Jesus said,

“Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves.”

SAINTS AND SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

Sunday: Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Tuesday: St. Benedict
Thursday: St. Henry
Friday: St. Kateri Tekakwitha
Saturday: St. Bonaventure

Today’s Readings

First Reading — Rejoice heartily, O Jerusalem! For see, your savior comes (Zechariah 9:9-10).
Psalm — I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God (Psalm 145).
Second Reading — The one who raised Christ from death will give life to your mortal bodies also (Romans 8:9, 11-13).
Gospel — Come, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest (Matthew 11:25-30).

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.”
— Matthew 11:28

Readings for July 8-15, 2017

[ ] July 11 1 Kings 15–16, Ezek 33:12–33, Acts 11, Ps 81:title–3
[ ] July 12 1 Kings 17, Ezek 34:1–18, Acts 12:1–14, Ps 81:4–10
[ ] July 14 1 Kings 20, Ezek 35:1–36:12, Acts 13:12–33, Ps 82

Readings are based on the Bible book arrangement as found in the Revised Standard Version, Catholic Edition, but can be used with any Catholic Bible with full canon of Scripture (this is different from the liturgical readings of the Mass as seen on page 2). A link to a complete reading chart for a year is also available on our website: www.holynamesf.org

Hope

Desperation

The kingdom of God is not for the well-meaning but for the desperate. — James Denney
Surprisingly, I met a relative in Belfast whom I have not seen in years. They’re really saying “I love you.”

I see friends shaking hands saying “how do you do”

I think to myself, what a wonderful world.”

Those words were written by Bob Thiele and George David Weiss and sung by Louise Armstrong. Those are my words coming back from my recent trip to Ireland, particularly in Belfast. I saw trees of green because the place is blessed with the natural water from the skies. In my short 5 day stay in Ireland it rained practically every day, but like in our City, it has four seasons a day.

“I see skies of blue and clouds of white
The bright blessed day, the dark sacred night
And I think to myself what a wonderful world.”

I also saw the bright sun shining and the beauty of the day when it was not raining. In fact, there is more daylight as the sun rises as early as 5AM and sets late at 10:30PM this time of year. It was indeed a bright blessed day as family and friends of Reverend Manueltto Muga Milo gathered at St. Peter’s Cathedral in west Belfast on Sunday, June 25, 2017, as he was ordained into the Diocese of Down and Connor. He is the first non-national to be ordained into a diocese in Ireland. He was the only one being ordained in that ceremony.

“The colors of the rainbow so pretty in the sky
Are also on the faces of people going by
I see friends shaking hands saying how do you do
They’re really saying I love you.”

Surprisingly, I met a relative in Belfast whom I have not seen in a very long time, way before I was ordained a priest 31 years ago. It was a nostalgic reunion and thanks to Facebook. Although my trip was more for a religious purpose, I was able to observe the culture, learn some history and enjoy some sights of the country. Upon our arrival in Dublin, a tower building near the airport caught my attention as it carried the words: “God Is Love.” It made me think the country must be religious. While in Dublin, we visited Trinity College Dublin, The University of Dublin. The ordination dinner reception, which was a part of the “dark sacred night,” was held at the Titanic restaurant overlooking the spot where the “Titanic” ship was built and started its journey. We were also able to visit the “Giant’s Causeway” which was declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1986 and one of the natural wonders in the United Kingdom, if not in the world. Most of all, we were able to visit the apparition site of Our Lady of Knock, where we helped in administering the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick just before a special mass on the Solemnity of St. John the Baptist, celebrated by several bishops and priests.

“I hear babies crying, I watch them grow
They’ll learn much more than I’ll never know
And I think to myself what a wonderful world.”

FAZtor’s Notes
By Fr. Arnold Zamora

“I see trees of green, red roses too
I see them bloom only for you
I think to myself, what a wonderful world.”

MISSIONARY APPEAL
A Missionary Cooperative Plan Appeal for the Diocese of Catarman in the Philippines will be held this weekend. Rev. Fr. JONATHAN T. LOVERITA, representing Most Rev. Emmanuel C. Trance, D.D. will preach at all of the Masses.

This Appeal is made under the auspices of the Propagation of Faith to help with relief needs of children and the poor, formation of lay leaders and clergy’s health and continuing education assistance program.

DIOCESE OF CATARMAN-PHILIPPINES
The Diocese of Catarman is one of the poorest in the Philippines; our children live in abject poverty and we witness daily the violence that starvation and disease in remote areas of our diocese cause. This is the painful reality our church faces. Simple, yet curable diseases due to malnutrition and the annual natural calamities that nature unkindly inflicts on our people cause death at an early age.

Most of our villages are located in the hinterlands. Seventy-five percent of the population are farmers. Six out of hundred children die before they reach the age of one. Our area is also visited by typhoons, sometimes 33 times in a year, which destroy the crops and houses made of nipa huts and bamboos. In November 2013, we were hit by the strongest typhoon ever and in September 2014 by another strong typhoon. Until now we are still experiencing and recovering from those calamities. We have to wait again around seven years for the coconut crops to normalize, which is our only major source of living.

Your assistance is crucial to make a difference in the survival of our people. We depend on your generosity to simply live. If our proposal is approved, your help will go to the relief needs of our impoverished children and their families, for the training and formation of our lay leaders and our clergy’s health & retirement assistance program. Your generosity is very much appreciated.

HOLY NAME LADIES AID COLLECTION
Next Sunday, members of the Holy Name Ladies Aid will be collecting for the needy in the Parish. Boxes will be by the exits.

When I was a boy and when I was growing up, Irish priests came to the Philippines as missionaries. We imported priests from other countries. We learned and benefited so much from them. Now, I guess, it’s “payback” time, as Filipino priests are now serving in Ireland and in different countries.

Rev. Jonathan Loverita is originally from the Philippines and is now serving in one of the parishes in New York. He will be the mission representative for this weekend’s “Missionary Cooperative Plan Appeal” for the Diocese of Catarman in the Philippines. He will be preaching in all the masses this weekend. Let’s welcome him and give our support to this appeal.

Somewhere in Northern Ireland there have been times when collection plates were rarely full. During one of those dry periods, an old Irish priest looked down at the returned receptacle plate and prayed, “Well, Lord, we thank you for the safe return of the plate.”

I thank God for the gift of priesthood and my safe return from a very quick visit to Ireland.

“Yes I think to myself, What a Wonderful World.”

FIL-AM CLUB
To Members of the Fil-Am Club of Holy Name of Jesus:
Please note a change in the novena to San Lorenzo Ruiz and our meeting schedule. Effectively immediately, the Fil-Am Club will no longer have monthly devotions to San Lorenzo Ruiz before the meeting. Instead, the 9-day novena will be held daily from Sept. 19-27 at 7:00 pm in the Pastoral Center Chapel, ending with a Eucharistic Celebration on San Lorenzo’s feastday, Sept. 28, starting this year.
Starting July 21, 2017, the meetings will begin at 7:00 pm in the Flanagan Center. For our next meeting, we will have a presentation on “Dementia” by a guest speaker from Catholic Charities. Friends and family are welcome. Our regular meeting will resume on August 18, 2017.

See you there!
Ramsey Ramos
President 2017-2019

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION
The premier poet of the English language, Geoffrey Chaucer, introduced one of his most beloved characters, the “Wife of Bath,” by this telling remark: “Husbands at church door she had five.” Four times widowed, she was setting off on a pilgrimage, notably without number five. The church door is a curious detail, pointing to the fourteenth-century wedding custom of marrying on the porch of the parish church. The goal was to give maximum publicity to the consent of the groom and bride, and so consent was moved from the bride’s home to a public venue. The priest would stand in the doorway and begin by sprinkling the couple with holy water. He needed to make sure they weren’t too closely related and give them some instruction.

Religious Education You may register for next pastoral year’s classes. They will begin on Sunday September 10, 2017, at 10:30AM to 12:00 Noon in the Pastoral Center (Holy Name Convent) 1555 39th Avenue. Registration forms are available at the entrance of the church or in the parish office. Former students may just call Sr. Cristina’s office to confirm attendance for next year.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) 2017-2018 will begin on Wednesday, September 6, 2017, at 7:00-8:30PM in the Pastoral Center. The RCIA process is for people who want either to learn about Catholics or to become a Catholic. If you are in an interfaith marriage, you may want to understand your family’s Catholic faith better. If you are not connected to any faith community, you are most welcome to inquire with us. We invite you or someone you know who will be interested to explore this opportunity by coming to our RCIA sessions. Our parish’s RCIA Team is composed of Sr. Cristina, Terry Flaherty, Lucy Jacinto, and different invited presenters who will share with the Inquirers their “expertise” about topics in the “Catechism of the Catholic Church”. Please call the parish office to register.

Volunteers Needed Our parish ministry of visiting the sick and homebound parishioners is in need of volunteers for weekly Communion Service and social visits. We thank all our present and past volunteers for their dedication and generous giving of their time. Any parishioner who feel called to this important pastoral outreach ministry, please contact Sr. Cristina or Susan Logan. Thank you.

Summer Break The following ministries will take a summer break: Religious Education, RCIA, Senior Club, Tuesday Bible/Lectio Divina, Thursday Adult Faith Formation, Coffee & Donuts Sunday hospitality, Wednesday breakfast hospitality. All will resume in September. Thank you to all volunteers who made all these programs possible by your commitment and perseverance. Enjoy your relaxing summer activities! Come back refreshed, alive, enthusiastic!

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament continues every Wednesday, after the 9:00AM Mass until noon. Please come and pray for so many needs before our Lord in His Real Presence. There is no break for this very important devotion in our parish.

A HUMBLE KING
Like a tonal center in music, the note to which we keep returning in today’s readings is humility. We wait in joyful expectation for the coming of our Lord as King. But what we are told to expect and rejoice over is a meek and humble king, riding on an ass. Not horses or chariots of the great and mighty, but a humble beast carries the Ruler whose dominion stretches “from the River to the ends of the earth” (Zechariah 9:10). This King comes to banish the tools of the warrior and bring peace. No wonder that a weary world rejoices and gives thanks to God!
