It was a quick change of color from white vestments to green and then from green to purple. I am speaking about how quickly time has passed. We had Christmas, then a few Sundays of Ordinary Time and now Lent is here. The change of color hopefully can usher in a change of heart, a new beginning for a better spiritual life.

This First Sunday of Lent takes us to a lot of beginnings in our parish. This Sunday, we are launching our Archdiocesan Annual Appeal (AAA). Your generosity and commitment to the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal enables Archbishop Cordileone and the Archdiocese to provide vital services to our local community and our greater Church. Here’s the good news: Our parishioners are more and more generous each year. Because of your abounding generosity our church ordinary income has increased this past year and so our AAA goal also increased from $ 68,137 to $72,310.00.

A parish’s AAA goal for a particular calendar year is 20% of its income for the previous fiscal year (defined as July 1 - June 30). The income is determined by four factors - what’s derived from: Regular Offertory, Holy Days, Sacraments and Candle sales. Some of our parishioners have participated in our 1% Club, giving one percent of our goal. Technically, our 1% club membership this year has increased as well to $700, but if you can only give the 1% from last year which is $600, we will still honor that and consider you as part of the 1% club. Again, thank you so much for your support. We can do this again!

As a gift I return for your generosity, we are giving you a free subscription of FORMED.org which is considered the Catholic Netflix where you can watch videos and movies for free. Learn more about and enjoy our Catholic faith. It is not just for adults but also for kids. Just log on to holyname.sf.formed.org to register.

This Sunday is a new beginning for the schedule for our Homebound Mass. For years, we have it on Saturdays, but we decided to move it to a Sunday, same time at 1:30PM, so that our Homebound parishioners can really celebrate Sunday mass on a Sunday. Besides, the Flanagan Center where we hold the mass is more available on Sundays.

Speaking of Homebound ministries, we will also be starting Home Food Deliveries, in partnership with SF-Marin Food Bank. It will be free home-delivered Groceries for seniors and adults with disabilities. The purpose of this program is to provide nutritious food to supplement a participant’s own resources, to reduce loneliness and to connect participants with additional services they might benefit from. Parishioner Louis Chan, our parish main coordinator for this program, and I, shadowed at the Food deliveries in the Richmond District. We observed the bagging process and went around to experience the delivery process. We are looking for some volunteers to participate in this new ministry. Please see the Bulletin for details. We always talk about how we can help the poor and how to care for the sick and the lonely. This is a concrete way that you can walk the talk or follow our words with action. What a wonderful way to start Lent.

Meanwhile, let me deliver this Food for Thought: A new day is a promise of better things to come and opportunities to heal our old wounds. Today, let us strive to walk in love, be kind, be wise and see the world with caring eyes. Be hopeful and have faith, since life is a gift and so are you!

Re: Stations of the Cross and Soup Supper during Fridays of Lent

Dear Partners in Ministries,

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, March 6th. One of our Lenten practices here at Holy Name of Jesus is to pray the Stations of the Cross and to gather immediately after for a sacrificial Soup Supper every Friday. For the past years we had more or less 50 parishioners participating. We hope to have more this year.

Choose members of your group to lead and read the Stations of the Cross. The copies are provided on the counter in the sacristy. Please ask Sr. Cristina or Rose Tang.

We would like to request the following services on the Friday you are assigned:

- Set up the Flanagan Center
- Prepare 6 kinds of meatless soup
- Provide bread and butter
- Have pitchers of water ready
- Clean-up at the end.

Please be at the Flanagan Center at 5:30 PM on your designated Friday. Linda and Tony Sideco of our Hospitality Team will be there to coordinate the setting-up.

The schedule is as follows:

6:00 PM  Stations of the Cross in Church
6:30 PM  Soup Supper in the Flanagan Center
March 15  Eucharistic Ministers and Choir Groups
March 22  Senior Club and Grief & Consolation Ministry
March 29  Fil-Am Ministry
April  5  Lay Canossians
April 12  Chinese Ministry

We ask that you encourage your members and other parishioners to participate, especially on your assigned date. Fr. Arnold and the Pastoral Staff are deeply grateful for your generous commitment. Let us be united in prayers as we begin this Lenten Journey of Compassion and Mercy.

From Archbishop Cordileone: “The theme for this year’s Annual Appeal is James 2:18 “I will show you my faith by my works.”

As Catholics, we unite using our gifts and talents to serve others. Together, we are able to demonstrate our faith through the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal by advancing important programs for your youth and young adults, social ministries, school students, our retired priests, ecumenical effects, and the greater Church, as well as supporting central office activities such as faith formation, human resources, and communications.

Since our mission continues and the needs ongoing, I ask you to prayerfully consider supporting this year’s Appeal. Your generosity makes a tangible difference in people’s lives. I thank you for your demonstrations of faith that continue to inspire me, your support of your own parish, and your commitment to the greater Church.

Thank you for your generous gift to the 2019 Archdiocesan Annual Appeal. Your donation will help the Archdiocese of San Francisco provide ministries, programs and services that benefit everyone in our Archdiocese.
