is currently the Music Director at St. Brendan Church, but has played music in different churches and is a well sought after organist at St. Mary's Cathedral. Hear the works of Johann Sebastian Bach played on the organ; it will be fun afternoon listening to the magnificent sound. Please come and enjoy, it's a FREE Concert!

After coming from a parish cookout, a husband was standing on the bathroom scales, desperately holding his stomach in.

His wife, thinking he was trying to reduce his weight, remarked: "I don't think that will help."

"It does," he said. "It's the only way I can read the numbers!"

You may think that the little things you do for parish don't make any difference, but they matter. Most worthwhile achievements are the result of the many little things. Little things make big things happen.

BLESSED DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Reflection: “Jesus Christ is the face of the Father’s mercy. These words might well sum up the mystery of the Christian faith. Mercy has become living and visible in Jesus of Nazareth, reaching its culmination in Him. We need constantly to contemplate the mystery of mercy. It is a well-spring of joy, serenity, and peace.” —Pope Francis

Restoring Affordable Health Care in the San Francisco Bay Area

A conference organized by the Office of Human Life and Dignity of the Archdiocese of San Francisco. It will be held on Saturday, April 29, 2017 at the Cathedral and Conference Center, 1111 Gough St. at Geary Blvd. Mass at 8:00AM. The conference will be at 9:00AM to 12:00 Noon. Presentation on Aging and Disability will be held on Thursday, April 27, 2017 at 10:30AM to 12:00 Noon in the Flanagan Center. We invite seniors and family members who are caregivers to the elderly and disabled. The speakers are from the Aging and Disability Resource Center in our city. They will give a presentation, answer questions, and will be available on a one on one discussion on specific issues.

New schedule of Youth Ministry

After necessary considerations of the Pastoral Team and the Youth Ministry facilitators, this ministry will be held once a month, on a designated Saturday at 5:00-7:30PM, with Sunday Vigil Mass included. The first YM event will be on Saturday, April 29, 2017, with a cook-out after Mass. It will be held at San Lorenzo Ruiz Garden behind the priests' house. We ask parents and guardians to encourage your children 12 to 18 years old to take part in our monthly YM activities. Thank you.

Readings for April 23-30, 2017
[ ] April 27 Deut 28, Jer 43, Luke 17:23–37, Ps 52

Readings are based on the Bible book arrangement as found in the Revised Standard Version, Catholic Edition, but can be used with any Catholic Bible with full canon of Scripture (this is different from the liturgical readings of the Mass as seen on page 2). A link to a complete reading chart for a year is also available on our website: www.holynamesf.org

TODAY’S SECOND COLLECTION
IS THE CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS APPEAL
Support the Catholic Home Missions Appeal today! Right now, over 40 percent of dioceses in the United States are considered home missions because they are unable to fund essential pastoral work needed in their communities. Your support funds programs—such as religious education, seminary formation, and lay ministry training—to build vibrant faith communities right here in the United States. Please be generous. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.
