FORGIVENESS Nearly ten years before, a son and father had parted ways when the business they shared went bankrupt. The son blamed the father. They did not speak to each other again.

Then the father became seriously ill. The mother called the son and told him he had better come soon.

The son walked sheepishly into the hospital room. The father motioned his son to him and whispered: "Did you ever think you could do anything that would keep me from loving you?"

Resentment and anger are foul things, the first reading from Sirach tells us. Remember the last things. Stop hating. Live by the commandments. As St. Paul writes to the Romans, we are to live for the Lord and die for the Lord.

Jesus' parable in today's Gospel reminds us of God's compassion. The immense sin of humanity has been forgiven and stricken from the record. We are to forgive others in the same way.

Pastor's Column

By Fr. Dan Nascimento

SF Reopening Plans – On Sep 1, 2020, Mayor London Breed announced further reopening of businesses and activities. They are being cautious and continuing a gradual reopening process. The following is what will be allowed for Places of Worship and Schools:

- From Sept 1, we will be allowed to hold indoor funerals for up to 12 people.
- By mid-September, up to 50 people may gather outdoors for worship. And indoors, 1 person at a time will be allowed to enter for individual prayer. For schools, in-classroom learning will be opened from Transitional Kindergarten (TK) to 6th grade on a rolling basis, with an approved health and safety plan.
- By the end of September, we may be allowed to hold indoor masses again for up to 25 people; or up to 50 people outdoors.
- By October, middle schools (grades 7-8) will be allowed to return to in-person learning on a rolling basis, with an approved health and safety plan.
- And by November, high schools will be allowed to return to in-person learning on a rolling basis and with approved health and safety plan.

The Mayor emphasized that these are the current reopening plans but if the virus infection increases again, these dates may be delayed. As of September 4, the daily infection rate is 70 per day. While this number is an improvement from a high of 131 cases per day back on July 20, however it is still higher than the high on April 11 with an infection rate of only 48 per day. So let's continue to do our part remembering to keep our social distance even when we are wearing our masks and keeping our hands sanitized. I'm grateful to the Reopening Committee headed by Cecile Sabater & Ricky Inting, who have been working with Fr. Celestine to find the appropriate place and procedures to ensure a smooth and safe reopening process. As we hear more, we'll keep you updated.

Students Join Monday Mass – Even though our students are only able to attend class virtually, they nonetheless continue to join us for mass weekly on Monday mornings. When they log into their classroom, their teachers will go to our mass being broadcasted and share the livestream mass with the students so they can attend mass together as a class, even if they are doing so at home. Ah, the wonders of technology. Thank you Mr. Miller and all our teachers for facilitating this important aspect of their Catholic education!!!

REFLECTION

The Season of Creation

September 1 (World Day of Prayer for the care of Creation) to October 4 (the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi)

"During these weeks, consider praying outdoors. Ponder what God is saying to you through nature, from the tallest of trees to the smallest of creatures. Reflect on your sense of communion and solidarity with all beings, especially the poor and forgotten. What is God's invitation in this "struggle for justice, love and peace"? We might discover that it is in caring for the poor and the earth that we experience the peace we desire... and discover profound unity with God and all God's creation."

-Christina Leano, Staff member of the Global Catholic Climate Movement

Registration for RCIA and Religious Ed, contact Sr. Cristina. We will begin in mid-September. Online class will begin on Saturday, Sept. 19th, 11:00 AM -12:30PM, via Zoom. RCIA will be in person with Sr. Cristina. Dates and time will be decided with the candidate. Meeting will be at the Pastoral Center.

Happy Feast Day to the Canossian Family This Tuesday, September 15, is the feast of our Lady of Sorrows, patroness of the Canossian family of religious and laity. Please pray with us as we continue our mission "to make Jesus known and loved", as St. Magdalene of Canossa lived for.

The feast of our Mother of Sorrows reminds us of Mary's enormous grief. She is seen on this feast as standing beneath the cross of her son. Every mother who has lost a child can turn to Mary for help. On this feast day reach out to a mother you know who carries sorrow in her heart for a dead child. Send her a note, take her flowers, pray for her.

Lay Canossians are lay women and men who have the vocation to live the Charism and Spirituality of St. Magdalene of Canossa, and to live both through service of the poor, together or in cooperation with the Canossian Sisters. The candidates commit themselves to a specific Formation Process, for one to two years, depending on their readiness. The formation team is composed of chosen Lay Canossians and a Canossian Sister. Please contact Jim Regan, Angela Testani or Sr. Cristina for more information. Meetings are arranged individually.

JPIC (Justice, Peace, and Integrity of Creation Ministry Team)

Sr. Cristina and Alice Ho Seher are planning to revive our parish's social justice organizing team, collaborating with the school. Please sign up with Sr. Cristina if you are interested in brainstorming with us. Thanks.

DON'T FORGET TO WEAR A MASK—This is mandatory!
There will also be a temperature check before the Mass.

If you are over the age of 50 or have a chronic or underlying medical condition, a gathering increases your risk of contracting the virus or if you do contract the virus it may have a greater chance of creating serious illness that could even result in death.

If you fall into this high-risk category and/or if you feel sick, are displaying COVID-19 symptoms (especially fever, cough or difficulty breathing) or if any of these symptoms are being experienced by someone in your household, you should stay home.
The church cannot guarantee that there is no risk of infection

Informed Consent for In-Person Attendance at Mass During COVID-19 Public Health Crisis

Holy Name parish intends as best it can to follow all mandated Archdiocesan safety protocols and county regulations for public worship services. However, the county medical officer has advised us that public gatherings may nevertheless present an increased possibility of contagion even if safety precautions are taken, and therefore he has asked us to inform you that your participation may increase the risk for yourself and your family.

In particular, if you are over the age of 50 or have a chronic or underlying medical condition, a gathering increases your risk of contracting the virus or if you do contract the virus it may have a greater chance of creating serious illness that could even result in death. If you fall into this high-risk category and/or if you feel sick, are displaying COVID-19 symptoms (especially fever, cough or difficulty breathing) or if any of these symptoms are being experienced by someone in your household, you should stay home. The church cannot guarantee that there is no risk of infection for attendees.

Your signature below indicates that you understand these risks and agree to abide by all safety protocols and to follow all other instructions that may be given, and that you acknowledge the risks involved. This information will be kept confidential to the extent the law allows and is protected from law enforcement and immigration authorities. Should you desire to share the mass time and date, it will help with contract tracing should the need arise.

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SEPTEMBER 13, 2020

When couples who are going to be married in the Church come to see me for the first time I get them to fill out a brief questionnaire. The last two questions on the form ask:

"What do you like best about your partner?"

"What do you like best about yourself?"

The first question usually presents no problems, although it can hold a few surprises and sometimes a playful punch if the right answer is not forthcoming!

The second question seems to present all sorts of difficulties, especially for prospective grooms. Some of us find it hard to name the God-given qualities we value most in our character. Some couples try to pass it off, "That's for others to say" or, "I don't want to blow my own trumpet." Others try to dismiss the question as being new age or trendy.

But the question does, in fact, cut to the heart of both today's second reading and Gospel. "You must love your neighbor as you love yourself." We cannot say in the same breath, "I hate myself, but I am a good Christian." For St Paul, love of self was not indulgent, but the cornerstone of our mission to love as Jesus loves us. Paul knew the difference between self-love and self-adoration. Our love of God is expressed in the healthy and appropriate esteem we have for ourselves. Put another way, we cannot love anyone else if we don't love ourselves. If we have poor self-esteem then often we need others to fill up this gap in our self-love. Most relationships cannot sustain such a demand.

The Church has to take some responsibility for this state of affairs. We used to be taught that mortification and self-denial were good Christian virtues, and indeed they can be. When properly understood they are never opportunities for self-hatred. The sanest spiritual writers in our tradition saw these virtues as paths of closeness with God and service of our neighbor.

One such writer was St Ignatius Loyola who in the Spiritual Exercises saw that it was precisely as sinners that God loves us. He saw that one of the greatest gifts the Lord can give us is when we see our sinfulness for what it is, but are not overwhelmed by it, and that we experience the power of God's love for us who calls us to walk as children of the light.

Jesus in today's Gospel attends to this destructive side of our human nature. Jesus teaches us that those who do not love their neighbor as they should are to be treated with dignity and respect and offered every opportunity to seek forgiveness until it is clear they can no longer be a part of the Christian family.

The challenge and hallmark of the Christian life is the way in which we live out God's love and forgiveness. And, although the Christian community should be the last group to exclude anyone, even we have to have our boundaries. Sometimes this involves holding others to account for what they say and do, especially if they claim to be a follower of Christ. The love and forgiveness of God does not mean that "anything goes." It is a love that calls for constant conversion. We can witness to it only to the degree that we have experienced it, from God, from others, and in the way we love and forgive ourselves.

And we know when these qualities are taking deep root in us because answering a question like, "What do you really like about yourself?" is a piece of cake!

For all who experience fear or anxiety, we pray for peace of mind and spirit.

For affected families who are facing difficult decisions between food on the table or public safety, we pray for policies that recognize their plight.

For those who do not have adequate health insurance, we pray that no family will face financial burdens alone.

For those who are afraid to access care due to immigration status, we pray for recognition of the God-given dignity of all.

For our brothers and sisters around the world, we pray for shared solidarity.

For public officials and decisionmakers, we pray for wisdom and guidance.

Father, during this time may your Church be a sign of hope, comfort and love to all. Grant peace. Grant comfort. Grant healing.
