THE INEXPRESSIBLE MYSTERY

The God of the universe is mysterious. Science has not been able to solve the mystery of how the universe came into being or explain exactly what continues to give it creative energy and masterful design. No religion asserts that it has found words to name fully the ineffable mystery of God, for no matter what name we use, God always transcends our limited ability to understand. God is a mystery to be believed, not known. And yet, we Christians believe that our name for God best expresses that inexpressible mystery: God is the Most Holy Trinity of three persons united in a communion of love, pouring forth that creative, saving, sanctifying love into the world. Today’s scriptures celebrate the mystery of the Trinity and give us clues for living that mystery in our lives.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

HOLY NAME OF JESUS PARISH SAN FRANCISCO is a welcoming multicultural and liturgical community that celebrates our Christian Faith. In the spirit of the “Joy of the Gospel” we work together promoting Catholic values and teachings. Our parish encourages a strong devotion to our Blessed Mother Mary, who gives us an example of faithful discipleship and a generous stewardship way of life.
“The dust has settled” but not quite yet! We might have been through a busy graduation week and our school children are on vacation break, but there are still a lot of activities going on in our parish and in our Archdiocese. This Saturday, June 10th is the ordination to the priesthood of Michael Liliedahl and Alvin Antonio Yu for the Archdiocese of San Francisco, at the Cathedral of St. Mary of the Assumption. Alvin Yu is more familiar to us since he is always the emcee of Liturgical Celebrations for Bishop Wang.

We also have our Homebound Mass this weekend in the Flanagan Center with Anointing within the mass. We thank again the Lay Canossians, led by their president Jim Regan, for sponsoring this mass. The Lay Canossians have made it possible for our Homebound masses to keep going on for many years. We also have great support from Roonie and Terry Flaherty and other parishioners who are not Lay Canossians, but simply have love for our homebound and sick parishioners.

This Saturday Holy Name of Jesus Parish will also host a graduation ceremony for 49 Basic Catechists from all over the Bay Area. They have completed an eight-month training program offered by the San Francisco Archdiocese Chinese Ministry and the Office of Religious Education. The course was conducted by Master Catechists Veronica Wong and Nelson Lao (HN parishioner) and other guest presenters. The curriculum followed the guidelines set forth by the California Catholic Conference of Bishops, and was presented entirely in Chinese - a first for the Archdiocese. Please join me in congratulating the six Holy Name parishioners who will receive certification: Maria Chuk, Teresa Kwan, Maria Lee, Julie Liu, Betty Nascimento and Valerie Toy.

And lastly, for this busy Saturday, our Youth Group will have their monthly meeting right after the 5PM Mass, where they will be making 100 sandwhiches for the St. Vincent de Paul Society. Thanks to all the parents who are so supportive of our youth ministry.

When I was in New Jersey the other week, I met a priest who told me that he plays tennis everyday. Wow! How lucky for this guy to have time for tennis everyday (except maybe on his day off?). I hardly can find time to watch TV (except when the Warriors are playing!).

I was reminded of story of a priest who received a phone call from his bishop. The bishop said: “Is everything okay at the parish?” He said, “Yes, bishop, it’s all under control. It’s been a very busy day, I haven’t stopped.”

“Can you do me a favor?” the bishop asked.

“Of course, what is it?” the priest replied.

The bishop said, “Hurry up and take your shot, I’m behind you on the 7th hole.”

“Don’t be so busy that you can’t be interrupted. Sometimes our most important meetings are those we didn’t plan. Be interruptible :) Never be “too busy” for the people God places in your life along the way!”

Religious Education and RCIA 2017-2018

You may now register for next pastoral year’s classes, they will begin in September, 2017. Registration forms are available at the entrance of the church or in the parish office. Former students may just call Sr. Cristina’s office to confirm attendance for next year. Thank you for your attention to this matter. RCIA begins on Wednesday, Sept. 6, 2017, 7:00-8:30PM in the meeting room of the Pastoral Center (Holy Name Convent) 1555 39th Avenue. Religious Education will begin on Sunday, Sept. 10, 2017 at 10:30am-12:00 Noon, in the Pastoral Center.

Weekly Marian Studies (Mariology) has started in our parish. It is every Thursday, 7:00-8:30PM in the meeting room of the Pastoral Center. The weekly lessons are as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>VI</th>
<th>Our Lady of Lourdes</th>
<th>June 15</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>VII</td>
<td>Our Lady of Fatima</td>
<td>June 22</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Please bring your Bible. There is no homework assignment! Parishioners who have attended the last three sessions gave very positive feedback. It was the kind of Marian studies they have been waiting for. The video presentations by selected theologians are very informative, and the group’s discussions are lively and interactive. Contact Sr. Cristina for more information.

Youth Ministry We continue to invite young parishioners, ages 12-18, to participate in our monthly youth gathering. Our activities so far are as follows:

- July Picnic with Altar Servers
- Date & Venue TBA
- August Game Night
- September Preparing Care Packages for Homeless people

We start with the 5:00 PM Mass on any given Saturday, then gather at the “Youth Ministry Wing” of the Pastoral Center for activities. A Simple dinner is served in the kitchen. We encourage parents and guardians to please send your children to enjoy wholesome activities in a safe environment. Thank you.

Personal Reflection on Experience with RCIA-Youth Program

“I signed up for the RCIA-Youth process this year because I wanted to be closer to God, to know more about Him, and to live a peaceful life with God by my side. This year I learned more about the three sacraments of Christian Initiation. I was preparing for Confirmation and First Holy Communion. I understand that God loves me no matter what, and He forgives me my sins. To be a good Christian I need to be careful with my words and actions, that they do not hurt other people’s feelings. Jesus taught us to love one another. I will continue attending Mass every Sunday. If it will be possible, I want to be a teacher assistant in the Religious Education Program here at Holy Name.”

-Leigh Anne Parocha, received Confirmation and Holy Eucharist at the Easter Vigil. She chose “St. Anne” as her patron saint and Confirmation name.
