During the summer break some of our parish ministries are also on recess. Here are six little stories for you to ponder upon in the quite moments of your break time.

{1} Once, all villagers decided to pray for rain. On the day of prayer all the people gathered, but only one boy came with an umbrella. That's FAITH!

{2} When you throw babies in the air, they laugh because they know you will catch them. That's TRUST!

{3} Every night we go to bed without any assurance of being alive the next morning, but still we set the alarm to wake up. That's HOPE!

{4} We plan big things for tomorrow in spite of zero knowledge of the future. That's CONFIDENCE!

{5} We see the world suffering, but still we get married and have children. That's LOVE!

{6} On an old man’s shirt was written a sentence “I am not 80 years old; I am sweet 16 with 64 years of experience.” That's ATTITUDE!

Have a happy day and live your life like these six stories. When I was a child, I thought nap time was punishment. Now it’s like a mini-vacation.

In the next three weeks, I will be away for a mini-vacation also. I will be in the Philippines for the wedding of my niece, my Grade School reunion celebrating a Sapphire Jubilee, and a music workshop. It looks like it will be another busy “vacation.”

A woman and her husband interrupted their vacation to go to the dentist.

“I want a tooth pulled, and I don't want Novocain because I'm in a big hurry,” the woman said. "Just extract the tooth as quickly as possible, and we'll be on our way."

The dentist was quite impressed. "You're certainly a courageous woman," he said. "Which tooth is it?" The woman turned to her husband and said, "Show him your tooth, dear."

When you are resting or taking a break from the usual stuff you’ve been doing, you can also be busy with something else. You can be relaxing while busy watching movies or checking your Facebook account. Take time to check our Facebook account: https://www.facebook.com/holynamelladiesaidsoc or just search for: holynameofjesussf. You can read the Gospel for the day. I have also started posting my homilies. Check it out!

Great things are not done by impulse but by a series of small things, good works, generosity, and faith in GOD brought together.

Let your hands be so busy catching blessings that you don't have the capacity to hold on to grudges.

Enjoy your Summer!
If ever we needed convincing just how fickle a home town crowd can be, all we have to do is recall what happened around the death of Diana, Princess of Wales. Only two weeks before she died, London papers sold out with headlines which read, “Diana, say No to Dodi”, or “Soap-opera queen flees England to be with Muslim lover”, and “Diana: a national disgrace.” We were told that Diana was mentally ill, spoilt and a scheming temptress.

The death of a 36-year-old mother of two is always an immense tragedy. But who could have predicted that we could change our minds, literally over one Paris night, and come to see that Diana was in fact the “queen of hearts” and a modern icon. How could we have missed that two weeks earlier?

What happened to the memory of Diana is not far from what happened to the memory of Jesus in the earliest Church. In today’s wonderful reading from Mark’s Gospel we would expect to find Jesus’ home town accepting and welcoming him with open arms. Jesus’ ability to teach so well, his wisdom, and deeds of power, however, caused so much offense that the hometown crowd turn on him because he claims too much for himself. Jesus, literally, gets the hell out of there.

The Gospel of Mark, written at the beginning of the persecution of the Christians, finds great consolation in these stories of Jesus’ suffering and rejection. And is it any wonder? The first generation of Christians were being expelled from the synagogue and, no doubt, many of them were experiencing similar rejection from their families and friends. Maybe some of them had to leave town as well. In this context their fate was an identification with that of Jesus. It gave meaning and direction to their plight. It gave them hope.

The experience of rejection, misunderstanding and frustration is also a reality in many of our lives. Even having Christian faith these days can see us derided as fools or pushed out of certain circles. In this context, we can draw on the same hope and courage that has always sustained the Christian community.

On a more worrying level, however, as a community we can run the risk of acting like the residents of Nazareth. No matter how much wisdom, authority or goodness some people demonstrate in our Christian community, it seems some people are told they are not acceptable, we take offense at them and drive them away. Some Catholics have simply walked away from us because our community disbelieves that Christ’s gifts can be manifest through them as well. Nazareth did not value what was in its midst because it thought it knew better.

Today’s Gospel also has a practical impact in our homes, where we don’t get away with very much, and affirmation can be sparingly given. This can be taken to unhealthy extremes when parents and siblings speak highly of their spouse, children, brothers or sisters to everyone except to the person being praised. We are often so worried about a family member “getting a big head” that they never hear from us the encouragement they deserve. As Christians we should look for opportunities to build up and praise those we know and love.

When Diana died it was a bit late for the world to decide she did worthwhile things. It was too late for Nazareth after it rejected Jesus as well. In Mark’s Gospel he never returns there. But it’s not too late for us. May it never be said that we despised wise people who did worthwhile things. It was too late for Nazareth after it rejected Jesus as well.

This Sunday Jesus reminds us that it’s never too late to stop our disbelieving.

HOLY NAME SCHOOL CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

In 1938 the first pastor of Holy Name Parish began going door to door, asking for support to create a Catholic School that would serve the children of San Francisco’s Sunset district. Thanks to Father Ryan’s vision and determination, the Sunset sand dunes were replaced with Holy Name’s foundation that has kept thousands of students safe for decades.

Over the past 76 years building codes and safety standards have continued to change, and we are now faced with the opportunity to strengthen not only the walls of our school, but also the legacy it holds and offers. After undergoing a required phased evaluation by the City of San Francisco, it was determined that Holy Name School could further strengthen its building through a seismic retrofit project.

Just as Father Ryan was excited to campaign in making his dream a reality, so too are we. Though we are strong and steady school, we are excited and ready to move our school forward by meeting the safety standards of our generation.

We hope that you will join us in our Capital Campaign so that we can preserve Holy Name’s traditions and legacy for future generations, just as our past generations have done for us. Together let us keep the hallways of Holy Name School safe for all students—present and future.

OUR GOAL, OUR PROMISE

Our goal is to keep Holy Name School safe for our students and the many that will fill the hallways in the years to come.

Our promise is that we will complete our Seismic Retrofit Project by 2019 so that we can keep our doors open to future generations and preserve the legacy that earlier generations laid for us.
