NOVEMBER 24, 2019 • OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe November 24, 2019

I rejoiced because they said to me,
“We will go up to the house of the LORD.” — Psalm 122:1

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The Lord said to David, “You shall shepherd my people Israel” (2 Samuel 5:1-3).
Psalm — Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord (Psalm 122).
Second Reading — Thanks to the Father who has made you fit to share in the inheritance of the holy ones in light (Colossians 1:12-20).
Gospel — Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom (Luke 23:35-43).

CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

Give to the Catholic Campaign for Human Development

This weekend dioceses across the United States will take up the collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. When you participate in this collection, you help groups of low-income people in your diocese and across the country in their efforts to provide access to affordable housing, health care, jobs, employee-owned businesses, and rights for immigrants. By supporting CCHD, you help out your own neighbors, because 25 percent of your contribution stays within your own diocese!

ACE COLLECTION

Next Sunday's Second Collection is the ACE COLLECTION for the benefit of our Parish School. Your generosity is very much appreciated by our school children.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

HOLY NAME OF JESUS PARISH SAN FRANCISCO is a welcoming multicultural and liturgical community that celebrates our Christian Faith. In the spirit of the “Joy of the Gospel” we work together promoting Catholic values and teachings. Our parish encourages a strong devotion to our Blessed Mother Mary, who gives us an example of faithful discipleship and a generous stewardship way of life.

FAZtor's Notes:

By: Fr. Arnold Zamora

We celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King this Sunday. This marks the end of the Liturgical Year of the Church. There are three cycles in the Church Calendar, Year A, Year B and Year C.

The beginning of the Liturgical Year is the First Sunday of Advent, which is next week and we will restart the cycle with Year A.

I see the wisdom of the church for putting the Feast of Christ the King on the last Sunday of the Liturgical Year. Our end should be celebrating Christ to rule as the king of life. When the end of our life in this world comes, it should be with Christ in heaven.

A king is always royalty and associated with being rich. Christ of course is a different king. He was not born in a royal palace but in a poor manger. He did not wear a crown. Well, his crown was the crown of thorns. His throne was the cross. His kingdom is not on earth, His kingdom is in heaven. He was a king not just for the rich, but also for the poor and even for the homeless.

The month of November is a month to pray for our deceased loved ones and all the souls in purgatory and that includes the homeless. This is the second year the Archdiocese of San Francisco is marking the month of prayer for All Souls with a special Mass to pray for the homeless faithful departed. Our Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone will offer the Mass at 11AM this Saturday, November 23, at the Church of the Visitacion in San Francisco.

Valerie Schmalz, Director of Human Life & Dignity of our Archdiocese, provided us these statistics: that in 2018 the city reported 135 people died without "any fixed address," whether in the hospital, their cars, a shelter, or on the street. The 2019 Point in Time Homeless Count reported a 17 percent increase in total homelessness since 2017. The count, conducted from 8 p.m. to midnight January 24, found 8,011 individuals experiencing homeless, and 5,180 living unsheltered within the square miles of San Francisco proper.

We thank the Office of Human Life and Dignity for initiating this Mass for the Homeless Faithful Departed in 2018, inspired in part by the death and life of Thomas Myron Hooker, a homeless man who lived in the inner Richmond and who was always seen at Star of the Sea Church. Everybody knew Thomas. One thing I remember about him is that he also put money to the collection basket. He basically had none, but he was still able to give. If you cannot attend the mass, please offer some prayers for the departed souls of the homeless.

I received a thank you letter from the Mission Office for our generous World Mission Sunday 2019 contribution of $2,552.97. Thank you for supporting the missions and being a part of the missionary work with your contribution and especially with your prayers.

With gratefulness in my heart, I will wish you "A Happy Thanksgiving Day!" in advance. This year will be a different celebration, with the absence of our school children on Thanksgiving Day at the 9 AM Mass. The school will celebrate its own Thanksgiving Day this Tuesday, November 26th to give the whole school a chance to celebrate together. So, the 9 AM mass this Tuesday will be in the church with the whole school community present.

"The Thanksgiving holiday brings Americans of all races and religions together to fight over discounted electronics."

Today, let us have another moment of thanksgiving for all that we have and the joy to share the goodness of God with others.

A Thanksgiving Table Prayer

"Loving God, giver of the harvest and source of life, we all stand together grateful. This year has brought us life, especially (name the blessings you received). We are grateful for the circle of life. We have tasted the bounty of the earth, and bow our heads in praise and thanks. In all these things we have known your hand among us as keeper and protector, provider and teacher. We have known your ways in the rising sun and the stars of night. We have seen your truth in the embrace of one another. And we are altogether grateful. Amen."

HAPPY AND BLESSED THANKSGIVING DAY TO ONE AND ALL!

Youth Ministry The service projects for the month of November were: 1) making Rosaries to be given as gifts to the sick and home-bound parishioners, and those who will be at Mass on December 8th. Thanks to Margaret Costello who provided the materials. 2) Putting together care packages to be given to the homeless, who are served by St. Agnes Parish. Thanks to parishioners and school parents who donated toiletries, socks, pocket tissues, etc. May God's blessings be upon you and your family.

New schedule for Youth Ministry Youth Mass will be every first Sunday of the month at 9:30AM. Thanks to Tri Nguyen and youth choir for their cooperation. This will start on December 1, 2019, the First Sunday of Advent. The next activity will be a Christmas get-together for the Youth Ministry and Altar Servers. It will be on Saturday, Dec. 14, after the 5:00PM Mass. The party will be in the Flanagan Center.

A Pledge to Pray for Vocations Through the "Invisible Monastery" Some parishioners have already pledged to participate in this committed group. It can be part of your Stewardship of Prayer commitment. Members of the Invisible Monastery pray daily or weekly, offering Mass intentions, rosaries, holy hours, or any other type of prayer the members choose. When you enroll at invisiblemonastery.com you pledge to pray for vocations to priesthood and consecrated life. Prayer pamphlets are available at the entrance to our chapel. Thank you.

Lay Canossians Our heartfelt gratitude to all who supported our Bake Sale last weekend. Your generosity will be extended to the various missions of the Canossian Sisters in Albuquerque, New Mexico and in Chihuahua, Mexico, as well as assistance to our retired Sisters, some of whom served here at Holy Name for many years. Muchas Gracias! Grazie mille!

You are invited to know more about the lay faithful who live the Charism and spirituality of St. Magdalene of Canossa, with the Canossian Sisters. We welcome you to the monthly meeting, every first Sunday at 2:00-4:00PM in the Flanagan Center. For more information, you may ask Jim Regan, Angela Testani, Susan Logan, Ana Regan or Sr. Cristina (Lay Canossians' Spiritual Director).

YOUR HEALTH MATTERS!

"Doing the Tango"

You have heard it say, "It takes two to Tango". Did you ever think about "doing the Tango" with your doctor? Just like doing the Tango takes 2 people, so doesn't having good conversation/communication with your doctor.

Let's face it, now a days; our doctors are "on the clock" so to speak. So let's make every moment count during your doctor's appointment. Before going to see your doctor, regardless of the nature for your appointment- be prepared. Make a list of things that you want to discuss with him/her. Make a list of the medications, prescribed and over-the-counter ones that you're taking, or even better yet, bring them with you. You know that they all ask for it, no matter if you just saw your doctor a month ago. They have to ask you each and every time about what medications you're taking because it's the law! It's called Medication Reconciliation. The Joint Commission that accredits hospitals requires them to do it, whether you're seeing your primary care physician or a specialist.(note + My friend who is a paramedic says that everyone should carry a list of their medications and drug allergies and place it into their wallet, behind their photo I.D. A lot of times when someone needs to call 911-they may become unconscious or in other ways, not able to state what meds they're taking, and having this list can save their lives).Also, let your doctor know if you decide to take any "traditional" herbal remedies. They may cause adverse reactions with the medications that your doctor has ordered for you.

One of the questions you may want to ask your doctor is: "Is there anything I can do to lower my blood pressure besides taking medication? Like limiting the amount of sodium in my foods"? Ask your doctor why you are taking these medications. Be an informed patient as to any diagnosis/condition that you have. Knowledge is power. Don't feel embarrassed if you don't understand your doctor. Ask him/her to repeat it and make sure that you understand everything before leaving the office. Keep your appointments! If you are told that you need to see a specialist, take another person with you. It always helps to have another "pair of ears" to hear what they have to say. The other person can also take some notes during your visit with the specialist, and after your appointment, your friend or family can go over the notes with you. Lastly, do not decide on your own to stop any medications without consulting your physician. You can't "do the Tango" alone.

To your health,
Angela Testani R.N.

Giving Thanks

"When you sit down to eat, pray. When you eat bread, do so thanking Him for being so generous to you. If you drink wine, be mindful of Him who has given it to you for your pleasure and as a relief in sickness. When you dress, thank Him for His kindness in providing you with clothes. When you look at the sky and the beauty of the stars, throw yourself at God's feet and adore Him who in His wisdom has arranged things in this way. Similarly, when the sun goes down and when it rises, when you are asleep or awake, give thanks to God, who created and arranged all things for your benefit, to have you know, love and praise their Creator."

— St. Basil the Great

Grandpa's Idea of True Thanksgiving

A family had gathered for a Thanksgiving dinner and as the meal drew to a close, the youngest member of the group, a little girl of six asked her grandfather if he had enjoyed his turkey. "Of course dear," her grandfather replied, "I love turkey." "In fact," he said, "I try to have a little turkey every day!" The young girl was confused; did her grandpa mean he ate turkey every day? The grandfather smiled and began to explain, just as he had once explained to this young girl's brothers and sisters, and to her parents years before.

Thanksgiving Day is such a nice idea, grandfather had explained, that he figured it ought to be celebrated for more than just a single day. So each day he would set aside some time to count his blessings and offer God a prayer of thanks. But he didn't stop there.

Praying was one thing, but he felt he must DO something, and so each day he tried to set aside some money for the needy, or give of his time or talents to his church or its members. This was grandpa's idea of the true Thanksgiving spirit to give generously of his treasure, time, and talent.

At this point the young girl's mother said that what her grandfather was talking about was called Christian stewardship. "That's right," her grandfather replied, "most folks call it stewardship, but I call it having a little turkey every day."

Grandfather had the right idea. We say thanks because we recognize God's gifts as gifts and we see not only the gifts, but the actions of the giver to us. In nurturing our spirit of thanksgiving, our interest turns to the presence of the giver, rather than the gifts.
