Happy Thanksgiving!

This weekend, we welcome the Daughters of St. Paul (Religious Sisters) who will be doing their ministry of evangelization through their religious products that will be available for purchase. Stop by their display and find something that can strengthen your spiritual life and guide your spiritual journey. We thank them for making these religious items available for us and most especially for being evangelizers and witnesses of living the faith though the use of mass communication.

The Daughters of St. Paul and all the Religious Sisters are just some of the many people we should be thankful for this Thanksgiving Day.

On Thanksgiving eve, the Canossian Sisters, namely our very own Sr. Cristina, Sr. Angela (St. Brendan), Sr. Sharon (St. Ignatius College Prep) and Sr. Kay, the Provincial Superior, will celebrate a Thanksgiving dinner with us priests at the parish rectory. As some of you already know, they have sold their house in 38th Ave where St. Brendan's convent. They have donated the oratory tabernacle and crucifix from their old house to us and these will have a new home in our new recoty oratory that we are going to bless on Thanksgiving eve. That happens to be the feast of St. Cecilia, the patroness for musicians. So we are grateful for the Canossian Sisters, for their ministry to Holy Name, to our Archdiocese and to the rest of the world.

A 4-year-old boy was asked to return thanks before Thanksgiving dinner. The family members bowed their heads in expectation. He began his prayer, thanking God for all his friends, naming them one by one. Then he thanked God for Mommy, Daddy, brother, sister, Grandma, Grandpa, and all his aunts and uncles. Then he began to thank God for the food. He gave thanks for the turkey, the dressing, the fruit salad, the cranberry sauce, the pies, the cakes, even the Cool Whip.

Then he paused, and everyone waited--and waited. After a long silence, the young fellow looked up at his mother and asked, "If I thank God for the broccoli, won't he know that I'm lying?"

In all things give thanks!

Thank you for participating in our Stewardship Renewal. Let's see everything as a GIFT from God.

God is the Giver. We are the Thanks-Givers.

It would be great if we have an ATTITUDE OF GRATITUDE!

Happy Thanksgiving!

HAPPY & BLESSED THANKSGIVING TO ONE AND ALL!

God, source and giver of all things, we give you thanks on this Thanksgiving Day for the beauty of the whole creation. Help us to be faithful stewards of all that has been given to us. May we reflect what we received to all we meet, especially the less fortunate in our midst.

Thank you to the Holy Name Ladies Aid Society, to Mike Serafian, Melva Aguirre, Pat Relampagos, Cecilia Bermudez and all parishioners who gave donations to the Care Packages for the Homeless project of our Youth Ministry. Thanks again to the Quock family for their donations and for coordinating this monthly activity for the youth of the parish.

Holy Name of Jesus Youth Ministry Mission Statement: We provide activities, events, reflections and discussions that empower the young people to exemplify the teachings of Jesus Christ. This challenges our youth to spread the Word, and to live the values of Christian life and the teachings of the Catholic Church.

Upcoming Activities
Saturday, December 9th 5:00 PM Sunday Vigil Mass
6:00-7:30 PM in the Pastoral Center, for reflection on Advent. Followed by group activity: preparing sandwiches for the poor and homeless, served by St. Vincent de Paul Conference. A simple dinner will be served after the activities.

Advent 2017 Giving Trees This weekend before Thanksgiving, November 18-19, will mark the beginning of Holy Name of Jesus Parish’s annual Giving Trees Project. Ornaments with wishes/gifts will be hanging on trees. We ask parishioners who are willing to donate to sign up after each Mass that weekend. Our Ladies Aid members will be responsible for the sign-ups. This is to help in following up with the donors who picked up an ornament, to make sure all ornaments taken are accounted for. Thank you for your cooperation.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Children and Youth of Catechetical Age The Rite of Acceptance to the Catechumenate will be on the First Sunday of Advent. This is the celebration of the inquirers’ intention to become Catholic and seriously continue the journey of faith toward baptism or full communion with the Church. Preferably, godparents or sponsors are encouraged to participate in the weekly catechetical sessions.

Senior Club will not have Thursday gathering this coming week. Enjoy Thanksgiving Day with your loved ones. Thanks very much for a nice get-together and luncheon last Thursday, it was a fitting anticipation of the Thanksgiving celebration. See you on Nov. 30th!

USING TALENTS If we use God’s talents, we shall find that they become multiplied in the use. We thought we had two; we find we have five. —Richard Meux Benson
The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) was founded in 1970 by the Catholic bishops of the United States as their domestic anti-poverty program. Designed to address the policies and structures that perpetuate poverty to create sustainable solutions, CCHD empowers poor and marginalized people to join together and make decisions to improve their lives and neighborhoods. For example, with your support of the Catholic Campaign for Human Development, El Pájaro Community Development Corporation (CDC) is empowering Latino and Spanish-speaking entrepreneurs like Marleny. Marleny came to the United States from El Salvador, escaping violence and an unsafe situation. She had a dream to start a pupuseria restaurant and to serve traditional Salvadoran food and support her family. She entered the Business Education and Loan Program at El Pájaro CDC and in October 2014 opened Pupuseria Marleny’s. With the support and education she received, her business has been so successful that she has already opened a second restaurant. The restaurants have allowed Marleny to provide gainful employment to five new workers and help revitalize her community. Thank you for your generosity in supporting this special collection. ### COLLECTION TO AID SANTA ROSA DIOCESE WITH FIRE DAMAGE

For those who would like to give monetary donations to the Diocese of Santa Rosa Fire Victims, you can still do so by dropping off your check in a separate envelope in the collection baskets or dropping off or mailing your donation to the Parish Office at 1555 39th Ave, San Francisco, CA 94112 by NOVEMBER 24, 2017—All donations from Holy Name will be forwarded to the Archdiocese. It is still undetermined how many people perished in these fires. Thousands of homes and businesses within the diocese were destroyed. Many people no longer have jobs and nowhere to live. Schools were also destroyed including a major part of Cardinal Newman High School. The Archdiocese will also substantially supplement the money collected from the parishes. Your generosity will help rebuild lives.

Checks for all special collections such as this one should be made out to HOLY NAME OF JESUS CHURCH. In the memo line write the appropriate reference for your donation, for example: Santa Rosa Fire Collection.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

HOLY NAME OF JESUS PARISH SAN FRANCISCO

is a welcoming multicultural and liturgical community that celebrates our Christian Faith. In the spirit of the “Joy of the Gospel” we work together promoting Catholic values and teachings. Our parish encourages a strong devotion to our Blessed Mother Mary, who gives us an example of faithful discipleship and a generous stewardship way of life.

Prayer - Daily Scripture Reading - Reflection

In Fr. Arnold’s homily, he informed us that he has developed a routine of spending more time with the Lord in prayer. Recently, Fr. decided to transform a small room in rectory as an oratory or a prayer room. In addition, he encouraged us to allow ourselves to be nurtured by the Word of God. Let’s consider to follow the Pastor’s commitment as our obligation to spend time on daily prayer through the reading of a scripture on your smartphone and then reflect on it. This can be done while waiting for the bus or, on the bus, or during your lunch time or break time at work.

How does it work? If you are interested to receive the scripture through text or as an email message, please text Rose Tang at 415-793-0967; or email her at rose_lo818@yahoo.com.

THIRTY THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
November 19, 2017

As Catholics we have no problem with the time-bound nature of the Bible. In fact we appreciate it, believing that the scriptures deserve to be read within their context, and also need careful interpretation. And while the Catholic Feminist Association may not choose to have today’s first reading as the opening text at their next convention, we would be mistaken to hear it only in terms of our world today.

The Book of Proverbs is a distillation of sayings and teachings which had grown up over hundreds of years, most probably from Rabbis and Scribes. Its world is a vastly different one to ours. This is clearly seen in the context of the “capable wife.” She is praised for her work with wool, flax, in the vineyard, and in real estate. It’s only in the context of an agrarian society that the power of this text makes sense.

Until quite recently, women in Palestinian society, and in wider society for that matter, were considered the “possessions” of their husbands. They could be bought, sold, divorced, or killed without any appeal to the law. Wives in this society had no legally recognized human rights. They were expected to serve and shut-up.

By contrast, then, this text from the Book of Proverbs, which can seem so old-fashioned to us, was a liberating text in its day. A woman’s right to work is not only defended, but also extolled. She is praised for her creativity, wisdom, goodness, strength, sense of justice, generosity, joy, and faith. In any age and for either gender this is not a bad list of virtues toward which we should all aspire.

And these days of course, through the ongoing revelation of the Spirit, we believe that what the Book of Proverbs expects and praises in a capable wife, we should equally look for in a capable husband.

It is almost possible that Jesus had women in mind when he shared the parable of the talents in today’s Gospel. What can often get lost in the debates about who should be ordained in today’s Church, is that women have always and still “lead” the Church in powerful and long-lasting ways. From the extraordinary abilities of religious and lay women in Catholic welfare, education, healthcare, overseas missions, and theological reflections, to wives and mothers whose daily witness to the fidelity and goodness of God, this all reveals in innumerable ways the power of the parable of the talents. The reality is that if it were not for women’s leadership, commitment and faith, it would be hard to see how the Church could survive. We would not be able to continue almost all of our ministries.

None of this minimizes the pain and hurt some women have experienced at the hands of the Church. Some feel as though their particular contribution to the life of the Church has not been fully realized.

All we can hope and pray for is that we may find ways to use everyone’s talents for the building up of the Kingdom of God, and that we may see that everyone’s contribution, irrespective of gender, is precious, and worthy of praise.
