HOLY NAME SCHOOL 75TH ANNIVERSARY
The Memorabilia Committee is looking for Class Graduation pictures for the following years: ’67-’71, ’75, ’77, ’80, ’82-’84, ’86-’87, ’92-’99
If you or your children have a Class Graduation photo, please contact Colleen at the Parish Office to make arrangements to send in or drop off the photo for scanning. Thanks!
Last week our Preschool Faculty and staff, headed by our Preschool Director Alice Seher, gathered for a sumptuous dinner in thanksgiving for another great year and also to say goodbye to some of their teachers who are not returning next school year: Lauren Kung, Casey Nuckols, Christine Phillips and Amanda Rica. We thank these four wonderful ladies who have contributed to the growth and early education of our very young children.

For the past few weeks, we have been saying goodbyes to a lot of people like Sr. Necy and Sr. Esther, and to a few of our teachers at our HN School. We also say goodbye to those who are vacationing. These are happy goodbyes and there is also a chance that we will see them again.

But there are those goodbyes that bring sadness to our soul and so much pain in our hearts because we will not physically see them again. Last week we lost a school parent and said goodbye to Jim Aguirre who suddenly died at the young age of 54. Jim was a wonderful man, a loving husband to Beth and a loving father to Chelsea (7th grade). We celebrated and honored his wonderful life with a Funeral Mass last Friday.

Bishop Wang also lost his younger sister Claire Wang two weeks ago, at the age of 80. Bishop Wang was scheduled to see her in her hometown in Mongolia, but she died a week before his scheduled flight.

Three of our young students are flying to Krakow, Poland to attend and represent our parish at the 31st World Youth Day scheduled this week. They are Sarah Lawlor, Daniela Sanchez and Alejandra Brito. During the major international World Youth Days in various countries of the world, hundreds of Bishops and Cardinals also attend as catechists. Each day during the World Youth Day week, thousands of young people gather around their bishops and cardinals to hear teachings, “catecheses”, reflections based on the Word of God. The theme of the 31st World Youth Day, Krakow 2016 is “Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy” (Mt 5:7).

I am also flying out to New York this week to attend our annual “Paring Bol-anon USA Reunion and Recollection.” “Paring Bol-anon” are priests from the Bohol province in the Philippines. Our host will be the Apostolic Nuncio to the United Nations, Archbishop Bernardini-Auza.

Archbishop Auza happened to celebrate the 5PM mass at our church on July 9, which was attended by the Howard & Margaret Hagan clan, who were celebrating his 100th birthday in Heaven. Their 8 children, all HN Alumni, and their grandchildren then continued the celebration with a family dinner at the Irish Cultural Center.

There is a celebration in Krakow, in New York and elsewhere. But there is a bigger celebration in heaven for those who have gone ahead of us.

“Are caterpillars good to eat?” asked a little boy at the dinner table.

“No,” said his father. “Why would you ask a question like that?”

“Well, there was one in my salad, but it’s gone now.”

Some people may be gone from our sight, but not in our hearts. Like caterpillars turning into beautiful butterflies, they will also experience a far more beautiful life, an Everlasting Life with God!

Keep Praying

St. Monica, whose feast we celebrate in August, is often known as “the persistent mother.” She watched her oldest son, Augustine, turn his back on his Christian faith.

Monica was exasperated. For years she gave up talking directly to her son on the advice of a local bishop, who told her that it was better to talk to God about Augustine then to Augustine about God.

The mother never gave up praying for her son. Eventually Augustine gave up his wild ways, was baptized, and later ordained and named bishop of Hippo. St. Augustine went on to become one of the Church’s greatest scholars.

Today’s readings address the importance of persistent prayer. Abraham, in spite of trepidation that he is bothering the Lord, continues to ask about the fate of Sodom and Gomorrah. Jesus, in Luke’s Gospel, tells his disciples to “ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you” (Luke 11:9). This is our charge: keep praying.

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time: July 24, 2016

The necessary for well-made prayer immediately precede the teaching of these prescriptions concerning the exterior and interior dispositions as the heathens (Mt 6:6-7). It is interesting to note that in St. Matthew to thy Father in secret.... And when you are praying, speak not much thou shalt pray, enter into thy chamber, and having shut the door, pray soul toward God. In this sense, Jesus instructed His disciples: “When a prayer, for prayer always requires a movement, an elevation of the a certain formula. If this were true, we should have a recitation but not everyone even children, the uneducated, the sick, the weary.... But we pray, say. . . “ (ibid. 11:2). This is enough to make us understand the er. However, Jesus gave it as a formula for vocal prayer: “ When you pray, say this to your Father in secret. And when you pray, do not recite a long series of formulas; say just a few words, because God knows what you need before you ask Him. But when you pray, say: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.” (Mt 6:9-13) This Our Father is certainly the most sublime formula possi- link on the home page.
