Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

*March 28, 2021
The Beginning of Holy Week*

A Brief Reflection on the Easter Triduum

Today we begin the Holy Week with the Palm Sunday celebration that commemorates the triumphant entry of Christ into Jerusalem, leading up to the three most important days in Christianity. The Triduum is the proper name for the three-day season that concludes Lent and introduces Easter. Technically speaking, a triduum refers simply to any three-day period of prayer. Triduum comes from Latin meaning "three days."

Easter Triduum - The three 24-hour periods of the triduum include the major feasts for all four days at the heart of the Easter celebration: the evening feast of Holy Thursday (also called Maundy Thursday), Good Friday, Holy Saturday, and Easter Sunday. The Easter Triduum memorializes the suffering, death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Holy Thursday - Starting with the Mass of the Lord's Supper on the evening of Holy Thursday, continuing through the Good Friday service and Holy Saturday, and concluding with vespers (evening prayer) on Easter Sunday, the Easter Triduum marks the most significant events of Holy Week (also known as Passiontide).

On Holy Thursday, the Triduum begins for us Catholics with the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper, during which bells are rung and the organ played. The bells and organ will then remain silent until the Easter Vigil Mass. The Mass of the Lord's Supper includes a ritual washing of feet, (but due to the pandemic, there will be no washing of feet this year). After the Mass, the altars are stripped of all decorations as a symbol of Christ's prayer in the garden of Gethsemane leading up to his arrest, trial, and crucifixion.

Good Friday - The Good Friday church ceremony is marked by a ritual unveiling of the main cross near the altar. This is the day that marks the Crucifixion of Jesus Christ. Our worship service does not include the celebration of Mass; in fact, this is the only day in the year that Mass is not celebrated. We may ritually kiss the feet of Jesus's figure upon the cross or make a deep bow in reverence or simply touch the cross. (Because of the pandemic, we may not kiss or touch the cross this year. We are to genuflect or make a deep bow.)

Holy Saturday - After nightfall on Holy Saturday, we hold an Easter vigil service, which represents the faithful awaiting the resurrection of Jesus Christ after his burial. In some congregations, this vigil service is held before dawn on Easter Sunday. This service includes a ceremony of light and darkness, in which a paschal candle is lit to represent the resurrection of Christ; members of the congregation form a solemn procession to the altar. The Easter Vigil is considered the pinnacle of the Easter Triduum, especially for Catholics, and is usually celebrated with a devotion equal to that bestowed on Easter itself.

Easter Sunday - Easter Sunday marks the end of the Triduum and the beginning of the seven-week Easter season that will end with Pentecost Sunday. Easter Sunday church services for Catholics as well as Protestants is a joyous celebration of the resurrection and rebirth of Jesus and mankind. Popular Easter symbolism includes many images of rebirth found both in the world of nature and in religious traditions throughout history, including fragrant lilies, newborn animals, and spring plant growth. Altars on this day are adorned with beautiful flowers to symbolize the new Life in Christ.

SUFFERING

Jesus did not come to do away with suffering or remove it. He came to fill it with his presence.
