LENT 2019

MARCH 24, 2019

Third Sunday of Lent

God called out to Moses from the burning bush and said, "Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground."

FAZtor's Notes

by Fr. Arnold Zamora

This weekend, Saturday, March 23rd, to be exact, is our School Live and Silent Auction entitled "An Evening Under the Stars." The parent organizers of this event describe it as an Adult-Only evening, complete with fabulous passed appetizers, cocktails, music, and dancing that will raise money to benefit our school. All proceeds will fund Holy Name School's Enrichment Programs that include our Art, PE, Library, Music, Technology, and Foreign Language offerings that our students get excited about every day.

The auction reminds me of two stories. First is this: One day a man went to an auction. While there, he bid on a parrot. He really wanted this bird, so he got caught up in the bidding. He kept on bidding, but kept getting outbid, so he bid higher and higher and higher. Finally, after he bid way more than he intended, he won the bid - the parrot was his at last!

As he was paying for the parrot, he said to the auctioneer, "I sure hope this parrot can talk. I would hate to have paid this much for it, only to find out that he can't talk!"

"Don't worry," said the auctioneer, "He can talk. Who do you think kept bidding against you?"

The second story is this:

An old, dusty violin was up for auction. Its starting price was a mere $3.00 only. Despite it being cheap, nobody was attracted to it. From nowhere, an old, grey-haired man approached the violin, held it up, dusted it, and started to play music with it.

The old, grey-haired man and the old and dusty violin soon filled the whole auction hall with sweet, enchanting music. When the man finished the piece, the price of the old, dusty violin started to jump to thousands of dollars.

What transformed the old and dusty violin? What is the reason for the sudden rise in the bidding? Myra Brooks Welch answers: "The touch of the master's hand."

In the hands of the old maestro, the old and dusty violin became new again. In his hands, any kind of violin could produce enchanting music. That which is neglected is treasured again. "One man's trash is another man's treasure."

When I was a kid, one of my favorite tales was about a man whose touch was likewise truly amazing. He was King Midas. Everything he touched became gold. However, he was not real. Jesus, instead, is very real. Whatever and whoever Jesus touches become more precious than gold. How about us – are we real, too? And what become of those we touch?

I was about to ask how long have we been doing this auction. Then I remembered that it started when I came to Holy Name. Not that I started the auction, but it just happened to start the year I started my ministry here at Holy Name. That was ten years ago. I hope and pray I have been able to touch your life after having been your servant-leader for the past 10 years.

Always open your heart to reveal your beautiful soul and let your gentle footprints of kindness make a lifetime soft imprints in the hearts of others.

REMEMBER...

*Touching someone's life is a privilege;
*Touching someone's heart is a blessing;
*Touching someone' s soul is a triumph; and
*Touching someone's spirit is a miracle.

REFLECTION DURING LENT

"Dear brothers and sisters, the Lenten period of forty days spent by the Son of God in the desert of creation had a goal of making it once more the garden of communion with God that it was before original sin. May our Lent this year be a journey along that same path, bringing the hope of Christ also to creation, so that it may be "set free from its bondage to decay and obtain the glorious freedom of the children of God." (Romans 8:21). Let us not allow this season of grace to pass in vain! Let us ask God to help us set out on a path of true conversion. Let us leave behind our selfishness and self absorption, and turn to Jesus' Pasch. Let us stand beside our brothers and sisters in need, sharing our spiritual and material goods with them. In this way, by concretely welcoming Christ's victory over sin and death into our lives, we will also radiate its transforming power to all creation."
Pope Francis, Message for Lent 2019

Take advantage of these Lenten Practices in our Parish:

- Confession is offered every Tuesday 6:00-8:00PM in the chapel of the Pastoral Center
- Tuesday Bible Reflection on Sunday Liturgical readings, 10:00-11:00AM in the Pastoral Center. Those who attend find this weekly faith sharing group very helpful to grow in their spiritual life.
- Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in the chapel, 9:30AM-12:00Noon, closing with Benediction, every Wednesday.
- Rosary of the Seven Sorrows of our Blessed Mother, at 8:30AM every Friday, in the chapel
- Friday Stations of the Cross in the Church at 6:00PM, followed by soup supper
- Rice Bowl Lenten offering for the poor – contact Sr. Cristina for more information.
- Spiritual reading books and religious films are available in our lending library in the Pastoral Center

Where Are They Going? In the early Church, only those who had been fully initiated into the faith were allowed to remain at Mass after the Liturgy of the Word. This is why for centuries the first part of the Mass was also known as the "Mass of the Catechumens". In that spirit, many parishes today "dismiss" catechumens, and sometimes candidates, after the Liturgy of the Word. They are not sent out into the street, however. Accompanied by RCIA catechist, they go to reflect on the Scriptures that have been proclaimed, in order to be more deeply formed in the faith. Happening on the Third, Fourth, Fifth Sundays of Lent.

Register for 2019-2020 RCIA and Religious Education Classes
Calling all children, youth, and adults who want to be baptized, receive the sacraments of confirmation and Holy Eucharist. You need a full year to prepare for these sacraments of Christian Initiation. Classes will begin in September 2019. Contact Sr. Cristina's office to register. Parents: we need your collaboration in this important part of your children's life.

THANK YOU VERY MUCH!

MID-LENT CHECK-IN

God says to Moses, "This is what you shall tell the Israelites: I AM sent me to you . . . The Lord, the God of your [ancestors], the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob" (Exodus 3:14, 15). As Jesus would later say, God is not a God of the dead, but of the living, and so we believe that the dead will one day rise. At this midpoint of Lent, we pause to consider how our repentance is leading us to the Resurrection, to our reunion with the great "I AM." Part of our repentance involves working to secure justice for all and helping our neighbor to live in God's ways. We encourage each other and nurture each other, like the compassionate gardener of today's Gospel, who tells the owner of the orchard that he will nurture the tree, fertilize it, and perhaps it will bear fruit.

HOLY NAME SCHOOL

A PRESCHOOL AND K-8 CATHOLIC SCHOOL IN SAN FRANCISCO

Dear Holy Name Parishioners,

I hope you are all doing well and enjoying the beautiful weather. Thank you so much for supporting our Auction this weekend- we are so appreciative of your ongoing support.

It is hard to believe that it is already the end of March! This month has been a busy one! Our 2nd graders received their First Communion and Special Blessing, and they had such a wonderful day celebrating our faith. Our 4th graders enjoyed a three day overnight trip to Gold Camp where they were able to experience life as a miner. Our 7th graders returned from their week long Outdoor Education Week at Caritas Camp, and our 8th Graders left for Washington D.C. and Philadelphia to learn first hand about our nation's history. Thank you for keeping our students in your prayers during all their trips! Holy Name students are able to experience so many different things during their nine years, and it would truly not be possible without your support and prayers. THANK YOU!

Our students are enjoying their Lenten season and we hope that you will join us at the school-sponsored Stations of the Cross on Holy Thursday, April 18th.

Have a blessed week!

Sincerely,
Natalie Cirigliano, Principal
