TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Once the way was cleared for additional Eucharistic Prayers, those who were appointed to compose them had to look deep within the tradition for sources. One of the prescriptions for new prayers was that they be “unencumbered by useless repetition.” From the start, therefore, the writers knew that the old Roman Canon, which had the priest bowing and crossing himself many times in a long, complex prayer, was not a model of simplicity.

Aside from the prayers treasured by Eastern Christians, there is an obvious model from ancient Rome. For about a hundred years now, the historical text “Apostolic Tradition” has shed some light for us on the shadowy shape of worship in the early church.

ARE YOU A NEW PARISHIONER? Or just never registered?
You may register online at http://holynamesf.org/parishregistration/
You may also call (415) 664-8590 or drop by the Parish office (1555 39th Ave./Lawton St.) 9 AM-4 AM, Monday-Friday.

In it, its author, Hippolytus, took care to record the actual texts of worship used at the time. He himself has a shadowy side, since he was so ardently conservative in his tastes that he broke ties with the Bishop of Rome and became first in the line of history’s anti-popes. At the eleventh hour, however, he reconciled with his enemies and actually died a martyr. In fact, he was shipped off to the Sardinian mines as a slave with the true pope as his companion in chains. Because his tussle with the pope was over theological innovations and not liturgical texts, we are sure that his account of the style of Eucharistic Prayer in the third century is accurate. It forms the core of today’s Eucharistic Prayer II.

As we conclude our hosting of the Philippine Madrigal Singers, some people have observed the stewardship spirit and way of life that some of our parishioners manifested as they offered their houses, volunteered to drive and provided food for the singers. Our parishioners have stepped up for all our needs and were always there to help. So, I would like to thank the host families, the drivers, the food providers, the concert volunteers and especially the planning committee with the initial work from our event coordinators Ricky Inting, Carl of the concert and the hosting of the singers.

Religious Education You may register for next pastoral year’s clases. They will begin on Sunday September 10, 2017, at 10:30AM to 12:00 Noon, in the Pastoral Center (Holy Name Convent) 1555 39th

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) 2017-2018 will begin on Wednesday, September 6, 2017, at 7:00-8:30PM in the Pastoral Center. The RCIA process is for people who want either to learn about Catholics or to become a Catholic. If you are in an interfaith marriage, you may want to understand your family’s Catholic faith better. If you are not connected to any faith community, you are most welcome to inquire with us. We invite you or someone you know who will be interested to explore this opportunity by coming to our RCIA sessions. Our parish’s RCIA Team is composed of Sr. Cristina, Terry Flaherty, Lucy Jacinto, and different invited presenters who will share with the Inquirers their “expertise” about topics in the “Catechism of the Catholic Church”. Please call the parish office to register.
Volunteers Needed Our parish ministry of visiting the sick and homebound parishioners is in need of volunteers for weekly Communion Service and social visits. We thank all our present and past volunteers for their dedication and generous giving of their time. Any parishioner who feel called to this important pastoral outreach ministry, please contact Sr. Cristina or Susan Logan. Thank you.

Summer Break ends soon Religious Education, RCIA, Senior Club, Tuesday Bible/Lectio Divina, Thursday Adult Faith Formation, Coffee & Donuts Sunday hospitality, Wednesday breakfast hospitality—all will resume in September. Thank you to all volunteers who made all these programs possible by your commitment and perseverance.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament continues every Wednesday, after the 9:00AM Mass until noon. Please come and pray for so many needs before our Lord in His Real Presence. There is no break for this very important devotion in our parish.

Altar Linens Ministry: The Cleaning of Altar Linens involves washing and ironing the purificators that are used for wiping the sacred cup during communion, the corporals and the towels that are used on the altar by the Priests for washing their hands. The linens are taken home once a week and then returned to the sacristy before Mass the following week.

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

On Catholic Dogs
All of us are aware of the atrocities being committed in Iraq by ISIS. The slaughter of innocent Christians, Yazidis, and members of other Muslim sects has horrified us all.
We can hardly imagine the diabolical hatred between religious and ethnic groups which could lead to such descent into barbarism.

On a lesser scale, differences between ethnic or religious groups can lead to profound chasms of intolerance opening up between them.
In Our Lord’s time, the division between Jews and Pagans was very profound. Pagans (most often called gentiles), were outside the chosen people, the children of God, and there was a long history of antagonism.

This is the setting for this remarkable gospel story.
A pagan woman approaches a Jewish man: Jesus. The disciples react to a woman causing a commotion. She is causing a commotion, but for a good reason. She begs Jesus to heal her daughter with whom she maternally completely identifies: “Have mercy on me.”

He comments: “I was sent only to the lost sheep of the House of Israel.” He is confirming his healing mission to the Jews. She and her daughter don’t qualify!

What is going on?
We know that the Prophet Isaiah was a great favorite and exemplar for Jesus. Jesus could open a scroll and quote passages which guided his own understanding of his mission. Jesus had evidently taken Isaiah’s picture of a transformed Jewish people being a light to the pagan nations who would then be attracted to worship God in the right way.

That is the two-stage sequence which Jesus has embarked on. Jesus therefore gives a very dismissive answer to the woman: “It is not fair to take the children’s bread and throw it to the house dogs.” The children are obviously the Jewish people, and so Jesus’ response is very confronting.

This remarkable woman, this remarkable pagan woman, stands her ground and engages in a verbal joust with Jesus! She decides to give him as good as she got! She argues: “Yes, Lord, but even the house dogs get the crumbs that fall from their master’s table.”

What a fantastic response!
Jesus recognizes her faith and the daughter was healed.
What a fantastic woman!
She, a pagan woman, helped Jesus see that his liberating mission, his healing, saving mission, was not a careful two-stage affair, Jews first, pagans later. His saving mission was for all those who had faith in him—wherever and whenever.

This story was treasured and remembered in the early church and then put into writing in the Gospels. Why?
Because the biggest crisis facing the early church was relations between Jewish Christians and possible pagan converts who wanted to be followers of Jesus. This story would have been told to show how Jesus extended his saving mission to non-Jews in Pagan territory.

That is good news for us, Gospel for us, Gospel for billions of non-Jewish people over the course of history since then and into the future. That is why we are truly “Catholic”, which, as you know, is the Greek for “universal”, “world-wide”.

This woman is the one whose story was treasured as opening up the Church to being truly universal—a home for all people—a place where the “whole” of humanity can be made “whole” in every way.

That is what it means to be “Catholic”.
Could this Canaanite woman be celebrated as the first “Catholic”?
