TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — The man and the woman ate the fruit of the one tree that God had told them to avoid, and their shame overtook them (Genesis 2:7-9; 3:1-7).

Psalm — Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned (Psalm 51).

Second Reading — Death reigned from Adam to Moses, but now grace and life abound in Christ Jesus (Romans 5:12-19 [12, 17-19]).

Gospel — Jesus was led into the desert by the Spirit and there he fasted for forty days and forty nights (Matthew 4:1-11).

Parish Mission Statement

HOLY NAME OF JESUS PARISH SAN FRANCISCO is a welcoming multicultural and liturgical community that celebrates our Christian Faith. In the spirit of the "Joy of the Gospel" we work together promoting Catholic values and teachings. Our parish encourages a strong devotion to our Blessed Mother Mary, who gives us an example of faithful discipleship and a generous stewardship way of life.

Welcome to Holy Name!

We are a Stewardship Parish!

If you worship with us each week or are new to our neighborhood, please register online at: http://holynamesf.org/parishregistration. You will be on our mailing list and let us know you are willing to support your parish though your time, talent and treasure – the privilege of every Catholic.

This weekend is no ordinary weekend. This Saturday is the last day of the month of February and this Sunday is the first day of the new month of March. It is a weekend of ending and beginning. It is a weekend spanning two months.

This Saturday is not the ordinary ending for February, since it is a Leap Day or Leap Year Day that only happens every four years. I have some friends whose birthdays are either February 28 or March 1. I wonder who among these friends of mine were actually born on February 29 and just moved their birthdays to either February 28th or March 1st.

This Sunday is no ordinary beginning for March either since it is the First Sunday of Lent - out of the Ordinary Time in our Church Calendar. At the start of month of March, we are "marching in the light of God" towards the glory of Easter.

We can look at this weekend as ending our old bad habits and starting a renewed life. It is a weekend to take a leap of faith and to march for joy.

Rightly so as we continue our Stewardship journey with another series of Stewardship workshops starting this Saturday, Fr. John Piderit will be sharing with us about Joy, Beauty and Virtue for the first session and Love, the Cross and the Mass for the next session. It is leaping and marching as we take the Four Steps to make Stewardship, your Way of Life! And it’s no ordinary way of life. It is a better and wonderful way of life.

A few weeks ago, I celebrated my birthday. Last Sunday, we also celebrated Bishop Wang’s birthday, although his actual birthday is February 27th. Another year has been added to our ages. Now, a new month is fast approaching, leaping and marching. I read this on one of my friend’s posts:

1. BEFORE: Long Hair
   NOW: Longing for Hair
2. BEFORE: Enjoying Beer Joints
   NOW: Suffering from aching Joints
3. BEFORE: Enjoying the music of the Rolling Stones
   NOW: Suffering from Kidney Stones
4. BEFORE: Frequenting Beer Gardens
   NOW: Surveying Memorial Gardens
5. BEFORE: Always visiting his favorite hospital girl
   NOW: Always visiting his favorite hospital.

Well, it’s just for fun! And we will have more fun next weekend at our annual St. Patrick’s Dinner. Don’t miss the fun! Get your tickets now or buy a table.

Here’s my prayer for you as we leap and march ahead:
Dear God,
It's another month again.
For the person reading this, I pray for a beautiful life.
A life guided by a beautiful mind.
A life enjoyed by a beautiful heart.
And a life renewed by a beautiful Spirit.
And despite the pains and hardships in our lives, thank You LORD for giving us faith and strength.
Thank you for your presence LORD.
