FAZtor's Notes

By Fr. Arnold Zamora

The Second Sunday of Easter has always been known as Doubting Thomas Sunday because the Gospel for this particular Sunday talks about Thomas doubting the apostle's testimony about Jesus rising from the dead. In 2000, however, upon the canonization of Sr. Faustina Kowalska, Saint Pope John Paul II officially designated the first Sunday after Easter as the Divine Mercy Sunday.

Sr. Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun, reported visions and visitations from Jesus and conversations with Him. He asked her to paint the vision of His Merciful Divinity being poured from His sacred heart and specifically asked for a feast of Divine Mercy to be established on the first Sunday after Easter so mankind would take refuge in Him.

Calling this Sunday a Doubting Thomas Sunday has faded as this Sunday has become known and widely celebrated now as the Divine Mercy Sunday. It's quite symbolic of Thomas's doubt that faded as he made an assent of faith through his declaration: "My Lord and My God!" Now we bring ourselves unto the Divine Mercy of God as we make our own profession: "Jesus, I trust in You!"

As I trust in the mercy of God's goodness and kindness, I also trust the goodness and kindness of our parishioners who have supported our church all these years. There were projects in past that seemed impossible to accomplish, like the Church bathroom and the repair of the church organ that entailed a huge sum for its completion. Now people are enjoying the convenient use of the bathroom and the sound of the Church organ once again, considered by organists as one of the best sounding instruments in the Bay Area. On April 30th at 2:00 PM, we will have our first Organ Concert featuring Mario Ballestrieri. Mr. Ballestrieri is currently the Music Director at St. Brendan Church, but has played music in different churches and is a well sought after organist at St. Mary's Cathedral. Hear the works of Johann Sebastian Bach played on the organ; it will be fun afternoon listening to the magnificent sound. Please come and enjoy, it's a FREE Concert!

I also trust that someday we will be successful with our Youth Ministry. So, I won't give up hope and will trust in the Lord's work for the youth. We will be moving our Youth Ministry to Saturday after the 5PM mass. We will start this Saturday, April 29th with a cookout in the San Lorenzo garden, just behind our rectory. Please encourage your teenagers 12-18 years old to join. It's FREE! The food this Saturday is also FREE. For sure there will be a LONG LINE, it's called BARBE-QUEUE!

After coming from a parish cook out, a husband was standing on the bathroom scales, desperately holding his stomach in.

His wife, thinking he was trying to reduce his weight, remarked: "I don't think that will help."

"It does," he said. "It's the only way I can read the numbers!"

You may think that the little things you do for parish don't make any difference, but they matter. Most worthwhile achievements are the result of the many little things. Little things make big things happen.

BLESSED DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Reflection: "Jesus Christ is the face of the Father's mercy. These words might well sum up the mystery of the Christian faith. Mercy has become living and visible in Jesus of Nazareth, reaching its culmination in him. We need constantly to contemplate the mystery of mercy. It is a well-spring of joy, serenity, and peace." -Pope Francis
