*The First
Sunday of Lent
March 6, 2022*

*You shall not put the Lord,
your God,
to the test.*

—Luke 4:12

LENT: Our Journey towards Victory and Salvation

This first Sunday of Lent starts on a hopeful and joyful note. The readings bring in view concepts like faith, salvation, and victory over sin. These remind us of the need to praise God for the great wonders he worked for our fathers in faith. Through our participation this Lent God is ready to extend the same wonders to us. The first reading begins with a very brief account from Moses about how God delivered His chosen people Israel from bondage in the land of Egypt. Therefore, this reminds us of our own salvific journey. This Lenten season, we are on a journey to our salvation, and the hope of this salvation must sustain us throughout this season and beyond.

The second reading presents another dimension to this journey towards salvation. It presents faith as a necessary tool which must be manifested through our confessions. Without faith, it will be practically impossible to reach our destination. Faith in this case is the energy that motivates us as we march on. If along this journey this season, we become weary, turning to Jesus is the best option available to us. If we call upon Him in faith, we shall find the strength to continue. We cannot prevail on this journey by our own strength alone.

This season, therefore, we are to be mindful of the fact that temptations abound, just as our Lord was tempted today by the devil in our gospel. It is important to note that the tempter is always looking for a point of contact or weakness. This was why, once he realized that Christ was very hungry, he felt it was an opportunity to use Him. However, the good news is that the devil was wrong, because Christ did not give him the chance to use Him. Hence, the devil cannot succeed with us too if we do not open avenues for him in our lives.

We must not give the devil any chance this season and in our entire lifetime. Therefore, let us close all the avenues during this journey by wearing the sign: “Road Closed or No Vacancy Here!” The avenues that must be closely guarded this season as the temptation of Christ teaches us include: The avenues of hunger and thirst for sin, the avenue of cheap popularity, vainglory, pride, and selfishness. These are obstacles to our spiritual growth, victory, and of course, to our salvation.

As Paul writes: “the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but they are mighty through God for pulling down Strongholds (2 Cor. 10:4). Our weapons this season must include a very strong faith in God, prayer, uprightness, good works, and the word of God. This is because: “We do not fight” (this season only) “against flesh and blood, but against...powers of this dark age...the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realm” (Eph 6, 10-12). Above all, we must allow the Holy Spirit to be in charge by being docile to Him.

—Fr. Celestine Tyowua, Parochial Vicar

Dear Lord Jesus, Servant and Master, Bringer of Peace and Reconciliation, with deep sorrow and concern, we cry out to you for the beginnings of this war now occurring in Ukraine. We long for you to arrest this violence and destruction, to bring this war to a just end, and for your protection for all innocent victims and everyone directly involved in military action, in Ukraine and in Russia. Lord, in your mercy. Amen

Our Blessed Lady Queen of Peace, pray for us.

Thank You for Your Generosity!

From Ash Wednesday on, the 40 days of preparation leading up to Easter is called Lent. Lent is a Middle English word that means "spring."

This season is meant to be a season of spiritual refreshing. I love this season because it invites us to reflect in the direction of our life and if we don't like where we are heading, we can make a positive change.

It's also an opportunity for us to grow spiritually and as a community. So we have included some activities on the cover of this bulletin to help us do that this Lent. We invite you to join us in one or more of these activities to help us grow, to help us sink deeper roots in deeper roots in our faith and community, and to help us renew our faith. Happy Lent!

- Fr. Dan

Thank you Holy Name students & parents for your help at the Outer & Inner Sunset cleanup on Saturday, March 5 & for kicking off our Laudato Si Lenten service!
