FAZtor’s Notes:
By: Fr. Arnold Zamora

It’s vacation time! Our school is on summer break and so is our Religious Education program. Our Fellowship and Hospitality gathering after the 9:30 AM mass was supposed to go on recess for the summer too. But our incoming 8th grade parents are holding a fundraising effort to support the 8th Grade Class of 2020’s field trip to Washington, D.C., which has now become an annual activity in the school. They will be selling baked goods, but giving out coffee for free. Enjoy the coffee and please support our 8th graders.

I like this message… Felt like sharing...

“No matter who you are, how experienced you are, and how knowledgeable you think you are, always delay judgement. Give others the privilege to explain themselves. What you see may not be the reality. Never conclude for others. Which is why we should never only focus on the surface and judge others without understanding them first. Those who like to pay the bill, do not do so because they are wealthy, but because they value friendship above money. Those who take the initiative at work, do not do so because they are not intelligent, but because they understand the concept of responsibility. Those who apologize first after a fight, do not do so because they are necessarily wrong, but because they value the people around them. Those who are willing to help you, do not do so because they owe you anything, but because they see you as a true friend. Those who often text you, do not do so because they have nothing better to do, but because you are in their heart. Those who take the time to chat with you do not do so because they are jobless or less busy, but they know the importance of keeping in touch. One day, all of us will be separated from each other; we will miss our conversations about everything & nothing; the dreams that we had. Days will pass by, months, years, until this contact becomes rare…

One day our children will see our pictures and ask ‘Who are these people?’ And we will smile with invisible tears because a heart is touched with a strong word and you will say: “IT WAS WITH THEM THAT I HAD THE BEST DAYS OF MY LIFE.”

Teacher: Clyde, your composition on “My Dog” is exactly the same as your brother’s. Did you copy his?

Clyde: No, sir; it’s the same dog.

Wise, clever, smart, you might say. But these are the little things that make us smile.

I received this text message which is really worth pondering over: “Strange how people can be so preoccupied with a life they can’t hold on to, and neglect an eternity they can’t run away from.”

Yes, time is passing. Eternity is waiting.
