RETIREMENT FUND FOR THE RELIGIOUS
Help care for elders. “Thanks to support from the Retirement Fund for Religious, we are now in a much better position to care for our elders,” writes a religious sister. Your donation helps her religious community and hundreds of others provide for aging members and plan for long term needs. Please give to this weekend’s Retirement Fund for Religious collection.

BUILDING & MAINTENANCE COLLECTION
Next Sunday’s Second Collection is for our Building & Maintenance Collection. Your generosity allows us to take care of our Parish plant.

FAZtor’s Notes
By Fr. Arnold Zamora

We light the Candle of Peace in our Advent Wreath this weekend as we mark the Second Sunday of Advent, with God calling us to move forward into the action of peace. The four candles in the Advent Wreath represent Hope, Peace, Love and Joy— the mark of the Advent people that we are called to be. Hope, peace, joy and love are my wishes for all of you as I, together with some of our parishioners, make a spiritual pilgrimage to the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe, Mexico this week. Although the actual feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe is this Tuesday, December 12th, I am scheduled to say a mass at the Shrine this Sunday. You will be deeply remembered in my intentions.

On this second weekend of Advent, our parish is packed with a lot of activities. We welcome Sr. Rita jovick, a Sister of the Presentation, who will be speaking at all masses this weekend for the Retreat for the Religious Collection. We have our Homebound Mass this Saturday, celebrating Christmas with our homebound and sick parishioners. Our Youth Group will also be meeting in the evening, following the 5PM mass. Our young people will also get into the groove of this Advent season by packing sandwiches for Saint Vincent de Paul Society.

Everybody is welcome at Holy Name. This Sunday, we give a special welcome to our children in our school and their parents at the 9:30AM School mass. On the other hand, the children from our Religious Education program will receive the grace and forgiveness from the Sacrament of Reconciliation after the 9:30AM mass.

In the afternoon, we welcome guests and performers to our Salve Regina Musica. Now on its second year, sponsored by our BVM Shrine devotees and coordinated by parishioners Ester Aure-Novero and Benny Capuyan.

In the midst of our many activities this Advent, we can still have peace. Peace, remember, is not a trouble-free life, it’s a sense of calm in the midst of life’s storm. Keep the Candle of Peace burning!

A young man dreamt that he had walked into a store where an angel was standing behind the counter. He hastily asked the angel, “What do you sell in this store?”

“Anything, you name it,” said the angel.

So the young man began, saying, “I would like to order the following: a democratic government in Chile, an end to all the wars in the world, a better deal for the marginal nations, the removal of all squatter settlements in South America.”

At this point, the angel interrupted and said, “Excuse me, young man, you did not understand me correctly. We don’t sell fruits and finished products in this store. We sell only seeds.”

There is a seed that’s called forgiveness. If you plant a seed of forgiveness this Advent and every day in your “supposedly” Christian life, you will enjoy the fruit of peace.

Wife is angry as hubby stands too close to a beautiful girl in bus, a few seconds later the girl slaps him for pinching.

Hubby to wife: I swear I didn’t.
Wife: I know, I did it.

Get rid of anger and bitterness this Advent. That’s a good place to start, a good preparation for planting the seed of forgiveness. Be PEACEFUL!

Advent Silence
We are invited to be still and relish the Advent quiet. Advent calls us to be listeners, to hear our own spirit’s longing and the response of a loving God. This exchange occurs in darkness, where nothing can distract us from the sound and sight of God moving in our midst. Just as Mary spoke her fiat with no understanding of what was to come, so too do we open our lives to the unknown ways of of the encounter with Christ.

Advent Recollection Day All parishioners are invited to a day of prayer and reflection during the holy season of Advent. It will be this coming Saturday, December 16, at 9:30AM to 12:00 Noon in the Flanagan Center. Snacks will be served throughout the morning. It will be guided by Canossian Sister Sharon Brannen. The theme of her reflection will be the “Women in the Genealogy of Jesus”. You may want to bring your Bible for reference. Lay Canossians are encouraged to make this day your own Advent retreat day. As we journey throughout this holy season, let us make time to reflect on the Advent practices of Hope, Peace, Joy, Love. Come, Lord Jesu, Come. Maranatha.

Religious Education Library We are in the process of updating the books we have in the library for the use of the children attending our parish’s Religious Education Program. We need the following: Illustrated Bible for Children, Lives of Saints Coloring Book, Spiritual Reading books for children and youth, activity books for Catholic children. Thanks very much for your attention.

Christmas Giving Tree for Pomeroy Center We thank all parishioners who got an ornament from the two trees in the church vestibule. Your gifts are flowing in, beautifully wrapped or packaged in holiday bags. Your generous response is overwhelming! Please bring your gifts before Tuesday, December 12. You may deliver them to the Pastoral Center between 9:00AM and 4:00PM. God’s blessings to you and your family this Advent and Christmas season.
