DID YOU REMEMBER TO TURN BACK YOUR CLOCK 1 HOUR?
FAZtor’s Notes
By Fr. Arnold Zamora

While some children in their Halloween costumes were collecting candy and chocolates around the neighborhood, close to 30 parishioners were collecting graces and blessings from the Lord on the final day of our October Rosary Devotion in our Pastoral Center Chapel. Thanks to the leadership of Carmen Palanca, who has kept this devotion for so many years now. Congratulations also to those who have joined and prayed with the Rosary Group every single day.

There are two special prayer events also happening on Saturday morning this weekend. First, some of our children are praying for forgiveness as they receive the Sacrament of First Reconciliation. Secondly, our parishioners are praying for our deceased parishioners who passed away from November 2016 to October 2017 in a special Memorial Mass that follows right after the First Reconciliation.

Remembering our beloved departed parishioners is now an annual activity in the month of November, when we do also our All Souls novena of masses. Last Friday, we had a funeral mass for long-time parishioner and School Alumni parent, Mrs. Francisca Aquino, who was a part of the choir and was involved with making banners for the church. We also had a funeral mass for Dr. George Maloof, who was an advocate for life with a wonderful soul and the husband of our parish nurse Carol Elliott-Maloof. His mass was in the Traditional Latin Rite, presided by Fr. William Young. Not too long ago, we had another funeral mass for longtime parishioner and School Alumni parent, Mr. John Xavier, who was also a head usher for our 5PM mass for many years. All three lived full lives and were good stewards, using their gifts of time, talent and treasure for the good of the Church. That’s the Stewardship way of life.

Our Stewardship Renewal last week was a great success. One parishioner noted that people came into mass in a good mood and there were more people greeting each other. There were 96 commitment cards that were turned in that day, compared to 74 cards last year. Our Commitment Sunday showed an improvement from last year. And many have not yet turned in their cards, so there are more to come.

Last Saturday’s New Parishioners Dinner turned out to be a good prelude to our Commitment Sunday. Our new parishioners were so happy to be welcomed to the parish. They received a Welcome Packet, well prepared by Ricky Inting and Carl Vengco. Freda Motak and Sr. Cristina were great in serving as Mistresses of ceremony. The ministry leaders each gave a summary of their respective ministry. Each ministry brought food to be shared by everybody. It was another beautiful evening.

Now, back to our regular schedule of masses for this Sunday, 7:30AM, 9:30AM and 11:30AM. I just hope people were able to change their clocks, as Daylight Saving Time ends. I wish it was “savings time,” but I don’t think it will happen with so much spending for the coming holidays.

I saw a reminder that says “Don’t forget to turn your clock back. I’m going to turn mine back to when I was 20.”

“Well, remember, if you don’t leave your past, it could destroy your future. Live for what today has to offer, not for what yesterday had taken away.”

This series is held on Thursdays, from 7:00-8:30 PM in the meeting room of the Pastoral Center. Sr. Cristina facilitates.
The topic for Nov. 9 is Michaelangelo
The Pivotal Players is a multi-part film series that illumines a handful of saints, artists, mystics, and scholars who not only shaped the life of the Church but changed the course of civilization the Catholic Faith. But there is still more of the story to tell. He unlocks the truth behind the Catholic Church’s most influential people.

Crocheting and Knitting Group Thanks to our group for the finished materials to be given out this Christmas season to the homeless, the elderly, sick and homeless, and all who need warmth and kindness. We will meet on Monday, Nov. 13th, 2:00-3:00PM in the meeting room of the Pastoral Center.

THE WHITE ZONE IS FOR IMMEDIATE LOADING AND UNLOADING OF PASSENGERS ONLY
This is not just a famous quote from Airplane the movie (1980) AS PER SFMTA White zones are for passenger loading and unloading during certain hours with a time limit of five minutes. Check nearby signs or stencils on the curb for effective hours.
The driver must remain with the vehicle at all times (limited exceptions apply at preschools and hospitals). Vehicles parked in a white zone are subject to citation and tow.
This is a friendly reminder again to all school parents and parishioners. Please be cognizant of the white zone areas in front of the church and the school and follow effective hours. Please be aware as you come for morning Mass or afternoon meetings. In case of emergency, responders need access to the church and school.
ACE COLLECTION
Today’s Second Collection is the ACE COLLECTION for the benefit of our Parish School. Your generosity is very much appreciated by our school children.

ST. PATRICK’S SEMINARY COLLECTION
Next Sunday’s Second Collection is for St. Patrick’s Seminary.
For more than a century, St. Patrick’s Seminary and University in Menlo Park has been dedicated to the ministry of priestly formation, preparing seminarians for ordination and supporting the continued growth of priests already ordained. Well prepared priests are needed more than ever at this time. To sustain their vitally important work, they rely on the generosity of our benefactors and of the parishioners whom our seminarians will one day serve as priests.

COLLECTION TO AID SANTA ROSA DIOCESE WITH FIRE DAMAGE
For those who would like to give monetary donations to the Diocese of Santa Rosa Fire Victims, you can still do so by dropping off your check in a separate envelope in the collection baskets or dropping off or mailing your donation to the Parish Office at 1555 39th Ave., San Francisco, CA 94122 by NOVEMBER 24, 2017—ALL DONATIONS FROM HOLY NAME WILL BE FORWARDED TO THE ARCHDIOCESE. It is still undetermined how many people perished in these fires. Thousands of homes and businesses within the diocese were destroyed. Many people no longer have jobs and nowhere to live. Schools were also destroyed including a major part of Cardinal Newman High School. The Archdiocese will also substantially supplement the money collected from the parishes. Your generosity will help rebuild lives.
Checks for all special collections such as this one should be made out to HOLY NAME OF JESUS CHURCH. In the memo line write the appropriate reference for your donation, for example: Santa Rosa Fire Collection.

VETERAN’S DAY HOLIDAY
Veteran’s Day holiday will be observed on Friday, November 10, 2017. There will be one Mass at 9 AM in the Church. The School & Parish offices will be closed.
As we come to the end of the Church's year it's good for us to do some soul-searching. It has been a tough year for the Church and today's Gospel does not let us off the hook. In fact, it names one of the challenges before us. The last line of today's Gospel sums up what it has been like for many of us to hear about how some priests betrayed our trust, many victims were disbelieved and a few of our bishops have tried to cover up criminal actions. The exalted have been humbled and the humble exalted.

Jesus tells the crowds to listen to what the Pharisees teach, but not to follow their appalling example. The behavior of the Pharisees has a name: hypocrisy, and it's one of the reasons we have received such a public pasting in recent years. Some of it has been justified. We have been seen to be a community more interested in our good name and public standing than in the damage done to those brothers and sisters of ours who were given into our care and became victims of physical and sexual abuse. We have been exposed as not practicing what we preach.

The Church is in a bind here. We are not like other groups who can simply expel their worst members and move on. If we are going to be faithful to all of Jesus' teaching and the entire Christian tradition, then we have to comfort and heal the victims of abuse and call the perpetrators to the demands of the law, treatment and reconciliation. St Augustine summed this up in the 5th century when he said that forgiveness has two daughters: justice and compassion. We believe that the only way to healing is through forgiveness. True forgiveness never runs from the truth or minimizes our sinfulness. It conforms the human condition with justice and compassion for all concerned.

The media may not like it, the public may be baying for blood and we might want an instant fix, so we put this tragic chapter behind us quickly, but forgiveness which is just and compassionate is the only way we can practice what we preach. It's going to take time.

On the other hand while some in our Catholic community have been exposed as hypocrites, some other truths remain consoling, or at least provide a context within which we can confront the sins of our fathers and mothers. For example, though there should never have been one case of child abuse in the Church, less than two percent of all Catholic priests have been convicted of this dreadful crime. An accusation is not a conviction and even priests and religious deserve the presumption and rights of innocence before they are proven guilty. Even though the public perception may be otherwise, nearly all Catholic priests are faithful servants of the Gospel, doing what they can to practice what they preach.

Against a prevailing misconception, Church-run institutions are not the places where children are most at risk. Tragically, it's the family home. Over 80 percent of all child abuse occurs there. This does not excuse one case of abuse in the Church but it does suggest that, if our wider society really wants to tackle this problem, we are all going to have to start by looking in our own backyards.

Furthermore, against those who claim that the Church is hypocritical, they cannot take away from us the fact that our community, in the name of Christ, remains the largest provider of education, healthcare, and welfare both here and overseas. This often-heroic work will rarely make it to the front pages of newspapers, but it's the backdrop against which we face up to the criminal actions of a few and those who try to protect them from public scrutiny.

Let's pray in this Eucharist that, as hard as this year has been for us all, we are converted again by the forgiving, just, and compassionate example of Jesus who calls us to leave behind any trace of triumphalism and arrogance and recommit ourselves to what we should do best: the self-sacrificing love of one another and the world.

SACRISTAN/SEXTON NEEDED
The parish of Holy Name of Jesus is calling for a new Sacristans/ Sexton to cover the 1st and 5th weekends of the month (one sacristan for each weekend).

The candidate will be briefed on the responsibilities of a sacristan. After a screening with our Pastoral Vicar, Fr. Simon Jin, the candidate who wishes to serve in this ministry will be referred to the Pastor, Rev. Fr. Arnold Zamora, for further orientation.

If you have a deep desire to serve God's church, please contact Lead Sacristan, Ramsey Ramos at (415) 205-4609 or the Pastoral Center at (415) 664-8590. The candidate will be briefed on the responsibilities of a sacristan. Come join a time-honored ministry in the Catholic Church! Thanks for your stewardship!

LOVE NEEDED HERE
No one needs love more than someone who doesn't deserve it. —Anonymous

THE GREATEST AMONG US
Whom do you admire? Is it the President of the United States or a movie star or a billionaire? These are people whom the world exalts as great. Like the Pharisees in today’s Gospel, they have places of honor wherever they go. Would you like to follow in their footsteps?

The scriptures for today offer different examples for us to follow. Jesus tells us that the greatest among us are the servants. These are the people we are to honor and imitate. We are called to be like Paul, who worked hard to serve the needs of his communities, and Jesus, who gave his life in service to the world.
