Happy Father’s Day!

FAZtor’s Notes
By Fr. Arnold Zamora

Happy Father’s Day! It’s a day to thank our Heavenly Father for the beauty of his creation including you and me, but especially the fathers of this world whose special day we celebrate this Sunday. It’s certainly a special day to thank our earthly fathers for the love and care they have for family. It will be easy to thank them when you think of the beautiful memories and happy moments with them.

There will always be some misunderstandings and arguments within the family members, but someday we can turn them into beautiful memories and happy moments. Like when my mom was mad at my dad and she started lecturing him while he was just sitting quietly listening to her. After my mom’s long sermon, my dad told me: “Son, can you start singing the Offertory Song, I will do the collection.”

My best wish for my dad is for him to rest peacefully and enjoy his eternal life in the presence of our God the Father. For those of you whose dads are still alive, cherish every moment with them. Remember to pray for them and give them your best wishes.

Continue to pray for the “fathers” of the church, your priests, especially from the Archdiocese of San Francisco. This is a month for their annual retreat and spiritual nourishment. Last week, from Monday to Friday, Fr. Toan joined the first batch of clergy at Vallombrosa Retreat Center in Menlo Park and this week will be my turn.

I saw a lot of fathers, so proud of their little children graduating from Preschool on last Friday. Ryan Hall was almost packed with families, relatives and friends attending the graduation rite of the thirty eight (38) preschoolers transitioning to Kindergarten next school year. As usual, they were so adorable as they sang some songs and one group danced a Tango and another a slow waltz. The hard work, effort and commitment of their teachers and the support of their parents were equally laudable. Our Preschool has been thriving under Director Alice Seher, growing exponentially and has been making a difference in the lives of these kids and their families, as well as to our parish and our neighborhood. The existence and operation of our Preschool has contributed much to our parish financial viability. “Well done, good and faithful Steward.”

A preschooler asked: “Dad, are bugs good to eat?”
“Let’s not talk about such things at the dinner table, son,” his father replied.
After dinner the father inquired, “Now, son, what did you want to ask me?”
“Oh, nothing,” the boy said. “There was a bug in your soup, but now it’s gone.”

We always ask children to listen to their parents. But parents should also listen to their children. Most of the time, we always want our Heavenly Father to listen to us, but we rarely listen to him. Be glad and thankful we have a Father who always listens to us.

Happy Father’s Day!!
The story of the beloved patron of hopeless situations comes to life in this epic film starring Vittoria Belvedere (Pope John Paul II, The Apocalypse) and Martin Crewes. Rita is a young woman who longs to enter the convent, but when she meets Paolo, a handsome knight, she accepts his offer of marriage. Her new family isn't as welcoming as she would wish, and soon she finds that her husband's brothers are involved in violence and murder. Determined to reform her husband, Rita succeeds in winning him over. She and Paolo are blessed with two sons and living happily when tragedy strikes...and Rita loses everything. Set against the turbulent background of 15th century Italy, this story of forgiveness, faith, and virtue is an inspiring tribute to this brave, saintly woman.

Our Parish Faith Formation programs and activities seek to provide opportunities for children, youth, young adult and adults to deepen and share their faith within the parish community.

Children’s Religious Formation is about a relationship with Jesus Christ. It’s not simply learning “about” God, but a time to introduce God and to experience God’s love through: Prayer, Bible Study and Faith-sharing, liturgy, and community.

Our programs are as varied as the age groups we serve:

For children beginning each year in late August to May: Catechesis is offered for children who are six (6) years old through eighth grade, which includes Sacramental Preparation for First Reconciliation, First Eucharist, and Youth Confirmation.

Children’s Liturgy of the Word every Sunday at 9:30 am Mass is offered to all children from Under 5 to fifth grade.

Youth Ministry is offered for youth who are in 7th through 12th grade, every Sunday at 1:00 pm – 3:00 pm.

For young adults/adults: We offer the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA); Bible Class and Faith-sharing, Listening sessions about certain topics, retreats, parish missions and prayer devotions.

Religious Education and RCIA registration started on June 1, 2016. Please pick up the form at the back of the church or download from our website. Completed forms could be dropped to the Parish Office or submit to Sr. Necy during weekend Masses.

For details, please call Sr. Necy at 415-664-8590 or email: nguan@holynamesf.org

Reflections on Father’s Day 2015: Don’t Forget, It’s Not About You

By John McCormick, Author, ‘Dad, Tell Me a Story’

As I write this article the week after Father’s Day, I’m thinking about a day several years ago when I discovered something important about fatherhood. My now 16-year-old son Will was three, and we’d been playing with his toy dinosaurs on the floor for a few hours. “Son, I’ve got to do some work-work now,” I told him, using Will’s term for my office work. “You play by yourself for a while, okay?”

“Okay, Dad.” Will looked at me with the all-knowing smile of a three-year-old. Without missing a beat he added, “Now, will you play with me some more?”

His answer hit me like a Zen koan, a response intended to demonstrate the inadequacy of logical reasoning and to provoke enlightenment. Enlightened, I was. It occurred to me in that instant that no matter what I did in my career, no matter what contribution I could make to my profession, nothing would ever be as important as sitting on the floor playing games with my son for as long as he liked.

And that’s what I did. I put off my “work-work,” and stayed in the moment playing dinosaurs with Will. As my wife often tells me, when you’re a parent, it’s not about you. Ever since, I’ve tried to live on the family side of the work/family balance.

What followed were long afternoons sitting in the hot sun at baseball games I thought would never end, hours watching lacrosse practices on cold, damp March mornings, and even longer evenings helping with (and stressing over) homework. Weekends where I spent more time chauffeuring than relaxing became the norm. But I never minded. Spending precious moments with my sons meant so much more to me than missed golf outings, extra workouts at the gym, or lazing on the couch watching football games. And work rarely entered the equation, except when it had to. I learned that oft-quoted saw is really true—when you grow old, you’ll never remember those extra hours you spent at the office, but you will remember the extra time spent with your kids.

But this Father’s Day was a first for me. Will was away from home on a high school community service trip, and his younger brother Connor spent the week at a sports camp. Both called or texted me on Father’s Day, but it wasn’t the same as cooking dinner together around the barbecue, enjoying a movie afterwards, or even sitting on the floor like we used to, playing games. And I saw the writing on the wall.

I got a glimpse for the first time of what it will be like to be an empty nester. Connor starts high school this fall, and in two years Will is off to college. If Father’s Day 2015 is any predictor, I’ll be a complete mess, lavishing my pent-up paternal affections on the family dogs. Or maybe not. As usual, my wife’s calming influence and advice have centered me. Don’t forget, it’s not about you. In the past, to be a good father, I needed to be there for my boys no matter how busy or distracted I felt. Now that they’re older, things are shifting. To be a good dad today means giving them less of me, and giving my children more time to explore or find new adventures by themselves. But I’m confident our shared past has shown them I’ll always be here in case they need someone to talk to or guide them. Whether they’ll be home for Father’s Day 2016, or for the years after that, I take comfort in knowing that wherever they might be, I’ll always be their dad.
